Note of Gratitude

I am so grateful for the love and blessings which have been given to me over this period of time, that this word can go to humanity with love and sincerity.

Pearl and Jerry Dorris.

INTRODUCTION

Many of us have met a person in our lives who, though not well known, has demonstrated qualities of character and virtue beyond the normal human. In this person's presence we feel God's nearness and find that the mystery of this life gives way to a greater understanding and sense of purpose. These people not only leave their mark on the lives of those around them, but also appear to be born to the higher purpose of raising the quality of human life on earth. Pearl Dorris is such an individual.

Her story begins many years ago. She was brought up in a home where love and happiness were the cornerstone of the family. Her parents were not members of any particular church, and even though little mention was made or instruction given of a spiritual or religious nature, the house was permeated with all the moral qualities on which our country was founded. At an early age Pearl demonstrated a spiritual awareness rarely seen in a small child. Her life reads like a story of miracles. Starting from the age of fifteen, books and people came into her life in miraculous ways, each clearly a step on the spiritual path she was to take. Step by step she was led and guided over a period of many years until ultimately she came to the instruction by the Ascended Masters on the "I AM Law of Life."

For readers not familiar with the reality of the Ascended Masters, these individuals are Great Beings who have, through their service to humanity, purified and perfected themselves throughout the ages. Many are familiar with the life of the Great Master Jesus: his humble birth into human embodiment, his courageous, determined, and compassionate service to mankind, and his final resurrection and victorious Ascension into the Great Light of the Father. Beloved Jesus, the Master Saint Germain, and many other great ones have, through their service to humanity, earned the right to live and serve entirely from the Ascended Octave of Light.

It was the Ascended Master Saint Germain who brought forth the universal laws of the "I AM" to guide mankind into the new Golden Age. These teachings, which were presented through Godfre and Lotus Ray King in the 1930's, formed the basis of a worldwide organization, the Saint Germain Foundation, which was affectionately called the "I Am Activity." In the series of books published by the Saint Germain Foundation, including Unveiled Mysteries, The Magic Presence, and *The I AM Discourses, Godfre Ray King tells of his meetings with the Master Saint Germain on the slopes of Mt. Shasta, California, and of his subsequent experiences and instruction in the principle of the "I AM" and the direct teachings of the Ascended Masters.

The knowledge and practices imparted to Godfre by Saint Germain were a revelation of teachings long held in secret by the Ascended Masters. These were presented in a systematic manner, with each instruction given as a necessary step in the development of the Christ Consciousness and the process of ascension. Saint Germain explained that the student must first accept and then come to experience the God Presence within himself. This inner reality Saint Germain calls the "I AM" Presence. He then gave Godfre instructions how to experience it directly through a technique of meditation, which Godfre describes in his book Unveiled Mysteries.

Godfre was then instructed in the unseen laws governing the use of the "I AM" Presence to develop the Christ Consciousness within man. According to Saint Germain, it was by Divine Decree that the men and women of this age should now be shown how to experience the Divine in every phase of human existence and ultimately become free from the wheel of re-embodiment to become Ascended Masters. The time had finally come to remove the shroud of mystery which had always surrounded self-mastery.

Through the application of this knowledge Godfre quickly raised himself to a level of spiritual development seldom seen in the western world. Because of Godfre's humility, love, and divine radiation, millions of students throughout the world were attracted to the Ascended Master instruction. Pearl was introduced to Godfre's book, Unveiled Mysteries, in a miraculous way, and she quickly became one of his most dedicated students. At the same time, in another part of the country, a radio announcer by the name of Bob LeFevre was also dedicating his life to the teachings of Saint Germain, which Godfre exemplified. Like Pearl, Bob was a highly developed individual who had been searching all his life for spiritual knowledge. Both Bob and Pearl shared a deep desire and a commitment to further the Master's divine work with humanity. Pearl was chosen by Saint Germain to be in charge of the San Francisco Sanctuary of the Saint Germain Foundation, and Bob became Godfre's announcer, introducing both Godfre and his wife, Lotus, to their audiences throughout America.

In November of 1939, Saint Germain brought Pearl and Bob together in a spiritual friendship and revealed to them that they were capable of rendering a unique service to the Masters' work. When Godfre's Ascension came the following month, Saint Germain appeared to Bob and Pearl and requested that they begin this service for him. The depth of their sincerity and dedication over the years had distinguished them to carry on the Master's work. As requested, they assembled a small group of sincere students. It was to this group that Saint Germain and the other Ascended Masters continued giving the Ascended Master discourses contained in the first two volumes of the Step by Step Series.

One of the members of their small group was a very kind and highly spiritual man named William Jerome Dorris (Jerry), a student of the "I AM." Jerry was guided by Saint Germain to ask Pearl to marry him, and on December 2, 1944, Pearl married Jerry, bringing perfect balance into their lives in a marriage that rendered forty years of service to humanity. At approximately the same time, under the Master's guidance, Bob was brought together with Loy Reuling in a similar marriage. The four of them, together with their small group of sincere co-workers, continued to work together for another five years. The Master had given them ten years to render their service for Him. At the completion of this work in February of 1949, each member of the group then entered his or her own avenue of activity, though the bond of love that had been forged in ten years of service to Saint Germain continued the rest of their lives.

Pearl and Jerry moved to a fruit ranch which Jerry owned in Santa Rosa, a lovely community in northern California. They remained there until 1956, when they moved to Mount Shasta. It was here in 1971, that Pearl was once again encouraged by Saint Germain to begin sharing the Ascended Master teachings. Jerry, with his characteristic strength and humility, provided the support, understanding, and encouragement, so necessary for the continuance of that service. Pearl had no conscious plan for this activity, but it soon became apparent that she carried great Light and in God's mysterious way, thousands of people found their way to her door. Always she turned them within to their own "I AM Presence," and helped them to feel the reality of the Light.

Step By Step We Climb To Freedom And Victory is a collection of these inspiring talks given by Pearl in the 1970s and early 1980s in the living room of her home in Mt. Shasta. These have been transcribed from taped recordings and offer a keen insight into the practical application of the Ascended Master teachings from one who has been practicing them for over fifty years. When once asked to describe the source of the wisdom and insight that poured forth from her during these talks, Pearl answered that it was the result of deep attunement to the "raised consciousness of the Christ Principle."

Volumes I and II of the Step by Step Series are direct transcriptions of discourses given by Saint Germain and other Ascended Masters during Pearl and Bob's years of collaborative service from 1940 to 1949. These are instructions for the attainment of self-mastery. In these discourses the Masters continue to reveal the true understanding of the spiritual laws of life and how to apply them. They illumine the most crucial steps we will all take on our path to the Christ Consciousness and our ultimate ascension. In addition, and perhaps most importantly, these teachings are charged with the radiation of these magnificent Beings of Light.

The books in the Step by Step Series are not the result of "channeling," hypnosis, or any other trance-like procedure. When Saint Germain, or other Ascended Masters would appear, they were visible in their bodies of light to Bob's inner vision. In addition, as the Masters would speak, letters of light would simultaneously flash before Bob's eyes. This assured tremendous accuracy, not only in recording the information being given, but in capturing the wonderful radiation of love that emanates from these Great Ones.

Pearl's life has been one of dedicated service. In her presence one feels the love and humility of the Christ Consciousness radiating from her being, and her time and effort has always been given freely and as a gift of love. With this inspiration and teaching so readily available, it is now possible for all of us to become the example of transcendent love and compassionate service that is our true destiny and the destiny of all those who would walk in the footsteps of the Masters. In the words of Saint Germain:

> "Yours is the responsibility of your world—yours alone. Accept the responsibility in joy and happiness, with your feelings calm and determined, going forward. And I assure you, never will you lack for any good thing, and you will find the way opening before you and Ascended Master Friends springing up to stand by your side."

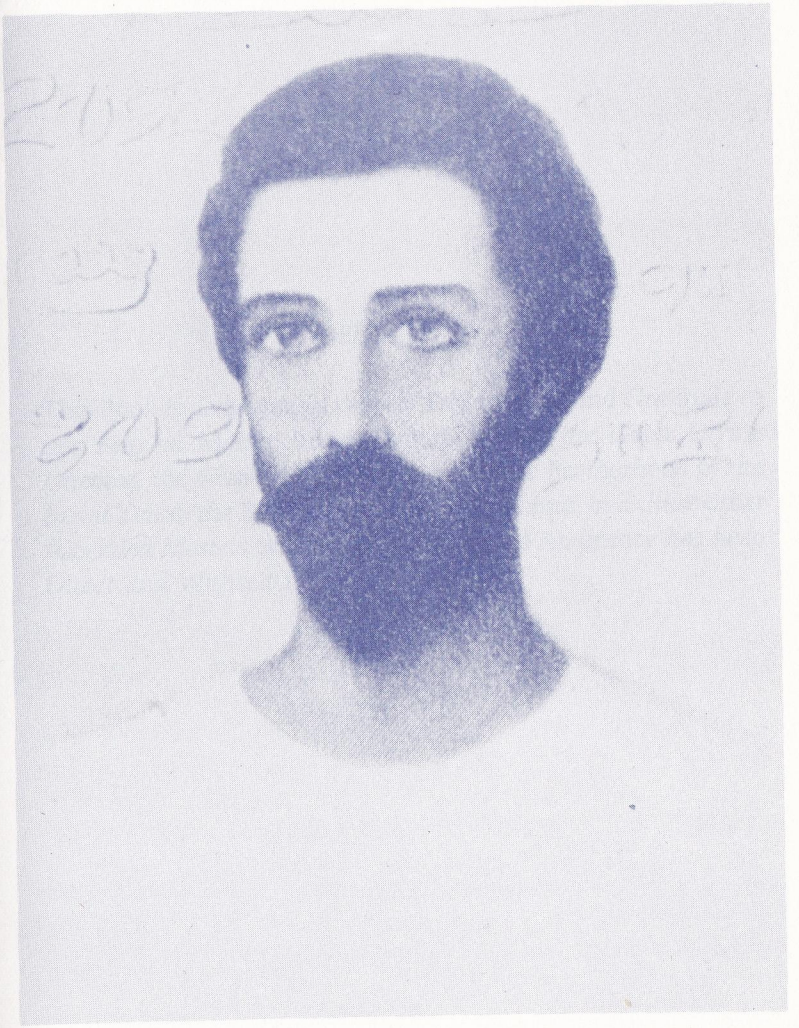
It is our deepest hope that the teachings and Divine radiation of this book will help all those who have been guided to its message to fully realize this blessed invitation.



The Ascended Master Saint Germain.

Editorial Note

This book was transcribed from recorded discourses given by the author while speaking to her students over a period of several years. At the time these discourses were given, the author had no conscious intention of creating a book. Indeed, it was only after repeated requests by her students that she allowed her talks to be recorded at all. We are profoundly grateful to those early students who persisted in their farsighted request.

In order to preserve the original tone and feeling, as well as the beauty of Pearl's expressions, this book reflects her words exactly as they were spoken. While much work has gone into editing her discourses into the separate topics covered by each of the chapters, we have deliberately refrained from making any corrections, changes, or additions to her grammar or sentence structure. Wisdom and the knowledge it contains are as often conveyed by the feeling of the speaker as by the words themselves. It is to this end that we have preserved for you, dear reader, your own private conversation with Pearl.

THE JOURNEY OF AWAKENING

This work comes not as a channeling but as a result of intuning to the Center, the Source, the Flame, and allowing the instruction, or the answer, to pour forth. As my attention is Centered, as in a small gathering of earnest and sincere seekers, I see through the Flame in the Center. It is a pulsation of seeing, hearing, speaking, so I do not need outside assistance. Outside assistance was originally needed to get the feeling and the understanding. That is what took place during the Arian and Piscean periods. They were taught with jewels, stones, talismans, rituals, ceremony, degrees, and silence. They had to remain silent for as long as five years in order to learn to read this frequency of Light as it moves through. That was constantly training the human race to develop, and to control the attention.

You do not have to be thinking all the time when you are at peace, or when you are quiet. The habit of thinking has become so strong that it is going on all the time with uncontrolled thought, with the attention upon the thinking, what you are doing or what you are going to do. You don't have to do that. You can be still within and just let the Light flow through. You do not have to think at all! When you can control that enough, you are expanding the Light through you by the natural radiating principle of the Sun-Christ Principle within you in its purity without any qualification whatsoever. Thus, you are that flowing through which is the pure Universal Light Substance which is steadily raising you, purifying you, reborning you, ascending you, and clearing you from sustained thought patterns that are qualified by thoughts are things with which your house has been filled. You have qualified and created these thoughts and they belong to you, so you live in the house of what you have thought and created.

In moving toward at-one-ment with your God Presence

you do so with conscious desire and effort. Then, just as you are seeking and acknowledging it you center yourself as a focal point. Much comes to your rescue through your desire, and you begin to become a focus of attention or a focus of currents coming through you from members of the Hierarchy. As much as you accept the Hierarchy, just so much will come to you. If your thought, by your attention, denies or doubts, then it is impossible for you to become that magnetic focal point that can be helped. The attention to the very Center, the Source of your being, is that which is your acknowledgment that you want more of the Light. It is that simple. It is not something that you force upon yourself or that you try to attain, or try to become, but you let go and do become. You rest completely with the inner relaxation and the outer in the position of waiting to be transformed, to be purified, waiting to be resurrected, raised. The outer self, the atomic structure cannot be raised into the higher consciousness until you as the focal point are conscious in that Consciousness.

I hope you follow this because by your attention in the focal point of yourself, you are touching upon the Christ of you, that sun you that is within. The second your attention is touching that by receptivity that you know it is so, you are commencing to dissolve any lingering doubt and you are beginning to be that action of the magnetic pull that is the feminine mother side of yourself within that great central focal point. It is constantly pulling to the Father, the electronic, the Fire, the Fire Breath, the Source. It is constantly pulling to that to expand it, nursing it into a more developed state that is the unionizing of those two currents within you, which is the divine marriage known as the bride and groom, or the great Divine Marriage. As that comes to your conscious awareness, as you are feeling it take place, you change in dimension in that transition moment. That second of changing, as you start moving through that, your attention must be steadily held upon it that your desire moves righteously through that, that it can expand into becoming conscious that you are the Consciousness of this combination of the two currents—electro-magnetic—that joining. You have the principle of the sun-son, and you have the wisdom of it coming into action through you. As you grow aware of this, that is the Still Small Voice speaking. You do not have to make any effort to have that work for you if you will do it with patience and the receptivity that you know it is what you want and what you are, what you are becoming, and what you are growing into. That it is your way, and that you are going to be a creator of good. You say: "I AM good," and "God is good," and so that is what you are becoming. But it must be your conscious desire that that is what you want, and that desire must be acknowledged to God, you within, for you are choosing all the time whom you are going to serve. In that choice, if you choose to become the Presence - I AM that I AM, and I AM releasing this, I AM going to be this, I AM going to give this, I AM going to live this - that very action, that principle starts to take place through you, if you believe, and if it is what you want, and if you will start doing things about it. You will not belittle yourself any more, feeling that you are not worthy or that you don't know enough, or that you are not developed enough. To say: "I AM developed, I AM wise, I AM giving," is not egotistical if you do it correctly, but you do not advertise it out to the unawakened and the nonseeker. You do not cast your jewels. In working with one another where you are seeking and searching for Truth, however, it can be discussed, provided the expression is not one of trying to tell the other what to do, but to share. Some awakening individuals who have advanced into this consciousness a little more, have a tendency to tell others, rather than to discuss the Law back and forth. In harmonious discussion you are learning. Expressing what you have discovered is helpful to you and the other can express what he has learned which is helpful to him. Then you share, and in this sharing you remain humble. But if the little brain wants to express what he knows and give the Law to show what he has learned or his knowledge of it, then you lose the point of sharing because the other individual will instantly close up or set up a resistance pattern that sometimes leads to argument. That defeats the purpose and it should never be done. Be very careful as you part with your jewels, as you talk about this Law, and use discrimination; other than that, be silent. That brings it to the principle of the Law. The great motto of the Great White Brotherhood, which was, is, and always will be, and it isn't something that was brought forth under the recent teaching of the recent Masters of the Rays, but it always has been: "To Know, to Dare, to Do, and to be Silent." Much is behind each of these four points. There is a tremendous activity behind this motto, and you learn that activity by studying the motto.

To know, is to know that you know, and this takes practice, perseverance, understanding, and application. It takes patience for your intuning to this Light by your attention, that you begin to feel results moving through you and you commence to know that you know this is what you seek, and it is what you want. Gradually it is big enough and strong enough to help you to correct yourself and big enough to add to the good you are seeking. Then you commence to know that you know this Great Law. To do something about it requires much wisdom and much discrimination, and it requires great selective discrimination, for you cannot cast this Great Light to he who is not ready. You cannot talk to individuals who are not seeking it in terms of the Law of Life, but you can be an example of love and kindness, understanding, and patience, and to the degree - "When in Rome do as the Romans do." Meet them at their level of understanding and talk with them slowly, and then you do not convince them of what they know, but you can help reveal by wisdom, carefully, until the time arrives for that one where you can say more.

It says "to dare, to do"—to do something about it, meaning if you do not give you do not receive. You must give, and to give is to learn. To get this Law as gently, as humbly, as lovingly as you can, for as the opening comes about you can speak to another. The way will open if you desire to help. It is always open. Then give; do something about it. Give, and then you learn. All the time you are giving you are receiving.

Everything that you express you are rapidly learning. You almost say to yourself that you didn't know that before, but it is true. It is the way the Great Limitless Light works through you all the time. In the Consciousness it is limitless.

And then the Silence. That is the biggest problem because there are those who go so silent that they won't even speak, they won't even greet another. They go into the phase where they know, they are daring, and they are doing a little, but they have to be silent. It doesn't mean that. It means to speak only when this guidance causes you to speak and work, and in that your silence is supreme. But that silence cannot be a smug silence, a thing that holds a superior attitude or that is holier than thou, or that it is something special for in that way you have defeated the four purposes of the great motto. That is human. You cannot break the Law in the silence by being superior in attitude, in appearance, and all else. The Presence is Wisdom moving through, and that Wisdom guides you by the assistance of the Masters helping you, if you believe in the Masters; if you believe that you can be helped and guided, and that you can be of service. All the time it is up to you. My constant call is: "God help me that I can help others. Take me to those I can help, and bring those to me that I can help. Take me to those where I can learn, and bring those to me from whom I can learn." In that way it answers you all the time. It must answer you. The Presence of you always answers if you ask. It cannot be the little brain section, that is wishful thinking. It has to be worked upon the Holy Spirit that moves through you which is wholly pure and perfect, this Great Light, which is unqualified with any human creation as it comes through you, which is yours to use to mold into position, to send forth to serve. That is your power of thinking upon the Light as it flows through you and you put your attention upon that Light, the Source of your being. So you are actually working upon unmanifested material which you qualify and send forth into the matter world. You act as a great nerve center sending this energy down and into the matter world to expand itself that it penetrates through. Jesus did the same thing . . . Krishna, Confucius, Lao-tse, Pythagoras all worked on the same principle. That is how all the Great Ones worked, and that is also how it penetrated through. It is how it penetrated through Edison's pattern and the work he accomplished. All the great ones tuned in the same way. That is what they are helping you to become, and patiently you will find what you are, who you are, and what you have to do—by knowing, daring, doing, and silence in what is coming through to you that it is fulfilling itself.

Do not disperse your energies unnecessarily. Give your energies, your thoughts with wisdom and discretion. Your thoughts, your words, your movements are all fire energy moving through you. You are using it, so be master over your thoughts, over your feelings, your movements, over all that which you do. All of these things are energy, and it must be gradually controlled energy, disciplined energy. You are your own disciplinarian all the time. You are your own doctor, your own teacher, your own wayshower, your own guidance, your own Wisdom. You are all things. You are the Presence.

Patiently you awaken through the veil into the stratum in which the Presence of you lives, where it exists, and you are being pulled into position again. You have stretched quite far away from it - the extension of the Presence of yourself. Now it is pulling you back into position again by your attention, by your seeking, by that which you want to become. It is who you are. It is not being imposed upon you and you are not being interfered with by your free will trying to make you something higher or more divine. It is entirely up to you. Do you want to be Divine? Do you want to be awake? Do you want Wisdom, Light, to be the Christ child, the giver of the Light, a Wayshower, the guidance to the Light? Do you want to deliver the Light? Then if you do you have to intune to that focal point of yourself that helps the delivery go through into the manifested world so that it joins all who are doing the same thing. That is more powerful than the already manifested world where you are pulling through the unmanifested energy and qualifying it with yet a little higher qualification than it has had in previous ages. All the time it is moving up, a little more highly qualified, and those who say that Atlantis was far more advanced than anything we have on Earth today, know not of what they speak, for all growth is growth, steadily and continuously and step by step, age after age after age. Yes, Atlantis reached great heights, but not beyond what we have reached today.

Man is developing now into the conscious awareness that he is a Christ child. The more you are conscious in that and the more you are awake in that, the more you are bringing together the two great currents, the electro-magnetic of you, you are becoming the Father, the Mother, the Son, or the action of the Unfed Flame which you are. You are becoming that, and as soon as you are, and as soon as you are working with it that it is felt by others and realized by others who are seeking and touch upon it and know, as soon as that is taking place you keep moving into that by a steady procedure. All the time then you are in the Center, all the time you are giving this through your thoughts and feelings and qualification, and in whatever you do, you remain Centered. But you are not there by wishful thinking. You are there as it works through you. By your works are you known! It cannot be acknowledged that—I know it all, I know that, I know the Presence, I know the Oneness, and so on. It has to be: I AM the Oneness. I AM the Presence. I AM the Living Christ Light. It must come from the Center out. As that begins to penetrate through, you are charged with and caused to become active through the conscious awareness of "I AM that I AM." And the Great Ones dare to release this again into our conscious awareness once more to see if we can use this wisely and correctly. As in ages past, the awareness came to the individual that "I AM that I AM that I AM" the Great Creative Word. It moved for a while, but it did not hold. Now again the great effort is being made. It is up to the human race, it is up to the individual, and as the saying goes: "Many are called but few can be chosen." Who are those few? Are you one of them? It is up to you!

In seeking the meaning of the Holy Spirit - the whole I, I AM I, the best example that came to me that I commenced to get that I AM I is the opening of the whole spirit, was when I realized that a drop of water taken out of the ocean is the same as the ocean itself. If you can get that feeling, just what that is, and then a drop of the spirit taken out of the Holy Spirit, out of the Great Central Source, is the same as the Great Central Source itself. It is the same principle. Then do it. Go into the entirety of the sun with your attention—you are the sun. Now take a little drop of the sun and bring it out and start moving with it and find yourself doing something. It is the same thing as you took from Father-Mother-Son Principle. As you move forth it is there, and that is eternal. The Great Central Source is eternal, and it is always giving of itself and always expanding, and is all things in all, and it is all things of the kingdom, it is everything. That little spark is one with God as it is sent forth, sparked out as a seed sparks out from a plant as the plant completes its fruition and sends forth its seed. It is the same as the plant itself. It goes forth to reproduce that plant again.

The same is true with the sun. As that spark comes out and goes forth—a mighty splatter of seeds go forth—ring upon ring upon ring they go out on their journey, but always they are the Center, they are that which is the Great Central Source, and they are forever one with it. Visualize that, think about it, move it forth, see it go out in ring upon ring. Each great ring, each great cycle is a thing developed, a thing learned, a thing attained. Ultimately the time comes when you are that and it is you, and you awaken, and the Eye is open. You no longer are divisional, you are One with, and you know what the Oneness is. But you cannot know this Oneness until you practice it, until you want it, visualize it, ask for it, seek it. Then quietly, patiently, without any anxiety: "I and the Father are One." Just that moment you have touched, and then it is gone again, because you start thinking about it right away, and that pulls it back into the material awareness of what you are for a while. It is said, and you will find it so, when just once you do that you will never again lose that. Now you are starting on your journey of awakening, and day by day, week by week, month by month gradually, gradually you are developing into that and you commence to awaken. In the final stages of the Eye opening where you know what the Oneness is and where you know "I and the Father are One," is when you have to let go of all the little things that are interfering, the little habits, and as the Bible says: "Not one jot or one tittle shall remain," not the tiniest, mildest dislike must remain, not the tiniest human opinion must remain, all must go, and then you commence to know what is meant by: "I and the Father are One." You are no longer separate. I AM a piece of the Father. I AM a spark of the Father. I AM a Flame of the Father. I AM of the Father's body.

What is the Father? The Father is the parent Sun that created his children, his system, often termed: "I AM the Father, I AM the Mother, I AM the Son." It is often put that way because we are so used to divisional consciousness that we think of creation as yet a dual activity of Father-Mother, but Father and Mother are one, and the union is Son. As you keep putting it together then soon you see it, fleetingly, delicately at first, but there it is.

Now pain comes with that because there is more Light going through your Spark, which is one with the Father. More Father Love is flowing through you, so it increases the Light in every cell, the smaller spark responds to the larger spark all the time. It is forever increasing. That is the Holy Spirit, the Light going through. Gradually, as you intune to that you can feel it expanding in every cell in your body by the higher pulsation of Light, but not size. The human again starts figuring on size, if it is expanding wouldn't it get larger? No, that is human reasoning. The Light as it expands becomes a new garment, a new body. The individual becomes that new body, but not a larger body. It becomes a body of higher frequency, with more of the higher pulsation going through it. Naturally, as soon as that sustains itself a little more and a little more, you commence to qualify differently, and as you do, it won't sustain itself until you have conquered that which is the thing that pulls you away from it, such as curiosity, and you have to conquer every one of these little things. If you try to conquer it by haste or duty or determination that you have got to do it and you have to have it, it won't work, for that again makes it human will and pressure, and it leads into one of the habits again. You must learn that it is not a duty to intune to this Great Light, it is what you want to do, and as soon as this is what you want to do, then you commence to do it, because it is something you want to do. The same is true with human habits. Things you want to do and like to do are much easier than things you don't want to do and don't like to do. The same principle applies.

INTUNING WITH YOUR GOD PRESENCE

A man came to the house for help and as we were sitting quietly three Beings appeared in the atmosphere pouring their assistance. Silently I asked within: "who?" Through one Great Being came the immediate response: "Vivekananda." At that time I had never heard of him, and I asked this man: "Have you heard of Swami Vivekananda?" He replied: "Yes, why?" I said he is here now. He asked: "How are you doing this?" I said: "The Light is within you, Unveiled Mysteries has told us so." He said: "This Unveiled Mysteries is for the birds." I said: "Perhaps, but you are asking me and I have no other way of explaining it except that I have applied and proved the Law given therein." He said: "It's for kids." I left that for a little while, thinking about it, and I thought, if it is kid stuff why would these three Great Beings, Vivekananda, Sri Aurobindo, and Sai Baba appear? I said: "Isn't there a saying that 'Except ye become as little children you cannot enter the Kingdom,' " and he sat back without comment. Up pulled Swami Vivekananda, and then gradually up pulled Sri Aurobindo, and then followed Sai Baba, and they were gone. This man sat there pondering and finally he said: "Where is that book? If you have a copy I will take it home and read it." He later related that he came out from the east, and he stopped in Santa Fe to eat and a boy sitting at a table reading a book smiled and leaned over and said: "Have you ever seen this?" The boy pushed the book over and it was Unveiled Mysteries. The man glanced at it and said "No" and pushed it back. He later went to India to see Sai Baba and he was walking down the street and a boy was coming along reading a book. The boy stopped and said: "O, you are from the States aren't you? Have you ever seen this book?" He responded: "O not again!" He glanced at it and said: "No, that's not for me, I want higher things, that's kid stuff." The boy said: "Well, maybe, but it's sure good." And now when he came to me the next thing I said was: "Have you ever heard of Unveiled Mysteries?" He took the book home that night and read it all, and he came back the next day and he said: "I either want this book or I want to buy one. I had no idea." I said to myself, it is a good lesson not to reject things so fast and at first glance, but give it a little chance and it just may be for you. Your Presence will show you some way or the other.

The only way you get through to your Presence, the Great Light from the Great Central Source, the Presence of you, which is in the next dimension, is by focusing your attention to the Source where the Presence comes through and anchors within you.

If you believe in your Presence, if you believe in this Light, believe it is there, your Presence will help you find it. Then apply until you feel it, but be sincere about it. The second you touch your Presence and are aware of it, you are in touch with that Divine Pulsation coming from the Great Source. Stop thinking, reasoning, analyzing and having curiosity—it just may be so. Be at peace, with head and shoulders up, not tense or tight, but just pure: I AM the Light. I AM the Living Light. I AM awakening into this Great Light. I AM sustained in the Light. I AM the resurrection and the Life. I AM the perfect balance of this Light. It is there! Ask for it! Be still! It is just like it returns back to you and says: "I have been here all the time, but you have ignored me for ages and ages. You have run around searching for me, and I am right with you wherever you go. Accept me." Then comes your part. "Forgive me. Forgive me for being so slow, so skeptical. Forgive me for doubting." Then you are starting redemption. It will work fast enough.

The Light as it comes through you from your Presence comes through you and comes out. You are the expansion of that Light through the receptivity of your little universe, through the pineal gland, through the pituitary, through your power center, and through your Center the Light flows out. It is your distribution of the Higher Light of the etheric of your Presence into the matter world.

It is not something that can be rushed. You cannot take heaven by storm, but O, what Great Glory you will receive when you touch the Master Presence, and the Presence of the Masters, and the understanding of moving out of this denser vibration filled with human qualification, with things of material-matter earth-water qualification. You are swimming in that all the time. Jesus, the Christ gave us several keys, secrets to development. One of them was the little understood demonstration of teaching the disciples that they could walk upon the water. Water is the emotional band of the earth, and the earth-water element consciousness is filled with humanly qualified thought patterns of existence in this dense stratum, and the Masters have said that you learn to rise above human creation when you learn to claim: "I stand above all human creation." That starts to lift you above the emotional world and into the higher realm where you touch the principle of walking on the water. By graphic picture that is symbolic, as you are lifting yourself up to be – I AM above human qualification, above human creation. That does not make you a superior consciousness or someone special. It does not cause you to be so superior that you judge others. You do not stay above the water if you judge or feel superior. The Masters have said there is no one special in all creation. That is what causes you to be humble. If that is so, realize what that means and it will help to keep you humble. Also, they say that they are always learning.

You frequently hear some one say in reference to good books: "O, I know that, I don't need to read that again." If we knew it all, we would not only be the universe itself, but we certainly would not be pulling out of the human. There is no such thing as knowing it all, because there is no cessation to learning. Growth is continuous and steady, and there is no gap in growth. There is no generation gap, or no level gap. That again is difficult for some to understand, because many people say they are at such and such a level, or they cannot work with another because he is at a lower level. That is belittling, and no one has the right to judge or give an opinion on what level another may be. All are at various stages of development, and when you understand that and commence to feel that, you know what it means to "See no man after the flesh." You see man only after the spirit. When you see man after the flesh, you see him after his human habits, judging from appearances.

If you are meditating correctly into your Source, it responds back to you just as clearly as we say something to each other and we respond back and forth vocally. It responds instantly, and the more you intune correctly the more you can feel the increase of that Light going through you. You never lose that when it is done by the control of the attention. For every little bit you do it, you never lose it, and it is just that much more added. Naturally when you are freshly aware in that increase and something attracts your attention physically and you have not cleared certain things, such as perhaps impatience, or something that is a noise disturber – thought patterns still there, that is going to increase that and you are going to be quickly aware of it. That is why many people have impatience or temper, or resentment against certain things, because they have been still a little before, or they have had a soft feeling about something, so that increase is taking place, whether consciously or unconsciously, and then something happens and an uncontrolled thought pattern is activated and it will explode some way, often with impatience, temper, words, quick movement, and so on. That has to be cleared; but the blessing is, if you see what it is that causes you to be impatient or irritated, if you recognize that, then you can cure it from your world forevermore and you will never do that again. Unfortunately you do not take the time to think about it and cure it, and so it happens again and again, until you have had enough of it, and pretty soon you get hold of that and see what you are doing, and then you rise above that frequency of qualification and have the next thing working for you and start to cure it. You are your own curer, you are your own doctor, and that is proving the Truth, and the more you do that in every little thing, the more you are that Truth, and then it is there right when you need it. If there is something which formerly would have disturbed you, now you are not disturbed, and you have understanding of that. That is resurrecting, ascending, because everything must be mastered in order for the Christ of you to have that pulsebeat that is receptive to the Great Fire Breath that is coming through and expanding it. You are the cure of the human race in its movement, its circulatory movement for the seed earth. Mother Earth must be raised into a higher vibration until the "above" gradually becomes master over the "below." We are raising all the time. That cure then starts the Light to penetrate through the earth more powerfully and the planet is becoming more of a Light Star instead of cloudy, often called the "dark star." Venus is pure – the Light is going through Venus as a Sun.

You feel a difference in the radiation that comes with the actual happening of this frequency that brought about the Step By Step books, the Saint Germain Series books, and the Impersonal Life, which up to now carry such powerful emanations. But this is a message, if applied and fulfilled, which can be brought up to 1982 more clearly because it is knowledge and experience that took place, and yet behind it is that same principle that it can be now! The understanding of Christ and Love, what the King, what the Center is about, and we are now gradually working to bring it into the frequency of pulsation. Then, with that as written or spoken, or given in music or picture, it carries the message to each one who is intuning, which is forming the principle of the Brotherhood as each cycle expands the Brotherhood of the time of that frequency. You see we are working many cycles later, yet the same message is eternally true, and brought into the very humble principle of it—it is always the same throughout all ages. No matter how we try to change the words, the description, the picture, the explanation, whatever, basically you are right there in that which is Love, which contains the explanation of all things, and it is the secret to all things. The Master said: "I can make thoughts that are of grace." Just as Saint Germain appeared on the Mountain and held a little cup out to Godfre and it was filled with the Universal Light Substance. The thought brought it into manifestation, into a physical cup, in order to go into a physical form, that stimulated that higher frequency again. Then suddenly like attracts like. It runs to every cell via the principle of Love, the great cohesive connection through the little system. So Godfre felt uplifted, he felt at peace, he felt Love, the Kingdom substance, the Christ Principle. Then he was quite amazed and he asked: "How is it I can see you?" The Master worked to bring him into a peace, a receptivity, a let-go-ness of the human sense world and the attention on "I AM Love, I AM this Universal Light Substance all through me," and so he commenced to understand; but he couldn't understand as long as he was conscious in the five sense world and qualifying that way because it is a lower vibration. But as soon as he qualified that with the reality of the Truth, as said there, the thought pattern of the real, the right, it commences to connect and you have the function of a little more Light, which is, by conscious effort and your own free will what you want, but only if it is what you want! You have to work for it all the time in order for it to develop, because that is creation.

Man has been given the privilege, the permission, the enlightenment, the awareness of how to use "I AM." Only when you get that can you open the receptivity of feeling the Masters' frequency at a higher level of development "above" the "below." That is opening the Eye. That is learning to read the pulsebeat which is the Still Small Voice. I AM is King, Love is King, and the core. When you attain that and awaken in it, it is the Principle of the Christ in everyone. "I came to reveal it to you, and conquer and obey that it can be so." (By the Great Presence of man which is the Silent Watcher of humanity.)

In different cycles of an individual's life the intuning process is experienced differently—sometimes more readily, sometimes with more difficulty. Environment, as well as association has a lot to do with it, and then, of course, that little thing "karma." Several things are influencing all the time, your thought, your attention, the human interference with one another. You are your own worst enemy, and you are your own best friend. Thus, the attention on an individual, your qualification, often affects you because you haven't learned not to judge from appearances, or you haven't conquered the things that you see in the sense world in action. All of this plays a tremendous part in the stop and go development, and the flow of development. It takes a big person to recognize that he has misqualified something observed or something another has done, and condemned or judged it, or put a wrong thought toward it. You are pulling that toward you and then you have interference. It will stop your harmonious flow of growing. You keep interfering with yourself all along the way until gradually you realize that you just have to stop that, and clean up. You have to clear those human habits, such as judging from appearances, or criticism, or whatever the case may be.

Many of the teachers going forth today do not recognize or give cognizance to any of the things that are wrong in your world. You are simply to get this Law and do it, you don't have to bother about human habits or shortcomings. If you will follow through on that, however, and watch them you will see how quickly their human habits are interfering with them. The Law is a continuous growth until you move into the next stage of development. It isn't that you jump from here to there and move into the higher brackets. You do have to become clear and pure in your thoughts. "Except ye become as little children ye cannot enter the Kingdom." "Seek ye first the Kingdom and all else will be added unto you."

This is something that is of paramount importance. It isn't a duty, it is what you are doing and how you are going to become the Master Presence. As you develop into that you feel it. You feel yourself changing, and this change is a process as simple and as clear as the census observing individuals increasing year after year. You feel this change. You commence to awaken into the I AM, the I AM Consciousness of yourself, or the Holy Spirit. You are conscious in it. Where there seems to be a stop and start development, that is individual entirely, primarily caused by human thoughts. Thoughts are things, and what your attention is upon you are becoming, and all the time that attention and those thoughts are not a duty. Get that! You know it isn't a duty, on account of your free will. You have freedom of choice. You are free to choose what you want to do. Freedom! Freedom! Freedom! The Law of the Seventh Ray—free dominion, free domain. Then you have to be big enough to pull through what you have chosen, if you choose to develop into the Light and become the Holy Light in Action. And "To thine own self be true." Is it what you want? Is this what you want, for the sake of developing to help others? All of these things are your choice! Then God helps those who help themselves, and you begin to have Divine Guidance and Divine help. And you will notice that help only stays as long as you remain humble.

Humbleness, the receptivity of humbleness is your own choice, no one is imposing it on you, it is what you choose. What you ask for is what is taking place with you. You remain humble by controlling your attention and working with your Center, and you then begin to have the ability to be above personality. That is a big order, for your personality, your human, your habits have been running you for a long, long time. They are a fixed pattern in the focal point established as the brain section and the finite mind. You now start to conquer that. You are moving in to conquer the fixed pattern of the human. You are starting to move toward the real man again and understand a little more what is meant by the word "man." It is combining the alpha and the omega. It is combining the beginning and the next stage of development, the beginning and the end of human. It appears in the capital letters of our alphabet as a constant revelation to humanity through our means of communication, and a very great secret is contained in our alphabet A to Z. Understanding and commencing to turn your attention to this, you begin to know what it means that man now moves from the hue-man to the completeness of man again, as was completed in the Eden Belt, before he moved away from his Source.

Man is now slowly moving back to that, but he must move into it consciously, for he consciously turned aside, or ignorantly turned aside from his Source. Now as he consciously turns back to it, he must do this with the sincere desire to do so, and no one, but no one, in all the billions of souls that are developing and growing, is special, and no one is going to be singled out as special that he does not have to make this effort. That included the much loved and worshiped one known as Jesus, the Christ. He had to make the effort every step of the way, seeking, searching, learning by experience and knowledge until he awakened into the Christ which he was, that Christ Principle. All others developing in the human race have to arrive in the same manner. It is not an easy step or an easy journey. It is not compulsory that you become a Master Presence and learn this and become master over the human, master over the earth-water element consciousness. You are free to choose. That is a gift which was bestowed upon man, this great free will, which is a gift of the Divine Intelligence of the Creative Principle of the Elohim of Creation, that man could go on existing, even with his stubborn disobedience, by the power of free will endowed upon him. Free will is the thing that is causing you to fluctuate. It is causing you to suffer, it is causing you to have faith and doubt, the love, the dislike, the force of will, and the inertia. All those things are pushed by your free will in order to cause you to awaken to this great Divine You which is the real Presence of yourself, the I AM that I AM that I AM.

When you begin to be alert and aware of this, that you start to feel it, and you start to intune to it, you know. There is just something in you that you know. You know it is so. You know it is what you want, and even though you enter into your world of work and association in the outer world, and you have interferences, influences, and things that try to turn your attention and dissuade you and discourage you as you go along, the desire for the Light is stronger, and daily it comes to your rescue. Something will be so strong and so influential that seemingly you can never recover. But the Light is more powerful, once you have touched it and are consciously aware of it, feebly and daintily it sustains you and you will pull through that. It seems when the dark clouds hang low that it is hopeless—but it never is. All this time you are having these experiences and all this time you are gaining knowledge and strength. This knowledge and experience is the greatest blessing that can help you bring this together, provided you seek! You seek for the Light. You seek for the next stage of development, and if you are seeking, it does something to open this Holy Spirit, this Light at the Source of your being, the sun of your being, and surrounds the pattern which is experiencing knowledge, this pattern which you have had all of your lives. It does something to coat that with the beautiful cohesive action of Divine Intelligence, which is Love. So Love becomes a paramount and powerful attribute for you to seek, for you to generate, for Love is a quality which must be generated.

When I realized that Love must be generated, I thought how on earth does one generate Love? Always when something puzzles me in these Great Laws, I go after it. So I said: "God, show me how to generate Love, how do I do that, what is the principle?" Then I thanked God and said: "God, see that I know when I am generating Love." The next morning, after I had made that call the evening before and worked on it, I was awakened bright and early. I got very comfortable, and then I said: "I love you," and I named a neighbor who didn't quite approve of this work. I said her name, and blessed her. Then another neighbor, because they thought this work was a disturbing thing for the neighborhood, I said: "I love you and I bless you," visualizing them and giving the name. Then I thought of a couple of my kin who were not approving of my course, and I went after that. I said: "I love you," naming the different ones of the family. Pretty soon I felt something tingling, responding. I thought, "O, that is good, I'll go all the way around," so I went around to many whom I knew, back and forth, and I worked perhaps a half hour or an hour on it. I didn't know I was generating love, I didn't realize that to generate is to activate, get it going. I went about my daily work when there was a knock on the door, and here stood a neighbor with a little plate of cookies. She had never called before. She said: "I was baking some cookies when something happened to me and it said, take some over to your neighbor." That was love which had reached out there. I said: "Won't you come in," but she said: "No, I just wanted to bring you some cookies," and she left. A contact was made. A little later in the day, hanging over the back fence was a young boy who called to me. He asked me a couple questions, and then he asked me if I read the Bible. I said: "Yes." He said: "Do you read it to people?" I replied: "I don't have to read it to people, I quote it." He got to thinking about that and then he turned around and went back into the house. That was the second touch that came. The same day the neighbor across the street came with a little basket of hot muffins. Food again is symbolic, and I thought this was very good. I asked her to come in, and she replied that she was very busy, and returned home. Somehow or the other the love touched.

After that, about a week later I had two letters from relatives containing much more warmth. That was generating love. Then I said to myself: "Now follow through on these Laws and see what happens." I learned to ask for little things and about small things that would crop up. Again came the old saying: "Take care of the little things and the big things will take care of themselves." So I started doing that, and soon I was having tremendous results.

FAITH - I BELIEVE

Whatever you want to bring through to your awareness which is good - the feeling, the wording, or the understanding expressed through you - contacts through to the more perfect of that in the etheric, or the Master Belt. For instance, if you want to be more in tune, which perhaps would entail calm, peace, faith—one or the other or all of these things known as the understanding of faith, calm, peace must become a part of you. How do you feel about faith? How do you respond to yourself or to your awareness when you say: I have the faith, I believe? What is it that you are doing? Just that little acknowledgment or that recognition is actually you asserting, through the power of your free will, that you know the human faith, or faith at the material level, what it means and what it brings to you. When you say: I AM the pure Faith of the Light, or, God help me that I have more Faith, then the likeness of that in the Great Etheric Realm, in the Presence of yourself, which is Divine Faith, commences to seep through and begins to be a little more clear to you.

For instance, we were coming back from Canada and Jerry and I stopped at the old home place where I was born in Colorado. I walked over to the bridge which was near the house and I stopped and put my hands out and was looking into the water below. I looked over at the house and it occurred to me that that was where I had come onto the Earth this time, and it touched something right into the etheric, or into the cosmic consciousness of it. As I was standing there I began to feel the power of returning to the Earth this time and permission to get started again, and I realized that that was the flow of Love, or Light, or God, and I said: "O, I believe in God who brought me back - I believe!" It seemed that I touched upon true belief, which moves into faith, into a higher sphere, and something moved within me very powerfully, and for the first time I realized what it meant—really to believe. I thought I believed before, and after that experience I could sense how much doubt I had against belief, or faith. It was so simple and so beautiful. "Except ye become as little children ye cannot enter the kingdom of heaven." As I stood there in childlike simplicity that this was where I came back and this was where I chose to come on the Earth, it did something. Just like that, as it touched, and it was so strong, it came like: I believe in God. There it is, and I AM that Oneness.

The same principle is contained in the book The Jesus Mystery, where they suddenly discovered in their travels, in listening to the holy men, that "I and the Father are One," and it dawned on them, it awakened, it touched upon the Truth of what the Father is. But the only way we can touch it and commence to move toward it and awaken into that dimension is to use the word that contacts us into that dimension, and that word "Father," or "Fire," or "Faith," or the "Holy Spirit." Any one of those words would pull you through into the picture, by your free will. Then, when expressing it, it becomes just a little clearer in the reality of it through a higher dimension, which is the divine of that, the divinity of Divine Mind moving through. So actually I touched into the true thing that was divine - "I believe," and that remained. It was so simple and so clear. Everything looked different now - the canal, the trees, and the sky, and our camper, everything seemed to be in a dimension that was usable. Then as we started rolling we had quite a few experiences on our way back to California. As we arrived at the top of the hill nearing home, it was nine in the evening and we decided that we would sleep in the camper and come on in the next morning. A half dozen people sensed us in the vicinity and all of them said the same thing - they phoned the house as they felt we were in town. What moved near here was that very something that is Faith, that something that is - I believe, I AM the Light. But it is that Oneness, it is that principle of Divine Mind that is an attribute of Divine Mind which is unexplainable in the words of the finite mind. It is impossible to express what happened - it just happened.

That moved right along to those who were waiting and believing, and all had the same experience. From then on it opened up that attribute within of I believe, and that moves from the human to the divine – I AM Faith – moving right into the next dimension.

After I returned I realized that in order to have the things I wanted more active through me, I must make the call for the likeness of it as near as I knew how and let the divine of it come through. If I wanted more Understanding, then: "God help me that I do understand this more, help me to have more Understanding." Then the likeness of Understanding from the divinity of yourself, the Presence of you, your real electronic body, commences to move through. It is very delicate, and you begin to pick up seemingly different ideas, or perhaps a desire to read a certain thing a little more sincerely, or to search out something new and study it, or talk to someone about a point. It causes the divinity of that attribute to awaken in you, acting through your conscious awareness, enabling you to use it and bring it into the material world and become the living proof of it, becoming the acting proof of that divine pattern. That is what you are moving toward having and becoming—the Master Presence in everything you do—by arriving into each of these qualities by the proof of the truth of that, and it becomes the divine attribute acting through you.

No matter what it is, it takes application, it takes searching, it takes sincerity. Is this what you want to become? Search within yourself, and "To thine own self be true." All things below have an above, a likeness, a little higher frequency. "As above, so below," but each in its own dimension. So when you feel you need more of, take the likeness of it at this stratum, or finite consciousness. Ask for it, and then the infinite commences to Light forth, it begins to alert through, aware through, and you commence to know. It is the only way that you can become the next dimension – by seeking it, asking for it, feeling it, accepting it, and clearing the things out of the way that want to argue or doubt. As soon as that comes up, then search for the Faith. "God help me have more Faith, and less doubt." Doubt must go! It must be completely out of your qualification because it is smothering, it is a fault, and you cannot have doubt acting and have clarity. Recognize that, but do not punish yourself. Seek it but do not demand it of yourself. That moves into mental pressure on yourself, as some feel, that they have mentally to will themselves into being good, or will themselves into being awake, or into right-use-ness. You won't arrive that way! Forcing yourself to attain through human will is only momentary and of short duration. It cannot sustain itself, for that is what the finite mind has been doing for ages, and the sustaining power has been nil. Your sustaining power is the intuning to your Source and accomplishing by proof of the truth. Then it sustains itself, and you are able to help someone else by the naturalness of it, by the Holy Spirit, which sustains itself, because the Holy Spirit does not disintegrate. All the attributes of the kingdom must be searched for and recognized. When you find, as you are changing, that there are certain things you need more of, and certain things you need to let go of—"To thine own self be true"—as you work to that end.

Higher Mental Body—Causal Body

The question has been asked about the Higher Mental Body and the Causal Body.

They are between the human and the divine. The Higher Mental Body is liaison, it is between you and the Presence. Good thoughts are in the Higher Mental, but it is not what we term a body, as expressed in some of the teachings. As soon as we think of them as bodies we start moving into that thing which is divisional. The Higher Mental Body is a state of consciousness. It becomes the sustained consciousness by your qualification. Your cellular structure changes with that and becomes more and more qualified with—you are what you think. As you are thinking good thoughts, soon you almost live in a world of right-use-ness, or righteousness, and then you are in your Higher Mental Body and you just about exist in that, because it is natural. It is not something that makes you look differently as you move amongst the people, but you do have some attributes acting that disturbs some people. You may have a type of calm, or a type of peace and understanding, compassion and patience which sometimes disturbs the unawakened or disturbed individual. But at the same time that you are in your Higher Mental Body, or that Higher Mental Consciousness, by developing that and growing into it through application and qualification, you are no longer disturbed by another's disturbance, for you have moved into the field of not judging and not giving power to imperfection. You are above giving power to that, so your qualification toward an imperfect act demonstrated toward you moves on to that with a soothing effect. Because of your attention in the Higher Mental Body you are in the Holy Spirit of right-use-ness, righteousness, and so it flows through and touches the other. Then you can say within that as you observe things or as you are guided to help someone: I AM the only Presence acting there. You can say it silently within you, but go to your Source, and to their Source, and that will actually stimulate that to take place in the individual. That one will either leave you alone or he will not be so argumentative, or the thing is terminated. That one may look at you in puzzlement, he may move away, he may want to talk more, or whatever - stay within your Center. You won't be affected by it because you are above giving power to the condition we call judging from appearances. You rise above that, and you see the other with compassion, and that helps. Compassion carries the ability to touch the Flame of the individual and stimulate righteousness in them. That is what the Master is doing to us. As we have Faith, belief in, and hold our attention upon our Center, the Masters stimulate the many things we need most, by our conscious desire and our desire-attention. Thus it pays to seek and search and desire the things you need most and you will have assistance from them by that very stimulant that they can send through that very attribute. That is taking place through the seeker; but if you are not seeking, and if you do not take some of the time along the way to be at peace and intune, the Great Ones cannot help you. They can only help as long as you give the signal that you want help. Their help is tremendous!

As soon as you can feel that help coming through, often the tendency is to say: the Master said, or the Master is speaking through you, or the Master is doing this—and thus the desire to express it to someone, or sometimes write it. You have to be very careful when that happens because it interferes with another individual. One repeatedly saying: "The Master said this, and the Master said that, and the Master is telling me to tell you this," is a very disturbing thing. In the first place, the Master doesn't work that way, but he will inspire. Sometimes you do feel like telling the world what the Master gives through you, but you cannot do it. It arouses doubt, it arouses envy, it arouses suspicion, and many of the things that move through—hurt, depression, or a let-down feeling. You have to be very careful in saying that the Master said this through you.

The Causal Body is the great Etheric Belt of yourself. Therein dwells that which you create. It is the body of cause. That is why it is called the Causal Body. That cause is producing an effect. The cause and effect is what is happening in the material level. Gradually your Causal Body is going to be a realm of cause for good and good only, and when that takes place you are gradually unifying into the Presence of yourself, as rapidly as you cause your Causal Body to be a cause for good. That is the step into Mastery. That is the teaching of the Great Masters during the last several centuries. Many Masters are working and assisting you in the things you need most, so your desire-attention is being helped. Various things are reached through various Masters at work in that particular attribute or field of service, so many things can come through at the same time in just a few people, two or more, and at the same time the radiation of that coming through can be felt by all the others if they are in tune with their Source. All of this time your understanding, your receptivity, your development are all taking place, hinging upon where your attention is, for what your attention is upon you become. That is the most vital thing in your understanding of this Law, for the attention is constantly your Divine Director of yourself, and what your attention touches is where you are.

YOU ARE YOUR ATTENTION! Again, that can hardly be explained, it cannot be pictured or portrayed or described. In no way throughout all ages has it been explained what the attention is, what Divine Mind is, and yet after you touch it and work on it, you know what it is, but you cannot explain it. When you become Divine Mind, you become that Divine Love, that principle—you just become. It is a higher frequency, which must be controlled once it starts moving through you, so you become trustworthy to work with the Hierarchy and can have it expanded more through your Causal Body and become usable in the material world, for that is the Holy Spirit. And that is your privilege of delivery, that is your privilege of coming through this time, developed as far as you are; to move forth as a seeker and a giver of the Light. Hence, this has come into your path through your having earned it thus far. The Great Ones are moving you in this manner that you are in the place where you can be helped to awaken just a little more and bring this together with balance a little more, and know what it means to move into the Oneness, which is the Presence of yourself, and which is this combination of physical, Causal, and Higher Mental Body, and the Great Electronic-Magnetic Body of yourself.

As soon as you enter into the Causal Body, which is a higher frequency, you commence to see from the Causal Body through the human body. You are in that body, but you still have not raised the human body, it has not been cleared out of the physical world. Hence, the consciousness of the Causal Body is not clear to the physical senses, nor is it visible. You know the physical body by the senses. As soon as you are aware of the cause for good completely—if you have risen above misqualifying this energy with any human qualification—then you become the cause for good and you see through the Flame into the material world, but you are not of the material world any more in consciousness, you are working through your Center, and gradually you are the Causal Body completely. You still have not raised your exterior form, however, and so you are visible to others, but they in turn, those in the material flesh form, are of a different appearance too, and sometimes it is startling where you see one you have known in the material as you are used to seeing them, and you see them with the Eye of the Causal Body; it is very startling for you know them not. You hardly recognize them through this next frequency of pulsation, where you are learning to see with the inner Eye, the All-Seeing Eye, which is the cause for good, and you almost say—I don't remember you—and it may be someone you have known for a long time. It has that effect on the senses until you get used to that transition consciousness, because you are now becoming conscious in the next dimensional consciousness. You are asking for it, so you are getting it. It is not something imposed upon you, but it is something that is developing until you gradually are able to work through that with great discretion and great wisdom. You have tremendous Wisdom, intelligence acting upon Intelligence to create the right thoughts and feelings going forth, which is a cause for good. You do not have to make the effort to try to be good or to try to do right, because you ARE right-use-ness. It becomes just a little more ecstatic, you literally want to embrace everyone. Divine Love is all of those things—it is a substance, it is the Eye, it is a consciousness, it is Peace, it is Wisdom, it is Understanding, and when you are in Divine Love you are in the Causal Body, and you become the Causal Body, and you see the world through the Causal Body. Then you are in the world but not of it; but you are not yet Master or an Arisen Master. It is gradation, or growth, or step by step you move into it, but with no gap between. It is a constant stage of growth.

You are a being of cause, and you are no longer an atomic individual, but you are raising the atomic structure. You can only understand it by intuning, by seeking, asking, and steadily becoming aware of it. Again, it is difficult to explain and tell others about it. The Master raised Godfre into the consciousness of his Causal Body that he could give this powerful Law, that it could be put into words of Love, Wisdom, and Power, and sent forth by spoken and written word. That is why the I AM "green books" are Eternal Light and cannot be destroyed in any manner. They are just as eternal as the Bible. They are clothed in the Living Light by the pattern of qualification, even as the "Step" books have been charged and qualified in the same manner.

When Divine Love begins to move in it seems like you want to put your arms around the whole world, and in the feminine form it is extremely powerful because it is the surrounding principle. It is difficult to control in the masculine form because it is the pure energy of the Holy Spirit, the Father principle. That is why the Great Ones are working to bring the balance back to the individualization through the Father-Mother Principle, or the Mother borning the Father, or Father being tempered by the Mother, which brings through the Christ. That is why the great example was left 2,000 years ago. Love is the answer to all things—Divine Love. It is the great cohesive Wisdom that connects all things created, all of the thousands of systems. So you see what a power you are working toward, and what a tremendous thing you seek. As it commences to touch a tiny bit of Divine Love moving through, you must learn to control it and use it wisely so that you can become trustworthy, that you are observed as a deliverer of the Light, a Messenger of the Light.

MAN - A SELF-CONSCIOUS CREATIVE BEING

It is your sincerity, your seeking, your understanding, your approach, your development that makes the inflow which is coming in from your Presence, or the Masters, possible. I have not been curious as to who it is or where it is from, but rather I have worked as I am guided by the Hierarchy, for I stay intuned to the Source of my being. I don't work through the brain. I work through the Flame, the Light, the Center, the Spark, the Source, the Soul, the very Center of the sun of my being. That is where my attention is, whether there is one or many present, or whether I am with the forestry kingdom, the birds, the animals, or whatever, it makes no difference, the attention is in the Center. When the attention is touching the Source and staying there, without curiosity pressing on - what is it, who is it, why is it - you have this steady flow of assistance coming through. Then you are capable of letting that flow, by keeping your attention on it, to help other individuals or to help conditions, or to help the very atmosphere. This is flowing out through you and through the very stratum of the earth-water element in which the human exists, which is 8,000 feet in its band around the earth. In that man exists in what might be termed the great sea of human creation. As you are moving through that you are also a little moving light, a little sun working in this great sea. According to your attention on the Source of your being does your little ship carry and expand the Light. This is what the Great Masters are helping mankind to do, helping to expand more Light that the pure Holy Spirit may spread into the earth, through the earth, through the crust, throughout the surface of the earth, and through the great emotional band of the earth-water element that bands the Earth.

All of the great disturbances which are happening throughout the Earth, the mob hysteria, wars, storms, and those things which are moving, are the tremendous influences which touch the individual and affect him when his attention is strictly in the human brain center accepting and giving power to imperfection. You cannot do that. Some feel that the inflow of this Great Light from the Presence or from the Great Masters of a higher realm cannot take place in a group of people where one or more has doubt or fear acting. Not so at all! Even though you may be feeling doubt, or you may be feeling a thought of wanting proof, that makes no difference with the individual as he lets this Light flow through and radiate out. It is what your attention is doing that amplifies the Light coming back to you and the Light going from you—this great frequency of vibration that touches in the material world. It is entirely up to you what you are doing with your attention. As has been said: "Ye are Gods." It is true! As Sai Baba is saying: "You go forth and say 'I AM God.' " That is a big thing for us to contemplate, for if you were to say that among your fellow man or in the orthodox church you see how quickly they would turn from you and feel something was the matter with you. So it is something that has to be handled very carefully, and yet it is something you can do in the privacy of your own meditation, your own private work. If you are where no one hears you, you can speak softly and intune to this Source of Light within you and say: "I AM God." Do it, but be very careful that someone is not listening to you who will report it to others. It moves rapidly. Whatever you cause another to think and say, you are responsible for. It is something where discretion must be practiced. When I first started working it was difficult for me to say a thing like that, and I used to say: "I AM God in action. I AM God Light." That seemed to soften it for me, but I still do it, and once in a while I get brave enough, as I work silently or quietly by myself, and I will say: "I AM God."

In the recent book The Jesus Mystery, which is a true history of Jesus' journey for nineteen years, He discovered, as he traveled as a young boy, that each of these great holy men whom he encountered in his travels, had the same thing – Light within. It wasn't what they were saying, it wasn't how they were saying it, or how they were preaching by their word and their language, but it was what they felt, it was what they were giving forth from the Center of their being, an emanation of Light, a Power that was felt coming from these holy men and their teachings, from the Guru or the Swami, or the Great Mahatma, wherever he went. He discovered the reality and the Power in using the statement: "I and the Father are one." It was that message he returned home with and told his listeners that it is within every individual. God is within everyone, and "I and the Father are one within." That is how that great belief and momentum started – that Jesus was the only begotten one on the Earth. He didn't say that. It is for you, and you, and you, for each one. Those who were closest to Jesus found it was so, that it was within, that it was an encouraging leadership, that it was an inspirational leadership. At the same time, they too had the same Source within them. That is exactly what is happening to you now, and what is taking place on the Earth, and it is taking place with the rapid awakening and excellent leadership of one coming into the consciousness of the Holy Spirit, knowing that he and the Father are One. "I and the Father are One."

Man is coming to find more and more now that it is the feeling of the Pulsebeat of Life, the Great Pulsebeat of the Great Central Source that touches the Center that is what they are releasing. They are actually releasing the Pulse of Life out to man. With that comes peace, harmony, the cooperation between one another, an acceptance of a calm and a peace so necessary right now. It is so necessary that the individual remains at peace so that he is an example of this Light to his fellow man. Whether it is the spouse next to him, whether it is his parents or his children, or whether it is friends, or whatever, it is this same thing that they feel, this Great Light going out. You don't have to announce it as you go forth. This Light can be released silently wherever you go. Let it flow! Only will it flow by the control of your attention. That is the greatest secret on the face of the earth today. I AM master over my attention. I AM master over my thoughts and feelings. Within! Within! Within! Then, holding your attention upon this and wanting it, wanting good, wanting righteousness, wanting to help, wanting to be a Wayshower, and a giver of this Light. If that is true, if that is what your attention is expressing by your desire, then you can say: I AM whatever I wish to be and manifest. Then let it start to work for you, but what you ask for is what you get! There is the great secret! If you are asking for that which is good, the kingdom, if that is your great desire, then you can truly say: I AM whatever I wish to be and manifest. That starts to work for you; but be patient as it commences to come into fruition, for all is Law and Order that works through the individual. You are continually working with the Power of Creation. You are a self-conscious creative individual. It is your seed pattern. It is the work of the human race on the Earth. The Earth people are self-conscious creators, and you are learning the great principle of consciously creating, consciously manifesting creation—the next step of development for the human race into the Great Aquarian Age as it is opening—which is the outflow of right-use-ness for man.

This cannot be stressed too much. It is something that is difficult for the haste and the hurry of mankind to think about. It isn't something you can force and press it into action rapidly by knowing it is so and you are going to have it immediately. It won't work that way. It must develop, it must grow by your obedience to how this will grow by clearing out of your world the things which interfere—jealousy, envy, criticism, judgment, condemnation, hate, and everything in the field of the humanly created world, the five sense world, that have created these qualities through the ages. Sincere students are now beginning to get those things out of the way, not by giving power to them but by rising above them. This is the preparation that the Great Masters are working toward, to help you to become natural in this natural flow of right-use-ness, that as changes move forth, as this third great change comes upon Planet Earth and as you move forth under its directive principle of what to do, and how to help, and how to work through this great oncoming change, this great entrance into the next millennium, you are being prepared. It is up to you how much you want to utilize this preparation. It is up to you what you want to do with this training which is freely given to you, this assistance, this Law, this Light, this gift, this way, this guidance that is coming to you. It is entirely up to you what you want to do with it. You are a being of free will yet, and you have freedom of choice. You can accept or reject. You can assimilate, digest, and commence to fulfill, or you can reject it and go on your human way. There is nothing that says you have to do this. There is no Master or no one who says: "This you have to do." Due to free will, the Masters cannot interfere, they can only guide, help, inspire, protect, point the way, but they cannot do it for you. It is up to you what you want to do about it. It is up to you how rapidly you wish to express Compassion, Understanding, Love, and to conquer that which is judging from appearances, and all the things that go with that. It is entirely up to you!

As you enter into the opening of the Great Eye, the All-Seeing Eye of God at the Center of your being, as this is opening you begin to see into the Great Cosmic Stratum, which is the realm wherein these Great highly evolved ones now exist and are working through, and it is your next step of consciousness in the work. As you are learning to enter into that, you must change your cellular structure. You are changing your thoughts and feelings, you are changing your means of food intake. Many things go through a great change in your life. This is up to you. Do you want this change? Is it what you are asking for? Are you true to yourself that you want to fulfill this? Is it something that you really want? Or is it something that is just a whim? It is entirely up to you. If it is what you really want, then it is up to you to take what comes with it by this great discipline, this order.

Some feel that in moving toward this that it takes away your happiness, that it takes away your joy, and that it takes away all things from you—that you have to be serious and stoic—and that is not so at all! The Great Masters are beings of Joy and Happiness. They have tremendous humor, and it is simply ecstatic to be in the presence of their great control of this Light and their outlook to the development of the human race. You can hardly realize that because you have developed through the five sense world for many centuries, and your outlook is in the five sense world of what is termed negative conditions. Now that you are rising above that and beginning to have a positive and pure outlook upon things, it is a tremendous step. As it is said, step by step you pull through this great advancement, and as you do, on your own, as you are working with this and are getting your guidance, as you intune and get your direct guidance, it is then that you grow. No one, but no one, can prophesy for you or guide you as well as you can guide yourself. That is a big order, because the human loves to have some one else do it for him, and it is so easy to go where he can hear some one prophesy or have channeling done, but rarely does a channel come to you who can tell you who you are, what it is you are to do, where you are going, and why you are doing what you are doing. Only you can find these things within yourself, and then when you do, you are on your first step to becoming a Master, the first step of awakening into Mastery, and the first step of understanding what true Mastery is. Mastery is not a demonstration. The Great Ones I have had the privilege to be near on a few rare occasions are Perfection complete, yet a very joyous and glorious Perfection, with neither demonstration, nor with stoicism nor stiffness. They are natural, they are beautiful, they are pure and good. There is no demonstration in this Great Law that causes this to sustain itself and help the Eye to open. It requires Peace and Calm, Humbleness, Purity, and most of all, your desire that that is what you want. It is up to you!

I AM NOW! If you do not get that "nowness" you cannot awaken into that Divine Spark of your being, your Flame, which is the core of your seed pattern which is you developing into the awakening that you are a self-conscious being and starting to know consciously that you are consciousness. This you have to awaken through yourself by acknowledgment, claiming, affirming, in order that you become conscious in what consciousness is, and then claim I AM—I AM good. I AM Pure. As this is what you want and what you are affirming and building in your world, then in deep meditation, done correctly and conscientiously, that you control your attention almost 95%, you stop thinking in the five sense thinking world, and as you can calm that and control your attention in that, and then affirm: I AM good, I AM Pure, every cell of your being, every atom absorbs that. That is food to your being, and it is going through you and you are starting to be enlightened, you are starting to have that principle which is resurrecting and steadily ascending. Because for ages you have been creating everything you have thought and done, and that is an encasement around every atom of your being, that has to be purified. This purification taking place is Light; it is removing the density, the fog, and you commence to be observed by the angelic kingdom, then the Hierarchy, then the Great Logos, then the Great Principle of the Seven Elohim of Creation, or the Source of Creation, the Great Central Source, the Great Source from which you are constantly being pulled up toward the Source from whence you came. Always that is the life growth of Law and Order constantly reaching upward. In that your tone and color is revealed. In that you can have much divine assistance from more highly evolved Beings that man understands very little about until the Eye commences to open that you begin to see and know how the higher existence is moving through, and how it can help.

As that starts to take place with you, you reveal it little to your fellow man, and this can only be permitted when you are sincere, for this sincerity which penetrates through and out is something that can be worked with. You can work in helping another individual because your very emanating pulsation shows you are sincere and that you are seeking. You may feel on occasion that you do things that offset that, but that is not so. With the tiniest little intuning where you say you really didn't mean that, and you wish you could do better, that goes deep, and the Masters say that they can hear you in that little lament much more clearly than if you sit down and work and decree and try hard to be the Law and become almost by force of will, because you are calling in a suffering, letting go attitude. There is something that lets go when you say: "O God, why did I do that?" They hear you more clearly and work with you instantly when you sincerely say and feel: "I didn't want to do that, God help me." Where people are ignorant and asleep, something may happen and they hurt themselves and they will stop and say: "O God that hurts," and they have help, because they have gone deep and they have really touched God within. But if they do a little swearing and become angry, it doesn't get through. The husband may go in and tell his wife, and she will say: "Let us pray," and he will say: "I did, but it didn't do any good," but he didn't actually pray. To get through, the Masters say that instantly they hear the call coming through from the suffering or pain because it is sincere.

That was so hard for me to understand at first, but since it was told I started working on it and fulfilling it. I have trained myself when I bumped or hurt myself, to be very careful what I say. "O God help me. There is no pain, pain has no power," and it stops. That kind of little training is good because the Great Ones say that if you take care of the little things the big things will take care of themselves, and it is so true, because it is a habit that grows and is going to help you in the days just ahead with changes that are coming more rapidly all the time. You have to be prepared for changes by your stability, your calm, that you quickly can turn and help your fellow man. It is needed very much all over the world where these sudden changes are taking place. The body of the human race has some sore spots right now, and he who is awakening to the ability of consciously sending forth assistance is indeed cooperating even as the system that is your bloodstream is to your body, the white and red corpuscles traveling, and the white corpuscles knowing what to do while the red corpuscles keep on with the work. You are becoming a white corpuscle in the great system of the human body as a whole, and that is a Light, a server, a helper, one who understands, a doctor, a teacher, an uplifter, a wayshower, and all of these things you are. You must now learn to let go of the already created principle of thought by what you have been before and the training in the materialistic-matter world, earth-water-matter training, which has occurred over a long period of time. You are moving into the dimension of a higher pulsation and you just have to accept it and start fitting into the picture because it is what you are asking for. It is not imposed upon you, or you wouldn't be in this room, you wouldn't be seeking, you wouldn't be reading and moving toward something that is a totally different law to mankind. You are starting to move to help individuals as the human race is now moving into the next dimension, and you are rapidly moving through the period of transition, which is the most difficult part. We are told that as you go through transition it is the hardest of all of the things you have to experience toward your awakening stage. Once you are over that step and into your next step of development, the next dimension, then you are free of that which has seemingly been such a trying ordeal, and you will know it. Some say: How do you know when you are through? As soon as you are pulling through, you know it.

You have to have the ability to fulfill, and the strength to pull through what you have been asking for and what you have been developing yourself into during the last few years. You have to be true to yourself! Is this what you want? Is this the life you want to have? Is this what you want to do, to help other individuals? Is it what you want to do? You must "To thine own self be true." You cannot have the Masters' help unless you are true to yourself, nor can you have the help of the Space people. It is a tone and color that penetrates through you and out, and it is on that substance that your thought patterns travel. That is the Holy Spirit. Jesus said: "I leave with you this which I AM. This which I do you can do, and still greater will you do, and deliver this to the four corners of the earth." Deliver it into the earth, water, air, and fire, this great consciousness, and send it forth, and that joined with everyone in the awakening stage doing this will assist in raising the human race into the next dimension. All will not pull through as you are, but ultimately and gradually they will, and you will commence to be a Master Presence helping that to take place.

You have to think it through, you have to live it through, you have to search it through, you have to want it, and all these things, and "To thine own self be true," so that it can start in its manifestation of fulfillment. No one can do it for you, you yourself must do it, and yet at the same time you can be inspired, stimulated, helped, guided, shown, assisted, taught, but you have to do something about it. As I always say: Do something about doing something! The more you are intune with the Oneness, the easier it is to let the Still Small Voice be your guidance. It is not an exterior voice, it is a frequency of pulsation that is just as clear as we know the voice that speaks in the sense world. When the Center is open, say for instance one is mentioned in Toronto, instantly as you turn your attention going through your Source to the name mentioned and what is spoken of, your Still Small Voice lets you know whether that one is a giver of the Light, a Server, a Torch Bearer of the Light. If you get no response, you know he was impressed either mentally, or partially impressed by the great knowledge, but not that there is an opening into this Great Light where the Spirit moves. Soon you know anywhere throughout the known world whether they are Light Carriers. The same follows when they are in the Great Etheric Belt, where they have served and now moved into the next stratum of work and yet not completely ascended into the Fire Belt where they are complete and do not have to return. Again you can tune in the same way. Sometimes you feel very close to an individual and feel that one responding back as you work. That is your Still Small Voice telling you, working with you, that they are Light Givers, that they are working with humanity from the etheric belt. This is taking place with many.

THE BLESSING OF THE VIOLET FIRE

Some very interesting things have been coming the last few days from different ones who have experienced what the increase of this Light is doing to you as you ask. It is what you are asking for, and it is what you are getting. It is going to increase everything in your world, good or bad. It is going to increase all your previous thought patterns, your present day thoughts, the things you do and the opinions you have. It is increasing everything.

The blessing that will help you more and more is your faith in the Power of the Violet Fire; but you must have faith in it, ask for it, or it won't work for you. Strictly speaking, it cannot work fully yet because you are still in the throes of cause and effect. You are still in that which is the action of free will. But more and more as you clear, by your effort to want to clear, the more the Light flows through you. It is your helper, because that Light is increasing everything you are, and everything you do, and everything you say. We have had two or three demonstrations during the past two days that have proved conclusively that this Law works. A powerful one had a strange thing happen to him, and we went to work on it. He had been doing something which was so much a part of him that he did not know it was there. After intensive application it is now clearing, and the result is just what he has been asking for. So investigate carefully and sincerely when something unusual is happening to you, or when you feel something unusual. If you are true to yourself and if you are sincere enough to say—what is it I am doing, I want to clear this, and I want to be shown—then you will be shown. But the free will must ask, it must always search and ask in order to answer the whys and the wherefores that seem to go through.

It is quite essential during seasonal changes and weather changes, when the attention is so much on body consciousness and physical problems, that you turn your attention to the Violet Fire. You can not only help yourself, but you can also help others by increasing the activity of the Violet Transmuting Flame. Visualize it around yourself, where you live, the town or city, our country, and so on. Your asking or calling, your desire to do that expands it more than its natural flushing activity through you. It moves through according to your development and according to your obedience, more and more all the time; but to increase it and to help others it is something that must be visualized, asked for, and called for.

When I first witnessed the Violet Fire, I was new in the work, and I was attending a small group in Santa Barbara along with a number of other people. They too were just learning of this Law and studying the I AM books, so there was not much reaction to the Violet Fire. I thought when it was mentioned that it would be very noticeable in a group, but I didn't feel anything at all. I kept intuning and asking why I couldn't feel it. Then one of the men spoke up and he said we should expand that Violet Flame to more than only ourselves—that we should expand it through the house and far down in the earth and up through it, and then expand it that it move through Santa Barbara and all the surrounding territory. I visualized as he spoke, within and without, and it was very powerful, and it seemed to me that everyone could do it. Actually the others were only mentally visualizing and working, and it must be done within.

If you want it, you have to go after it. You can be told and told and told, read, and so on, but to fulfill it is another thing. No one can fulfill it for you! After we left Santa Barbara, I was to return alone in the car to San Francisco, and I decided I would use the Law of the Violet Fire to keep me company on the way back. Soon I was seemingly riding in a great tunnel of Light. I was not bothered by the traffic on the freeway, and all the time I seemed to have cleared something out of my world by using the Violet Fire in pure innocence and acceptance. Much doubt may have been cleared, because I accepted that, and many other things. Before I was over half way home I had another experience and it was very simple. Through a tunnel of Light I went to Arabia and entered into the Great Retreat, and it was perfectly natural riding along, going over to Arabia - the Masters were there, walking through the Retreat. Finally I returned and I realized I was still driving along. It was very clear and very pure, and by the time I got back to San Francisco I was so raised, it was so clear and pure that I thought again that it was the ascended state, that now I was completely resurrected—until I hit the throes of the San Francisco traffic—then it changed a little. Then I began to move more into the human qualification. That was a state of consciousness, it was an acceptance, but it was a consciousness, and once you have that you never forget it. Once you have had it you know it is so, you know it is your goal. It is what you will seek ultimately and pull through any interference. It assures you of the Truth. You prove this great Truth. Then when you tune in to it, and always after that it increases through you just a little more; it never retrogrades. It is always growing a little more. But it is difficult to understand because most people will accept the Violet Fire but they will say: "Show it to me and then I will believe and keep on using it." You have to believe first, and accept, and then you commence to see, because that is the feeling, and that is the power of your free will. Then you will have little experiences that teach you, show you, and which assures you the answer, if you are big enough to see the solution when it shows it to you, and if your calls are sincere. As you do this, and as you clear, you are accomplishing this within you for the sake of others, and it is then that you commence to know this Great Power and the good it is doing as it is moving forth and giving its message. And only does it help you and ascend you and raise you when you know that you are giving to help others, that you are bringing it through that others too may know of this Great Truth as you are discovering it, as you are proving it, as you are giving it, as you are feeling it, as you are awakening into it, and as you are becoming it.

At times there has been controversy over the use of the Violet Fire. If it doesn't come to you that it is real, if it doesn't appeal to you, give it a chance. Ask God to show you what it is. Work on it, but in your working on it be sure you do not deny it by that which is disbelief or doubt. Give it a fair chance. There is hardly any way to understand what the Violet Fire is until you find its color, its potency, its action through the Source of your being by intuning, and then asking to be shown, and then claiming: I AM the Violet Transmuting Flame. It is a transmuting flame, a Flame of Forgiveness, because it is Divine Love clearing away interference. We can't conceive of it doing that because we are so used to the material sense world seeing these things in action, but as soon as you can feel within you that the Violet Fire is the tone and color of Divine Love in the most exquisite action that is conceivable you will learn to accept and believe in it. If you are sincere in your application, as you are just going to sleep if you will make the call that you go into the etheric you and learn more about the Violet Fire and that you bring it back when you return, you will be shown the reality of it. Ask that when you return to your exterior form again that you have the conscious memory of the Violet Fire, what it feels like, what it is, what it does, how it works, how you can work it, how you can use it. Ask for these things. If you are sincere you will find that you can use it, you can help others with it, you can send it on little errands by your conscious thought to help purify, to help lift, to help forgive, and so on. When traveling, always before we enter a hotel room we blaze the Violet Fire up through the hotel, not only through the room but through the entire building. Make the call to purify when going into places, on the bus, train, or plane, make the call. Then in your sincerity you will understand more about the Violet Fire by ways and means that God has of showing it to you – in great mysterious ways it is shown to you. That is the Violet Fire in action now. It is gentle, it is Peace, it is blazing, springing forth from every cell of your being upward, ever lifting you upward because the Light seeks the Source from whence it came, and that pushes you toward your Great Central Source, ever lifting you upward.

Under the old occult law forms were destroyed that broke the law. It was "an eye for an eye." Now in the awakening into the New Dispensation, we help the individual to learn to pardon himself and pardon his brother and sister by helping them to correct themselves and find the Great Law of Forgiveness, hence, the Violet Fire was increased through and into the New Dispensation. The Violet Fire could not work in its process of the consuming flame of Divine Love through the old occult law, due to the development of the individual, the great density of human creation. The Violet Fire could not penetrate through that, and there were not enough people who had the strength to pull the Violet Fire through. Now you are the ones, as you are awakening into this, that permit this Violet Fire to penetrate through the ray of you into the vibration of materialism. Due to the great mass of people using the Violet Flame (there were about three million people using that simultaneously and consciously at one time), and through that the Violet Transmuting Flame was established throughout the Earth in its action of the Power of Divine Love, which is now enabled to release itself and commence to pull up and purify. This is a Law that sets up Forgiveness, rather than doing away with an individual because he has broken the law. Most of that has now been discontinued. We hardly have anything left of destroying the body by capital punishment or the like. This is rapidly being eliminated. Before this century is out there will not be any type of destroying the body because one has broken the law. There will be the teaching and the bringing through and the helping to correct the individual and showing him how he has broken the law and why he cannot do that. So the New Dispensation is working through the power of the Violet Transmuting Flame, which is the transmuting flame of Divine Love and the Law of Forgiveness.

The Great Ones are attempting to help us to understand more about the Violet Fire, to get more benefit from its action and at the same time learning how to use it. It is a purifying flame that is gentle and soft. The softer it is, the more gentle it is, the more you will be inclined to relax in it and go to sleep. You cannot do that and benefit by the Violet Fire. Stay awake! It is very gentle. It is working very much now, and with the relaxation and stillness that comes with it as we use this, it is then that that very gentle action takes place which is the frequency of Love. It is a very peaceful, uplifting outflow and purifying action that is going through you. The benefit you derive from it is when your attention is upon your Source within the Center of your being—not upstairs in the brain section. Stay in the Center, around the heart center, but as a Great Sun, a Great Light, a Limitless Shadowless Light, a stimulating Light, a powerful Light that is connected to the Great Source, which is the connection that makes the electronic current go through you. Surrounding that electronic current around your Center is that cohesive substance that is the magnetic substance that brings that together and causes a manifestation to take place within you, a thought, an action, whatever you are qualifying upon that. It works together electronically and magnetically, producing a result for you.

The Violet Fire, the Great Transmuting Flame, is magnetic. It is Love, it is that Great Center that is stimulated into action by the electronic current, which is the Father-Fire Principle, as the electronic current touches the magnetic substance of you. Only by your attention does it spark into action to do that which you wish to have manifested, that which you are qualifying upon it, that which you desire. What you desire is what is going to take place. You are creating that pattern upon that two-way activity, the two currents that must come together in order to make a creation. When your qualifying desire is for purification, for forgiveness, for the power of Divine Love to flow through you, that you want enlightenment and resurrection, that sets the Violet Fire into action. It isn't always necessary that you give the command within yourself to blaze the Violet Fire up through and around you, but the very act of wanting to be pure by thought, by desire, causes it to spring into action. But your direct qualification to it, such as: I AM the Presence of the Violet Transmuting Flame, or, I AM the Law of Forgiveness and the Transmuting Flame of all inharmonious action and human consciousness, causes it to spring into action to do good for you, but on account of the free will you must ask for it. That must be your request, your desire, your qualification, and as you do, it must take place through you and spring into action; but only as long as that desire and that call is made will it move through you, until you gradually gain a momentum of just delicately thinking of the Violet Fire and it starts to move through you. It does require concentration and work on it in the beginning. Then you can ask for it to be sustained as you feel and come to the conscious awareness that you have touched upon the great secret of how to use it and what it is. It has been there all the time for you to use and work with, but you haven't used it, primarily it hasn't been used because of man's doubt. Man doubted because at first he did not see it, and the five senses make man feel that he has to see, hear, feel, or taste and know it before it is there.

You have to have faith by a message from Higher Ones that it is so, until you can prove it for yourself, and then you are intuning to your Flame, your Source, and in no other way can you bring it into action but through your Flame—call it the Soul, the Flame, the Spark, the very Core of your being, call it what you wish—the sun of yourself. The attention must touch that, the attention must qualify it in the manner that causes this to go into action. It cannot respond in any other way in the material world because of the low vibration of the matter world. The Violet Fire is a higher frequency, a pulsation above human vibration. So you are actually tuning into the pulsation, the heartbeat of the Great Central Source, the heartbeat of God, the Father-Mother Principle. As you do touch that you commence, very delicately at first, to feel it. That is what is acting and has been called for here tonight, for specific purposes, for your own protection, for the protection of others wherever you move, and for the protection from the many things that are going on in the human created world, the band about the Earth.

For your own good, and for health purposes, work with the Violet Fire with Faith, and then that will assist others wherever you move, because the Flame then moves into action more definitely through your asking that it be sustained, and that is what you want. You want your little ray to be of service to yourself and to others wherever you move. In this sustaining power of the Flame you yourself will feel more Peace. You will feel more Calm. You will have greater clarity. It clears your perception. You will perceive differently as you move. But remember, it takes a little time to build up this great sustaining power within you, so have Faith, and keep Faith living, and forget not your daily application. Ask for more of the conscious awareness of the Violet Fire, and a more sustaining power of it, and ask that it keep pouring forth from you. It works through the Light of every cell, the Light of your own being, your own Central Source, and it is sent into action by the Father-Fire Electronic Principle that comes through you. So both things must be in action, your own qualification of Love, and expanding with Divine Love, and asking for this power of the Father-Fire to flow through. That combination of the two currents is all that makes it possible. It cannot work without the two currents coming together. That is the Power of the Great Fire Breath working through you. It works through all things which the system has created, through every part of the system; but it must work under conscious direction. That is the work of the Great Masters as they are working with this System. That is what they are teaching you and helping you to do on a very minute scale, and yet each is a cell in the body of the human race, which is a cell in itself in this System. It is a body.

Always the electronic and the magnetic must come together before a creation takes place. It is the eternal Law of Creation. The Great Electronic Current interpenetrates the Earth that interpenetrates that very purpose of causing the Earth to grow, to expand, to reborn, to purify itself, that it too ascends into a rebirth. It is ascending all the time, and man is part of that developing process. That is why it is called "Mother Earth," because it is the mother love magnetic principle that is constantly pulling forth the electronic current, the Father Principle, the coming together, the borning through the rebirth, or the resurrection of the Earth.

Some feel disappointed because they cannot sustain an awareness of what is coming through now, whether you are aware of the principle of the Violet Fire in action, or just the great Peace that is here. Some feel discouraged because they are impatient, they want this to go right along. Yes, we all do, but have Faith that each time you do feel this, it is a little stronger, and then gradually the time comes that just your attention upon your Spark, your Flame, and that desire sends it into action no matter what you do, and you know it! Then you are aware that that great sustaining power is building, that it is gradually a continuous activity for you. That is learning the Law of Mastery.

The Violet Fire is a great color and tone in action—it is the color and tone of the music of the spheres. The violet is something that is difficult to visualize as the true violet because of the violet we have caged into the five sense world. Sometimes it has run into the red violet, which must not be used. It must be the blue violet, but it is softer than our violet colors in the material manifestation, however, it is a start. But the Great Divine Love spiral that moves forth out of the Great Music of the Spheres, its tone, its color, is an exquisite blue-violet, and yet at the same time you cannot say that it is a stationary color as we make things very stationary in colors of the material. We set it as a fixed pattern. It is not fixed, it is just delightfully energizing, uplifting, penetrating, healing. It is everything, it is all in all, it is tremendous! It is that coating, that beautiful violet, by its tone, blue-violet, remember, but much softer than the violet we know in the material, and much more translucent. And it is healing. That healing principle is music, and we say, tone, or the Great Music of the Spheres. That is what makes the world go around. That is what makes our System. That is the great coating we need. It is the great healing activity of the human race that will soon be used, that you will be able to call forth by developing to it at will, as has been done by those who have gone before us. It carries the message that you send on it by your thoughts, your attention, and accomplishes what you ask it to do. That is how the great healings have taken place. Be patient with yourself and develop toward this, even though it is difficult when you are in pain, when you are going through certain things that are extremely painful, or very troublesome to you both mentally and physically. Through that is your biggest trial; but strange to say, through that is your most power. The Great Masters have told us when in the depths and the throes of something so seemingly difficult to handle, so very painful, if you can turn your attention deep within you at that moment, they receive your call much more quickly than when seemingly you are feeling good and your call is joyous and it goes forth by a principle of meditation. It does seem strange that when we suffer we have the power to reach the Master, and that through the suffering and through the trial that we go through is that which is bringing us to Mastery.

Be patient! Be patient! You cannot arrive from your Love to Wisdom and step into Understanding unless you do have Patience. Patience is that great secret, that great key that makes it all possible. Patience is not a quiescent thing, nor is Patience something that you hold in a stoic silence. Patience is action. Patience is the desire to have that understanding within you that you do sincerely want to be a Master. How wonderful that the Great Ones can move you into cluster circles such as this, and small groups throughout the world, aiming for a Oneness of purpose and to be as they are, in spite of the billions of circumstances operating in the human body, and the human race as a body. No wonder the Great Masters rejoice exceedingly when here and there, among the billions and billions of souls, there are those individuals who step forth and say: "Master, I want you, I need you, I want to be like you." Because man doesn't see them, they do not believe. You must believe! You must accept! That is one principle they imbued us with when they released us from our little cluster group to go forth in various parts of the country. We were endowed with that Faith, that knowledge, that experience which enabled us, through the release of the Holy Spirit, the Faith in others that would help them to find their Faith. It is there, but it must be awakened. And that has been the steps that have been taking place.

Some feel that it isn't necessary to use the Violet Fire. It is a known fact that the Light of the Great Violet Ray is Divine Love and was very close as Jesus emerged out of the cave and walked out. He was surrounded by the Violet Fire. That is little known to the outer world because he was now in the emanation of the Lavender-Violet Love Principle, which you begin to touch as you commence to come into Divine Love. Also, you will have noticed that lavender and violet are becoming one of the most popular colors in the stores and with the people of any of the colors moving forth. It was said that before the century is out it will be one of the most prominent colors worn, especially the delicate color of lavender-violet.

This which is taking place today, starting early this morning, about 1:30, comes at intervals of about every three hours. It has been speeding up during the last two or three hours. If you are aware of it, and I hope you are, it comes straight through you and expands out. It is assisting every cell of your being, and every cell responds to that expansion by purification. It is doing it more and more and I think perhaps Valentine's Day might bring part of that on because so much heart activity is going on everywhere, and the attention is on the heart. As far as I can tell, it is expanding this Light through the focal point of each one of you, your Flame, through every atom of your being, and clearing something. I am sure if it is doing it for me it is doing it for you, for there isn't any exception, as long as you accept, and as long as you are in tune. It is one of the reasons that it is bringing us together, that we feel it in a greater group power than would a single individual.

The Violet Flame was made known to us by the increased action of the Power of Divine Love, which is a transmuting flame. We haven't spoken of it much in this room because it is something that many find hard to understand, use, or accept; but someway, somehow it is for your own protection and your own good if you can intune to your Source and ask for it to be revealed to you a little more through you and that it expand. It is said that you ask for the Violet Fire to blaze up through and around you from beneath you. The fire springs forth from every cell of your body as you intune to it. It is not limited to "from the floor up" as is suggested for visualization, but within you, as you ask for the fire, the increase of the Light in every cell amplifies that purifying power. Only by your request and through your free will does it spring into action. You actually become the Violet Transmuting Flame through every cell of your body, in every atom of your being, rather than trying to work it from the outside up through you. It is from within out. Then that purifying activity that is taking place does something to you that makes you become more Humble, more Compassionate as it commences to work. It is something that is difficult to explain to others and it is almost hard to explain it to yourself, but you can feel it at work, and through that there is something that brings you a Peace, a Calm, and a much more calm feeling in the face of things that are going on.

You are master over your little universe. You are master over all that takes place with you. All this time you are working to become a Master Presence. The gifts and the things that have been placed in your pathway to use, if you will simply give humble obedience to them without reservation or without that which sets up the little human arguments of why or how or where, but just do it, you will find that this great Peace which has moved through you is simply ecstatic, and as it clears you and purifies you, your emanation, your radiation of Light helps others. It moves forth to purify the Holy Spirit, uncontaminated or unqualified by human thoughts. It moves out from you and goes forth to others. It is so intelligent, it is so good and pure and of such a wide action of Light that it moves forth to help without your having to do anything about it excepting to let go and let it flow through you. In other words – let go and let God. Let that work through you, then you are lifting, you are raising, you are guiding, and you are becoming a deliverer of purification, a deliverer of Light, a deliverer of that which will help others that they too will want to become better, that they have hope. It works! It works beautifully.

Visualize the Violet Fire moving forth in wave upon wave, going out and through the various little towns around here that it contact everyone awake and asleep—those who have not touched upon this—that it moves through and purifies. A tremendous service will be rendered as this is taking place.

The Tube of Light Protection

The description has been given that you call for a Tube of Light Protection about you. This does not mean a Tube of Light as we see a tube, but it is the most graphic description that can be given to help you visualize yourself surrounded from the physical standpoint in a Tube of Light. It can be large or small according to how much Light you are releasing. In the emanation of this Great Light it is your radiation, as though you were enveloped in a large ball of Light, and it is not limited, it is limitless, it is shadowless. I watched it around one in Washington, D.C. and it was just massive Light all around that one, extending quite far, and appearing like a great ball of Light. Many of these things have to be described in order to cause the individual to think about them and to visualize them.

During the Piscean age they had to have ritual and ceremony for the purpose of visualizing and accepting. Only through this method could the finite mind be captured for a thousand years. Gradually and gradually the ceremonial activity became stronger and stronger; they went through ritual, not only ritual of movement, but the room was arranged, the color, the chairs, all was arranged. The Masonic Order is one good example of this.

Your shield and your protection is in asking that your thought and feeling be controlled, and that you are thinking in the Source of your being wherever you go and in whatever you are doing. Start your day early by asking God to take command, asking this Great Light to take command through you, and asking that it purify you, and that it guide you. Also, that it takes you to those whom you can help, and bring those to you who can help you. If this is given early in the morning as you start your day, and it is your wish, it is your request, it starts to take place. But it has to come through you due to your free will. It cannot act independently of that. It must be your desire to do this. Then the service you can render, and the ones who you can help, and where you are taken, you know instantly that it is doing good; also, your purity is working all the time.

SAN FRANCISCO EXPERIENCES

San Francisco means Holy Freedom - the City of Holy Freedom, named after Saint Francis, and it is also known as the City of the Seven Hills. Seven influences are there, the seven currents that correspond to your seven centers—the seven builders, the seven principles. If you have had any work at all in the City on any of those hills where you were sent to the different ones under what is the focal point of that hill, you will know the power of the different seven hills there. There are lesser hills in San Francisco, there are more than seven, but there are seven principal hills. They carry the power that corresponds to the seven hills of Rome, which corresponds to that section of the earth. Gradually there is a likeness that combines with that in the near future, that Rome and San Francisco play a tremendous part in the coming change.

Once after I had been taught about the seven hills I thought I would like to go up on them by myself and just be still and see if I could feel what the hills represent. I didn't know which of the hills constituted the seven, so I got in the car and rode around for a while and I asked the Presence to show me. I pulled up at the base of one of the hills and I climbed up to the top. Earlier there had been a building there with a wall around it. Now all that remains is a broken stone wall around the crest of the hill. No houses have ever been built on top of any of these hills. I was sitting upon this old wall, and I asked: "Which focal point are you?" All of a sudden I commenced to feel the most powerful inflow coming through me, and I thought: "That's the hill going to tell me which one it is," so I waited and waited. Then I felt much power to the North over the Golden Gate. I was sitting facing East and looking in the direction of the Golden Gate. Coming through the air was a great flock of birds in a great cloud-like mass. They were either sea gulls or pigeons, I never knew. They kept coming over my hill and as they got almost above me the lead bird commenced to shape up, with the others following, and they shaped up all across above me until they spelled out a word - the name of the mountain or hill I was on. I could read it plainly, and as soon as I read it I thought - "O, thank you, now I know what this mountain is." Then the birds broke formation, and they turned and flew all over San Francisco and over the Bay and disappeared. The name of the hill was Mount Olympus. Later I asked one of the old timers of the City who lived near the base of this hill if he had any idea what the names of some of the hills were, and he said: "Well, a little bit, I don't know how true it is, but that one over there is Mount Olympus."

Later, when the Master was talking to the Messengers he said: "Love and bless the birds, they are messengers, they are liaisons, they lift the human into the divine, they work between that which is between the human and divine and they work in the realm of the angels and Archangels. There are occasions when birds can give you a message if you love them and bless them." This came later, after I had received the message on Mount Olympus. After these experiences, later it would be verified and I would know the law behind it.

A message is for you, and it is not to be scattered or dispersed to others. Had I gone back and told this experience in the office it would have incited several things. If one had doubt acting, it would stir up doubt. If another had envy acting, it would stir up envy. Another might feel "if it could happen to you why couldn't it happen to me?" Anything that may be acting in the individual's world when told of your experience will incite one thing or another. On the other hand, if he has gratitude, love, and blessing and you tell your experience, he will bless you and love you and he will be grateful, and that is good for both of you, but that is rare, and unless you know one has those qualities acting, you do not cast your jewels. Little do you reveal of these things that take place for you which are for your good, your growth, your understanding, but at the same time neither do you display a secretive, silent, superior, smug, or holier than thou attitude.

You remain natural. You remain normal, so that the good that you receive out of this experience can flow from you by qualification on that Holy Spirit. It will move from you—you don't have to make it move. This Law is working on the Holy Spirit and you are like an extended nerve into matter flowing that Law through and spreading it out, as your nervous system is spreading Light through your body. It is liaison to you, your nerves, by contacting the Divine Light, the Universal Sea, bringing it through you and enlightening your physical form all the time. The nerves are a liaison. Again, it is that same principle of you extending this Light into matter on a larger scale. The human race is constantly pouring this Light through into matter, helping to purify it, helping to raise it, to bring it into a higher frequency, and you are the deliverer of that Light. You are a little extended nerve, ray, current of a two current principle, which is alive, pushing and pulling that little electronic and magnetic current within you. That is what gives you the Fire Breath. One is pushing and one is pulling, and that gives you action, that gives you life, and that is you extended into the matter world, releasing that same principle of action, of life, of Light down through. As you remain natural you are intuning to that by letting go and letting the natural, the impersonal Light unqualified by any human qualification, flow through you and out into the matter world. You are delivering Light and you are helping to raise the material world, the earth-water element consciousness, the lower vibration. You are helping to put Light where it has been dark, where there has been little Light. This is your work. You cannot follow through and say: "Have I done any good? Where I go do I do any good for people?" You cannot do that. The good that you do is by being good. And what is good? God is good. So you are learning to be God. Then it flows through you. You do not have to do a thing about it but let go and let it flow. What you send on that Light is the highest privilege endowed upon man—permitting man to have free will.

The Field of Purity

Several of us joined in a car pool driving to Los Angeles to attend one of Godfre and Lotus' large classes. We leased a large home in Hollywood for the duration and we were all happy to have this association. I had asked during my intuning that I no longer would have the interference of materialism, that I could be above that and cut free from it. Some of the people staying here were Messengers on the staff, so we had quite a wonderful group of people in this home, and as I was new to the work, I felt rather shy, as most of these people were well acquainted. While they were all visiting I spent time in my room applying the Law, and so I asked to be separated from the human and that I understand what that meant and how to feel it. Suddenly I found myself raised to this great field, and in this field, as far as I could see, was a carpet of the most exquisite lilies. I decided to walk over this field, and as I walked the flowers were not crushed, and I walked and walked for a long time. I said: "Tell me what this is," and a Voice said: "This is the Great Field of Purity. You are now walking in the very field of Pure Light. All is Purity—there is nothing else but Purity." Then, right in the middle of that I decided that was my answer, that on this Great Field of Purity I would be severed from impurity and be above the human impurities. With that a great activity started above me, a spiral of dazzling Light, such as we see in Fourth of July fireworks where the light goes around and around. This great spiral commenced to lower and became brighter and brighter, coming down closer and closer, and as it got just above me it circled a little lower and a little lower until I could have reached out and touched it. As it reached my heart area it went right through me and out of me, and I no more was the division of the form that took place as we left Eden. I was now the true form again. Then it commenced to raise again and pulled up and was gone. Now I stood on this field and I was completely like a pure being. There was no human at all, and it was simply beautiful.

My next thought was - I will be this way from now on - and the next thing I knew I was lowered into my physical form! The physical form now seemed heavy. I seemed light on top and heavy below, as though I was carrying a weight. I rose and got ready to go down for the morning repast before going to the class. Everyone was at the table, for I was a little late, but nothing was said. I looked around at everyone and I thought: "Well now, these people are all light on top and heavy on the bottom," and I was thinking about all that had taken place. Then I made the great mistake of telling what had happened to me. I should have kept still, I should never have mentioned it, but I was new in the work. I said: "I had this phenomenal experience this morning." You could feel it in the room tremendously. But I went ahead and told my experience. Well . . . there were two Messengers there, one male and one female, who were next to Mr. Ballard. The female didn't accept it. Either she was envious, or she knew I should not have been talking. I don't know. She was a student of long standing. The male just went into ecstasy over it and went into beautiful acceptance of it. Two or three of the others at the table accepted. The wife of the head of the Sanctuary in San Francisco pushed back her chair, stood up, turned and left the room. Of course there was an embarrassed silence around the table, and it was then that I got up and went down to the auditorium for the next session.

I went to see if I could get a ride downtown. This was when some of the men were preparing to go to the Men's Class at ten o'clock. As I went to the door one of these men offered to give me a ride, together with several other men who were attending that particular meeting. They parked the car about a half block from the auditorium and the men got out and went to the meeting, and I stayed in the car, trying to figure out what I had done, good, bad, or indifferent. All at once I heard the voice of Mr. Ballard addressing the men: "Beloved Minutemen of America," but it was not his voice, yet it was his voice, and I knew it was the Master speaking. That went on for about an hour. I listened to the entire discourse very naturally. I didn't see anything, but I heard it distinctly. At the close, he blessed them, and then it stopped. I thought, how could that be? I wonder why or how I heard the Master talking? Gradually the men came out to the car, and I was still sitting there. They said they were all going downtown for breakfast and did I want to go, and I said, yes, I would go along. And I made the big mistake again of mentioning what I had heard—that the Master Saint Germain had told the Minutemen thus and so. One man said I wasn't supposed to be in the auditorium, and I replied that I had not been in the auditorium, that I was in the car the whole time. Another man said: "Pearl, we won't say anything, but you don't need to falsify." I repeated that I was not in the auditorium, but they didn't believe me. Again, I should have kept silent.

Something the Master was doing was helping me to understand something that would take place in the far distant future, and which is taking place now, and has been since I have been working here. I knew what it meant to have the portion of the Light and Sound Ray. I had witnessed the sound of the Light and Sound Ray, and I knew how Godfre worked when the Light and Sound Ray came in and opened as he talked to the people. It is all one, it is there, it is not read, it is another dimension, but just as clear as we know this dimension. I didn't realize that I was being trained for the Sound Ray and the divine privilege I had in listening to the entire dictation through the means of the Sound Ray, that portion of the ray. The other part of it came much later in San Francisco. This time I saw the Letters of Light as I sat in a rear seat in our Sanctuary, just sitting intune. Now putting it together I knew how the Light and Sound Ray worked and the reality of it, and that it is all at-one. It is again electronic and magnetic.

Many say they are getting dictations from the Masters and that it is coming through in that manner, but they are getting inspirational guidance and working through their experience-knowledge-inspiration. It is of a higher quality, but it isn't through the Light and Sound Ray, which is the only way the Masters work from the Etheric Belt, from that dimension into the density of materialism, and the accuracy of it must come through that two-fold activity in order for it to be accurately released through one to be used, and given to the people. This is how Moses was receiving, through Light and Sound. He would receive the Letters of Light, which showed him what to do, and then he would speak—he would hear the voice, he would hear the sound, and the combination of that would work through him in that manner. Others too, but rarely does that happen through age after age, purposely because of the diversity of speech and delivery, they do not do that.

You have to be trustworthy in the receptivity of higher guidance if it is to continue, and if it is to have a sustaining power of delivery to assist humanity in the purpose of that coming through. Then you can receive more of it and you can give more of it. But once you commence to make it important or begin to do something with it by making it spectacular, or that you are quite special in doing it, then you lose the sustaining power and you are not trustworthy, and the Power of Their assistance withdraws. You have to be absolutely humble and trustworthy before this sustains itself and moves through, and test after test follows knowledge and experience to cause you to conquer and remain humble as you receive and as you give. Then you can do that which is sustaining and you have the answer—why does it magnetically attract and give, and why do those words sustain themselves when someone leaves? They get it, and then they go away, and they can remember it on and on and on. When they need it, it is there. That is the Power of that Holy Spirit, that Light, that is the sustaining power; but you cannot embroider it or make it do that by the power of your human will. The combination of the ray-current together won't sustain that message, and it goes forth only as knowledge, and it is only briefly sustained. When you can deliver it by the combination of the attention upon the Source, it has that sustaining power, and it goes forth. That is the spirit. That is the Holy Spirit, and that is when intuning to it intuitively you know the Spirit speaks, you know the Light is speaking. You just know it—it is there!

But again, in knowing it must be that humbleness that must stay with you that not for a moment do you abuse or misuse that great awakening principle, that Great Consciousness. It will stay as long as you keep your attention on it and not let the attention revert to any human qualification toward another in any manner of questioning whether others believe you, whether others accept you, whether others like you, and so on. As soon as the attention rushes to the human, you shut off that flow of Light.

CLEARING FROM HABITS

It has been said that doubt and fear are the parents of all human habits, and the rest of the human habits are their children. So naturally you would want to go to work on what is bringing those things about.

In analyzing fear you can see the many avenues it goes into; or in analyzing doubt, you can see the many avenues it moves into. But to try to do the whole thing at once, to clear fear all at once is too big an order for the wayward human, or to clear all doubt all at once. Man doesn't have strength to move through on a thing like that yet. That is a big order, for doubt and fear is broken up into many human habits. Clear your habits one by one and you will gradually clear doubt and fear. If you start small and work up to it, when you have cleaned out all your human habits doubt and fear will have gone. But if you are strong enough, you people who are coming in now in this cycle as it is opening for the Aquarian Age, you may be able rapidly to cure all doubt from your world, since you do not have much doubt acting. Many of you have come in this time in a very developed state of having conquered your human, and you have tremendous faith.

As you understand some of the mental and intellectual arguments you see certain people are having you will realize they are just the same as any other habit. You may see a habit another has, and you may not have that habit, so instantly within you, you feel they shouldn't be doing that. That is the old form of judging and criticizing. Learn to have compassion for that habit. Then you will be shown how you can help them, and at the same time you do not take on their condition by resentfulness or criticism, or that thing that goes out and bears false witness. That is a big order. You can help another overcome a habit, not by pretending you do not see it, or running away from it, but by refusing to criticize or condemn it, and having no human resistance against it. You can help others by having compassion, when it becomes a blessing to others. By rising above judgement you no longer break that Commandment. Then you ask to be shown how you can help, and very rapidly you will be shown what to do. Free will is Compassion, and that you see is what you must have for one another. As you develop Compassion and Undertanding you rise above the things that forced the Ten Commandments to be exposed, to become a written Law for the human race.

The human habits that keep taking control can be overcome if you get the feeling of what happens to you and through you when you say "I AM." Also, in time of need, as has been told over and over again, I AM the resurrection and the Life of this condition or this situation. If man would just do that! Then let go and let it go to work—and it will. It will help you. It will guide you. It will strengthen you. It will bring you out of many things that need clearing, that need stabilization and adjustment in your daily life. Study the life and understand the great records of Jesus. He said: "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father." Then why aren't we doing it? Why the great lament, and the pains and the problems, and the seeming stagnation and standstill in so many things in our daily lives, when we have this wonderful Truth before us pointing the Way, and the Way is so beautifully given to us? Why aren't we doing it? What is the delay?

Remember, it stabilizes itself, it expands itself more and more when you take the consciousness: If I can do this, I can help someone else. Then you take your attention off your own worries, your own shortcomings, your own problems, when you know that you are going to be the example of this Light and help others. Thoughts are things, and this you know. You have been hearing it enough now, we have gone over it and over it. You know this only too well. What you think is what you become, and where your attention is there you are, and what your attention is upon you are becoming! Your attention is your consciousness, and you are building on that consciousness. You have this wonderful privilege, that positive expression – I AM. Few understand it yet, few are using it. Mr. Doubt rises up too often when you commence to say "I AM." Do not give in to these human doubts—Should I or shouldn't I accept the privilege of using and awakening into the Presence which I AM? When you can conquer and handle that doubt that tries to convince you that it isn't the way, and you start using this Law, gently, sincerely, and faithfully, you will start seeing the wonderful results of anything constructive you want to bring through, for what you couple "I AM" with is taking place. Remember, it works for good or bad, and whatever you do to yourself you have to handle.

That is the route and the way of the seekers, and most of us who are coming together in this manner throughout the Earth are seeking to become more highly developed individuals, and seeking to awaken. That is the honest desire within each one. Students struggle because problems arise, and so quite an issue is made of them, and with that, mental power is given to material or mental things, and so they handle you for a while. Actually that is good, because it causes you in one way or another to start working a little harder. It has been said, and the Great Masters tell us, that as you touch upon this and as you start, be it ever so feebly and gently at first, you never go back, you are always going forward, perhaps slowly, and perhaps you slow yourself up too by trying to make haste, or you may have envy of another. Soon, however, you realize that is not the way, and you cease envy, you cease haste, you cease these things and start climbing in the natural, steady order of Law and Order, and step by step you clear. As this is taking place you become the good example to your fellow man. That example is your own victory. The more you can be that example, the more others will want to be what you are, what you are doing, what you say, and how you work—your Kindness, your Love, your Understanding. The more you can give of that, the more closely you arrive at your own victory, your own awakening into the Presence of yourself – the Great Electronic-Magnetic Presence.

There is no quick way to arriving. There is no haste.

There is no special way that one can arrive into this. You must, in all honesty and sincerity be true to yourself and acknowledge within the Great Source of your being that this is what you want to do. You want to become better, you want to grow. I AM awakening into this Great Light. Gradually as you do, and as you begin to feel this, where you touch upon I AM that I AM, you commence to know what that acknowledgment is, where it is, and how it works. The more that you have that expansion, you know what it means to say "I AM that I AM," and when the true reality of that comes through to you, you have that which is the Great Oneness, the Oneness of all things, and that Oneness touches that Oneness that you are with the Great Central Source. This is when it begins to open for you and you begin to see the Great Principle of Creation that is pouring through you. No one, but no one, can do it for you! You yourself must bring yourself out of the binding, out of the tomb. You have to rise out of the ashes and stand forth by yourself, through this great awakening procedure; but on that course of development you can have health, you can have encouragement, enlightenment, you can have many things that guide and help and show you. You must recognize this help, that you are grateful for it and that you use it in all humbleness so that you can awaken into this Pure Light, which is the real you, which is the opening of the Great Inner Eye. Then you are within that All-Seeing Eye, that All-Hearing Ear, and that All-Knowing Mind of God. The threefold activity of that is your pure conscious awareness, and you are in the next dimensional consciousness.

Turn your attention into your Center for a short time and acknowledge: I AM that I AM. I AM the resurrection and the life. I AM here, I AM there, I AM everywhere. I AM the Oneness of all things. I AM the Living Consciousness of the Christ Light. I AM sustained in the Light. I AM the Way, and I AM the Truth, and I AM the Life.

You are the example of that. You are helping the seekers to carry on this great incoming age, as you are opening this incoming age by the conscious consciousness that must make that possible. The Light body is an awareness and a demonstration of the Truth, rather than the mind trying to pick it up. Is it Light? Will you see it all shimmering? No, it will be Love, Kindness, Patience, Understanding, Peace, with doubt and fear gone, and the ability to judge from appearances so predominant today no longer a part of your world. Due to the various teachings currently prevalent—psychology, psychiatry, counseling, and channeling, and the many professionals who read from a book that you are this and you are that because the book says so—all of that is judging from appearances. Gradually you no longer do that. The statement: "See no man after the flesh, see them after the spirit," is a big order. It means: See not man after his human habits. While you are seeing others after their human habits you become irked at some things they do and you criticize, judge, or condemn, or form an opinion, all of which is worshiping a false god.

You are learning to master your five sense world all the time, and learning that "Thou shalt not judge." What the eyes see is not something to set up a finite judgment against and misqualify it. You are learning not to covet and possess, not to criticize, bear false witness, or judge, and you are learning not to hit these things with fear and doubt. That is coming out of your five sense world qualification, it is teaching you to have the calm and the peace of the Great Source of your being as the principle of the kingdom: "Seek ye first the kingdom." Now you begin to understand many things, and thus comes the great battle of the transition. Now you go back and forth. You want the good, you want to rise above the human, or, you love the human and you are going to stay there, feeling this Great Kingdom is unattainable, and so you pull back and forth. You go through a period of discontent, unrest, uncertainty, or confusion. That is transition. It is a difficult period for you are in two worlds at the same time. You have touched upon the beautiful kingdom, you have touched upon ecstasy, Love, and Light, and you feel you have it! Then someone comes along and says: "You did so and so yesterday," and down goes your stock! Now you are disappointed, so you move into the material world again; however, you do not go back, but your consciousness starts qualifying that you are not very good, you have a lot of faults and habits, and so on. You fall into the doldrums, and in that you say: "O God, help me," and with that you get a glimpse, a touch, and you realize there is hope, and you start working again. You discovered that you turned to your Source and that you hit upon the First Commandment: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." Thus, during your brief turning away you were giving power first to something other than the Source. So again you start moving, a little by little, step by step, you begin to have a little more confidence in God, the Light, the Presence of yourself, your ability to intune. Then, each time, as you touch upon it, you realize that it stays, that it is there, and it strengthens you, it encourages you, and you commence to know that you have to have faith – faith in God.

You have to believe in faith. You have to have faith by believing, and you have to stay with it. Now you know that it is up to you what you do, no one can do it for you! You and you alone have to do it! You can be shown, told, inspired, protected, guided, loved, but if you do not do something about it you are simply in a quiescent state. You have to keep doing something about it! You must keep growing! "God help me that I may help others." That is the main thing today: "I want to help people." That is a wonderful thing to want to do. When the way opens that you are shown how to help people, are you big enough to see that the way is opening and that is really what you want to do?

Now you learn to be sincere. You start to work on Truth, Faith, Sincerity, Dependability, Honesty, Righteousness, and "to thine own self be true." All of these things start working through you. So you resolve: "That is what I am going to be. It is what I want. It is what I am going to seek." All of those things that you resolve and that you move into in that manner are a form of seeking, and seek and you will find, seek and you will be assisted. When you seek, that has residence in your little universe, and when the instruments of the space people do pick you up they see your tone and color, which reveals to them your desire, your attention, your caliber, that which you really are. If it is of the frequency that they can help, they will help you; but in no way can they come through and give you assistance if you are afraid of them, if you have fear, or doubt, or resistance, or condemnation of them, or bear false witness against them, because that shows in your radiating principle. Your ra-di-ation is tone and color, and it is constantly pouring out what you think and what you become, and what your attention is upon is what you are.

The Great Masters are helping you to clear your world, to bring yourself into pure order by your conscious qualification, your conscious work all the time, which is qualifying this Light energy going through you with the qualification which is the substance of your house. As that builds more and more perfectly for you, you commence to live in a house of right-use-ness, a house of good, and that shows. Thus you are able to help other individuals naturally. You become natural, you become harmonious, you become wise, you become much more pure, and the purity of this is your Compassion, your Understanding, and that is the true love of Compassion that permits you to help others rightly, and on that travels the Holy Spirit, the Christ Principle. You can qualify it with help, whether far or near.

The sustaining power is entirely up to you. "Thou shalt have no other gods before me," and as you start moving into it where it becomes more and more a part of you, minute by minute, hour by hour, and gradually for several hours you can stay in the consciousness, that is good. The attention is still in the hop-skip-and-jump stage and it has to be controlled. The more the attention is controlled the more it is touching the Source, and a steady flow goes on. Then you become master over your thoughts, you become master over your five senses, what you observe, hear, smell, taste, and touch. It is a natural function. It isn't a duty, it isn't a punishment. If you punish yourself you condemn yourself, you defeat the purpose. Just as you know you do not want to condemn another, so you cannot condemn yourself. The First Commandment, therefore, is very important.

The next thing that is difficult is bearing false witness, which is also one of the Commandments. The bearing of false witness is one of the most common things running today, even more so than judgment—repeating without having the accuracy of the truth of how something occurred, or how it was said. This travels rapidly, because one repeats to another and it keeps traveling. Repeat the truth, give the truth if you must, and the truth is a sustaining power, but with tact and diplomacy do you deliver something you wish to give. A Master is tactful, but very discreet, and you also have to be in order that you do not mislead another, for you have it to handle if you do and it will recoil upon you.

FREE WILL

Free will is one of the greatest blessings and compassionate gifts of the Godhead given to mankind. Hue-man he became, but he had the ability to reach for and become man again through free will. The more you work on it within, in your quiet time, when you are studying, working or reading, intune, then ask to be shown the truth of cause and effect, or birth and rebirth, or free will, and then let it go. Ask and you receive. Then with the next thing you touch upon, read or study, or something which transpires, you begin to have a little more enlightenment, and you are shown a little more. Soon you consciously are awake to what that is and how it works, and then you find that it is something that you can hardly explain for it has no explanation in our material dimension. It is the Law of Divine Mind that is the Great Silent Master of all things, and you know and have a dim awareness of what mind is. It can never be explained. Man has made the attempt to explain mind all through the ages and in all records revealed, but there are no words for it in our language. What is that something that is the great secret, the Source of Creation? When you touch it, you know, but you cannot explain it—you know what mind is, but there is no way to describe it.

Cause and effect is a subject those who are advancing are very conscious of. Pulling out from that into the etheric belt, you have a rest from cause and effect, but you are not through with it, for you have to return on the wheel of rebirth again and again and around and around it goes, birth and rebirth. Each time you develop a little more. Each time a little more is added to your experience and knowledge. Then finally comes the time when you consciously increase your experience and knowledge for good. As soon as that starts to take place you are commencing to clear yourself from cause and effect, birth and rebirth, and free will. It is the free will that causes you to do this. Free Will was endowed upon the human race that they learn the Law of Obedience, and that God is first. With the turning from that in ages past, which we termed the "fall of man," man commenced to claim that he was the power, and he rapidly turned away from the Source of his being.

It has required intense discipline, help, guidance, and many rituals and initiations, and many cycles of rigid training in order to turn the finite mind of the human race toward this Great Infinite Divine Mind. Steadily now it is taking place. In the last two, three, and four centuries it has been moving rapidly, and now this century is beginning to see mankind awakening. Man is beginning to be aware that he can now become a more highly developed individual, and that he is endowed with that ability through his own conscious effort to resurrect himself. This example was left to us 2,000 years ago, and other examples prior to that. Some who have moved forth since that time are setting the pattern and the reality of man's resurrection—that he can resurrect into the next stage of his own individualized "I AM that I AM Presence" and become that. The example had to be left to us through physical flesh form in order that the pattern was set for the human race, that man seek that impression of that pattern. And that tremendous pattern was set through Living Light. As we touch upon that, something in us faintly and dimly says: I know it is so. I know that I can resurrect. I know that I can be a higher being. I know I can do this, now how do I go about it? There is something in you that is pulling you upward. That is the very Divine Spark of your being commencing to work and act through you, that you are becoming conscious in it and realizing that you are that consciousness. When that takes place with you, and you can say: "I AM" and "I and the Father are one," you start to awaken. You know that it is so, but this awakening in you does not take place all at once, for it is a development, a growth, an expansion of consciousness, growing into that consciousness consciously. This is what you are learning to do.

As this takes place, as it is opening for you and as the Inner Eye is opening, you have the threefold action of that Center of your being, the All-Seeing Eye, the All-Hearing Ear, and the All-Knowing Mind of God, and as that is opening for you, you are commencing to know that you are that Consciousness, and it is there all the time, whether you travel to Europe, no matter where you go, no matter what you are doing, no matter what group you go to, regardless of where you attend, it is within you all the time. If you can possibly realize it, and know that you take it with you wherever you go, whoever you are listening to, whatever church or group you attend, wherever you are, it is there all the time. As soon as you realize that, then you will know that your travels, your searching, the many diverse things you seek in order to become, is within you all the time. As soon as you realize that, you begin to awaken. Awakening in that becomes such simplicity that you have Peace, you have Harmony, you have the Love that is cohesive, and most of all, you have that Compassionate Understanding that flows out from this great Spark of Light, which is that Eternal Consciousness going through you, and you are that consciousness, and you are delivering that consciousness. As soon as you can touch it by the control of your attention that you can say "I AM" and you deliver that forth, it is the Living Holy Spirit that reaches out and touches anything and everything in the radius of where you are, as the sun delivers its energy to its system. It moves forth from you in the same manner.

As this is taking place, you are learning the control of your thoughts, for what you think on this Light as you become more conscious you are handling - everything you think, everything you say. You are responsible for it, and the recoil or the return of whatever you do seemingly is magnified much much more than it ever was before. Hence, on the Earth today the increase of the great flush of energy that is moving forward, and the vast action of things that are moving in more and more through the awakening humanity. The more humanity awakens, the more of that energy is flushing forth, and what they charge on this energy is what is the principle that ascends the Earth, assists the Earth in this birth, and assists the Earth to become that Sun in space. That is your work. It is your work to become a Master Presence, a conscious Sun of Light sending this forth which unifies with all others who are doing the same thing, and it is the moving energy Light that assists the Earth as a cell expanding and reborning to become that planet which will be a Sun in this System. And as the System is borning into this new System will that Sun go into action. It will no longer be called the Earth. In the future, it will have its new name as the Sun that it will become. There is a definite reason for it being called the "Earth" because it is the outside ear of that great Inner Light that is going to expand, which becomes that Sun. That is why it is spelled e-a-r, and it is the actual All-Hearing Ear of the seed planet which we know as Earth. You are the great movable Light of this planet. It is your home, your development, who you are, and what you are in this great system known as the human body, the human race. As the entirety of the human race is understood, it is a body, and it is a body of the Earth that is the circulatory system of Light. It helps the Earth be reborn in its final birthing and come into fruition of its work in its system.

Into the future you are moving, this little cell of you, the part that you are in this great human cell, and awakening to fulfill that part in all the work it is to do. This is what you are learning to do. The Great Master Presences who are in that Great Etheric Body work on the same principle – "As above so below" – constantly expanding in the same way, and they in turn are expanding their bodies, as it is helping to pull us up to expand our body, the human race, into what it is to do. As soon as you enter into the Light of your being, into the Center of your being, the Divine Eye, the All-Seeing Eye, and it commences to open, you then steadily enter into Divine Mind, and in this, as it commences to open, you move into the principle of knowing all things as needed at the moment. You move into Divine Wisdom. Into this you now can only stay and work and deliver when you have become the fulfillment of the attributes of the kingdom.

You cannot become the reality of the etheric you and resurrect and ascend into that until you go through the feeling of it, which is your acceptance of it, due to your free will. You must constantly accept that you are going to be a more highly developed individual, you are going to be your real self, you are going to be the presence of yourself. This you must accept if you are seeking to be that, and if you are seeking the highly developed way of life. You grow into that, and you shake off the human garment, if that is what you desire, because of free will.

Free will must be conquered that your cause commences to be only for good. That is the secret of mastering cause and effect, and free will will take care of itself and be no more. But free will will never diminish or disappear until man consciously conquers the causes he has set up and the effect is good. Then free will commences to diminish, and when that takes place there will be no more necessity of birth and rebirth for the individual. You are getting closer and closer to it all the time, but it is not something that takes place instantly; it works steadily and steadily, because it is Law and Order and growth. Free will is preached and talked about by many, but very little do they understand what free will is doing. It continually forces you to set up a cause or an effect so that your Eye commences to open. That is the power of free will. If it were not for that there would be stagnation, there would be quiescence, and man could not grow, he could not find the course of creation within himself. But that causes him to have the continual unrest, the suffering of constantly seeking. It is one of the most magnificient things that has happened to man, but many do not realize that, they fight free will, and want to get over it fast.

You conquer cause and effect by your thoughts and feelings. Your thoughts are the things that conquer cause and effect, and when the thoughts move into the Kingdom Consciousness—"Seek ye first the kingdom"—and when the thoughts become creative in the kingdom, the effect will be good, and you become a being of cause and enter into your Causal Body. While the appearance remains much the same, you have a ra-di-ation and a different mannerism. Some feel that with the Causal Body once acquired within your awakening that you change in appearance. Not so. There have been two in this room in the last two weeks who are in their Causal Body. How many knew it? But you see the Causal Body cannot be accomplished and you in it until you have acquired the fulfillment of the cause for good and are trustworthy in that, and truly you can say: I AM Good. I AM the Living Kingdom. I AM the Christ, and truly, I and the Father are One— You can truly say: I AM the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

The Golden Rule

What is the Golden Rule? That great rule is the Law and Order of the Kingdom which is setting the pattern for the incoming Golden Age.

Gold is the color of right thought—right-use-ness. The great gold principle, the color we know as gold, or the tone and color of gold, is that color which emanates from you when you have right-use-ness. That is Wisdom. Hence, we have the great principle of gold on the earth which has caused so much pull and push, and what gold is on Mother Earth, which is constantly magnetic, pulling, pulling men into and causing them to do something about doing something, good, bad, or indifferent; so that they move this energy, and gradually they see their mistakes, they gradually see where they are misusing this Great Light. That is going to bring the principle of gold through your system by Wisdom and Righteousness, and in the future will change the color of the blood from red to gold. In the future those moving forth as Master Presences will have a very golden cast. You will change into this very beautiful golden hue. You can see it as you intune to it. You do not image it or try to imagine it, but you accept it. "God show me the truth of this. I challenge it. I want to know more about it, and show me how to understand it." Then as you intune and meditate, you don't need anyone else to prophesy or tell you, but you listen, learn, read, ask, observe, and then let God show you the truth of it. Then you are stabilized in something that may be misleading. You stay in your Center.

You remain firm, because in staying with this you are learning to sustain this power by the Law of Divine Love, which is this great sustaining power going through you. All the time that you are intuning to it, giving attention to it, thinking about it, qualifying, working it out within you, you are seeking, and as long as you seek, your Presence is helping you—the Presence of God, I AM that I AM, the real you. "Seek me and I can come through you and you can become me and I AM you." You touch that Oneness. You commence to awaken into the Pure Law, and it is something you do not have to try to memorize or prepare, it just opens for you, as it is happening here and there to many people—as it is happening to you. Accept that you are awakening. Accept that you are growing. Accept that you are being helped. Keep it moving! That which you accept, that which your attention is upon, you become. Seek and you will find, but seek honestly, and seek sincerely. When you seek sincerely you can see and hear your answers, and you receive, digest, and utilize.

YOUR ATTENTION - THE DIVINE DIRECTOR

Your receptivity is your attention on the Source. That opens you so that you are in tune with the Oneness. With your attention going to the Source you are giving that Light permission to act and to enter into the matter world. You are lowering the Light into density matter or low vibration. You become a stepdown transformer. Your attention upon the Light is helping to raise everything on and in the Earth. Gradually you become master over all the Earth and all thereon. As soon as you are one with that, you are one with plants, animals, birds, man, and with animate and inanimate things. You are helping to feed the Sun, the Substance, Light, Christ Principle into that which has become dense and of a lower frequency because it has little sunlight. The vibratory action of the Earth is dark and dense because man squeezed off the Light and shut it out, instead of claiming his Source. That Light must be free to say It is the Source! "It is not my will but thy will" that delivers the Light. You are a ray, a current, and as you advance you can see it. This is difficult to explain in mundane words.

With this you have the assistance of the Divine Director. We haven't mentioned him much here, but the Great Divine Director is the principle of the attention, and in the being of you, your attention is your Divine Director. The Great Divine Director at a higher level is the Directorship of our System, and only by that station do we know him. We don't know his real name. He is the one who trained the Great Christ Principle, the Great Master Training to the Great Order of Melchizedek, out of which is enough just to know that he is the Great Divine Director.

You must consciously devote your attention to your Source; thus, little by little as this is done rightly, perhaps a half hour at regular intervals throughout the day, very gradually you change, and a little more it stays. Patiently you awaken, patiently you resurrect, patiently you experience transition, patiently your cellular structure changes, patiently and steadily your outlook on life changes. Many human things that you were doing, you are not doing any more. You have moved up out of the vibratory rate of human creation where you did a particular thing through habit and from ignorance. Now you are commencing to overcome that, or resurrect that, or raise it a little higher, and you find that every time you touch upon that by your conscious effort you are beginning to change. You cannot see it as much as other individuals will observe it in you as they begin to awaken. They find you are different, and they can't quite understand why. In the same way they will feel your misqualified energy.

The Law is no respector of persons. This Light is strictly impersonal. You are qualifying on it what you think and what you feel, and that is what you become, be it good, bad, or indifferent. What you are becoming is a higher frequency of vibration because it is a conscious creation through you. You are consciously building and you are constantly building, and so you are constantly vibrating. As you move near some people you feel good, you feel love. You move near others and you want to turn away for there is something there that makes you want to withdraw; but you cannot judge that, which has been the human way. You cannot do that any more. In this schoolroom you are learning that "Thou shalt not judge." Consequently, as you move near some one and you like to be with them, it feels good, then they have qualified their energy constructively.

The Masters have moved in to cause you to do two things which you are saying: One thing they have given, which has spread the world over: "Have a happy day." This is a qualification that causes happiness to be charged through you. It is an uplifting procedure. The other thing that has moved in is the frequency of saying: "I love you." It is a quick movement of love. It is sometimes overdone. It is sometimes used too rapidly, nevertheless it is better to do that than the tendency toward falling asleep, or lethargy and ignorance. Those qualifications going through the form remain, and for ages and ages man has moved in exactly what he thought. As man is coming out of that in this century and moving up, rapidly the Great Ones are causing the new race people to watch their thoughts and feelings and speak correctly and as happily and rightly and harmoniously as possible so that your world is fast being filled with right-use-ness or right thought all the time. As that is taking place, you do not see it taking place but it emanates from you. That is the Holy Spirit, or that is that great residue of right-use-ness that is pulsating out from you, exactly the same principle as pulsates from the Sun.

The Sun is impersonally giving its unlimited Light to this system all the time, and you are learning to release this Light through by becoming conscious in it. Limitless Light moves out from you. In its natural state, where it is just flowing, where the Presence of you is moving out, it is strictly uplifting impersonal Light. What you qualify on it is what goes forth and touches and helps others. Like attracts like. If you say: "God help me that I may help people today," that rushes right out to those in need, plus rushing to those who are wishing they could help and do not know how. Thus, you are helping one another all the time. You do not see it, it is an invisible thing that is working, but as your Eye opens you do see it. You know when this Light goes forth and renders a service, when it goes forth and fulfills by your conscious call, the type of assistance you are giving, and you do see it. You see it through the frequency of vibration that you yet emit, because you are still in the material world, with the five sense world lifting a little more, so that Light is felt and it is delivering. Then as you apply this enough your form becomes more rarefied, more purified, more etheric, more of the Great Fire purified by the Violet Fire, which is Divine Love moving through. The more that takes place wherever you move, this Light pours forth from you; it is lifting, it is raising, it is helping, it is encouraging, and you do not have to do a thing about it but remain harmonious. This is your conscious control. You must consciously control this Light all the time.

The Great Masters stand absolutely controlling this

Light as they work with humanity. They can only come so close due to the low vibration that is here. As they work they control this Light completely by qualifying it with the assistance given. They come close to render a service and then return immediately to their own realm. They do not stay in the physical world. Some have said that the Arisen Masters are staying and walking on the Earth, visible to everyone. An Arisen Master is so far advanced into the frequency of Light that he no longer is in vibration, but he is in pulsation. The Arisen Masters are in the great pulsating action of the Fire Breath that is moving back and forth, and consequently they must exercise tremendous control. They do not appear in the physical.

In the same way you are learning to control this Light all the time as it moves forth from you by your thought and feeling. This is what you have chosen to do. It isn't anything that is imposed on you. It is what you have chosen to do and asked to do, and what you are seeking. You are the qualifier. Your thought, your feeling is exactly what you are becoming all the time, and no one is to blame but you yourself for what does or does not happen to you. Humanity loves to blame someone else. It is entirely up to you. If you want happiness, then ask for happiness. Seek it! God help me to be happier. I AM the Presence of Happiness. Send it forth to those you work with.

If you believe in other Masters than Jesus, then seek them or Jesus for Happiness—whatever makes you feel best as you meditate on a certain Master. Then ask them to help you. You will not become a Master unless you accept the Masters. You cannot develop into an Arisen Master unless you accept Arisen Mastery. What you think is what you become. If you deny and doubt the Master, then you will deny the Master until you get over that doubt, for there is no other way. It is the Great Law of Creation and the Great Law of development. It is the development of the human race steadily moving out of the human stage, one step climbing to another step, from stratum to stratum. There is no space between and no gap between, any more than there is a generation gap. No! It is continually joining, continually moving, a state of consciousness, a state of development.

Upon this Light is qualified your thoughts. As long as the attention swings to your Source, your attention is your Great Divine Director at all times. The attention is that great unexplainable thing which builded our System, which comes out of the Great Elohim of Creation in the Great Central Source. Control of your attention is a tremendous thing to fulfill for you are qualifying that which your attention is upon. When you are master over that attention, you are master over your qualification, and then you feel it going through. Your feeling is that which is constantly enlightening the cells, constantly purifying; day by day it is changing you. The Masters have said that this form will change steadily and steadily, and toward the end of this century, the beginning of the new cycle, there will be thousands of very exquisite forms that no longer have the human limitation clinging to the cells. The cells will be purified and will be your Light body; it will be the garment which you will be wearing. Then more and more you become that Light body, until gradually you no longer have to remain in the density of the material element, which is the vibration of the Earth.

It seems inconceivable and difficult to understand, yet you know it is so. There is something in you that says: "I seek that. I want that." What is that? That is the real you, the pure heart Center, the pure Flame, the pure Soul of you, which is wholly pure and perfect all the time, speaking through you. When you feel it and when you get the feeling of this, accept it and be very discreet about it so that it can expand in all humbleness. Then as the Light comes through, and the Great Ones charge through on this as they work with you, you are just as aware of their increase of pulsation going through you as you are of the heartbeat and vibration of your material existence. As it increases, and although it seems to be finer, it is higher; it is something carrying with it a much wiser message than the heartbeat which man is used to in its pulsation through the human form. Naturally, therefore, as you commence to be conscious in that, the tendency is to speak of it, to tell others right away. This is happening everywhere. Among people who are starting to awaken, Saint Germain is one of the most frequently spoken of Masters as the awareness of the opening of the Light increases with the people right now. This is taking hold because His is the activity of the incoming cycle, the Great Aquarian Age. He is the Master of the Seventh Ray. It is the principle of the delivery of this Light, which is the Freedom of this outflow of Light. It is the principle of the Sun, and we have been brought together by developing and becoming conscious in the completeness of our little universe. Now we are putting it together and ready to become that little universe in expansion, a wholly pure and complete little cell, being, universe, in the system that has its work to do. Each little cell has its work to do in the body which is the human race in its entirety and which is part of the body of the Earth. You are a cell in that body, and you are working toward perfection just as the entire human race gradually is moving toward its developing principle; the same as your little universe is moving forward, developing, purifying, changing, clearing, and becoming a wholly pure and perfect little universe obedient to the Great Central Source, obedient to this Light.

That is the consciousness. You cannot manufacture the Masters' words by knowledge and experience which you have had along the way, by wanting to attract attention and wanting to give the point of Law mentally, because you soon run out of words. At first it is startling and sensational, but in just a few channelings you have run out of what you know from knowledge, and then you begin to add to it; and therein comes the trouble because it does not have the sustaining power of the Light, and again, it becomes physical knowledge. Millions of words are written and spoken from knowledge and experience put together, but where a book comes out brought forth through the Source, that book is sustaining, and that book will carry and carry. The same is true with music, or other things carrying a message. The Light charges into it wherever it comes through into the material of the Earth. It is lifting and raising all the time, but because we do not see it with the five senses we easily become discouraged and are readily influenced by discouraged individuals.

The stabilization of your attention on this causes you to listen to everything with the Ear of God, to see with the Eye of God, and to know with the Mind of God in your Center. That is your Shield of Protection, your guidance, your ability not to be affected by the material world and the things already manifested and being fed by materialism. When you need it, it is there, whatever you are doing. It is a sustaining power. When it is memorized in the finite brain it is quickly forgotten. The brain is not a sustaining activity, but the Center is, and as needed it is right there, whether it was last year, whether it was 1930, or whether is was 2,000 years ago. The basic principle of that Great Law, the Truth, the Light, that Holy Spirit, is always the same, expressed in the semantics of the day, but basically it is always there. So if you tune into the Core, the Center, the Sun, the Spark, the Flame, with your attention, letting everything else go still, stop thinking, then you know what material you have to use to qualify and build upon. You can build and it is sustained; it carries a message. You do not have to back it up, or worry about it, or defend it; it just is!

Many of these things are difficult to understand and develop into because you are not aware of them, you have been asleep to them, but as you awaken and as you commence to know, you become the proof of the Truth within yourself. As soon as you are the proof of that Truth, it works for you, and you are delivering a message of Light all the time. Then if you want Peace, ask for Peace; if you want more Understanding, ask for it. What you ask for is what you get. If you want to develop and help others to awaken into the higher realm of Wisdom, then ask for it. If you seek these things for the purpose of displaying what you know, for demonstration, you will get a lot of things you ask for but it won't hold, it won't work, and it will return back to you the very qualification you put upon it!

All the time that this is revealing itself to you, understand yourself. Apply it to your little intricate system by your attention upon the Source, and understand how it is working within you. Do not try to analyze it. "God show me the truth of this within." Then somehow you see it with the inner Eye, but it is almost unexplainable in the material world. It is very powerful, and it is a great sustaining power. The majority do not find this because they are trying to understand it through the sense world. You may be very brilliant in the material sense world, but that is only in the five sense world. One individual can be humbly intune and he is a majority, for one with God is a majority. Millions may be very learned, but intuning at the Center is sustaining. This is what the Great Ones are helping you to learn. Then no one can disturb you in any way whatsoever, because no longer do you agree with human disturbances, human forces playing through individuals, which is of the five sense world.

Once you touch this and feel it, then comes your test of how much can you control it that it doesn't lead you into the excess of what you are feeling and which moves you into the sense world again. Therein is the transition period that the Great Masters say is the most difficult time in the growth of the individual. It is constantly regulated by that most powerful part of you, the most important part of you, and the least understood—your ATTENTION. The attention can never be explained, it always has been a great mystery to man. You find it in all records, and it goes along with: You are what you think. Thinking goes into action the second the attention moves, for it triggers desire, and those are the two basic things that cause you to be able to think. Man hasn't always been able to think as he is now consciously thinking, conscious of consciousness. Symbols and signs were used for a long time, even on Atlantis. Since thinking has become man's basic means of creating, he is now having the problem of learning to think correctly, due to the fact that he came into the ability to think in the five sense material world already manifesting. Until that improves and becomes stabilized on the Earth, the iniquity of man keeps taking its toll—war, pollution, anger—all those things fluctuate back and forth. Man is the cure of these conditions on the Earth, day by day, as he awakens, as he grows in faith, as he applies, as he has right-use-ness flowing through consciously. And that consciousness is your power of attention and desire acting out through you. You are what you think! The more you feel it, the stronger you have to accept that it is what you want, that you brought it on yourself. No one is to blame but you for the increase of Love and Wisdom, and you cannot share it by words, or try to force it upon someone else; but you can reveal it through the attention touching upon that Love and that Wisdom. You do not have to be in close contact to deliver. You can send it to a distance, close at hand, to a large or small degree, to animals, insects, trees, birds, individuals, inanimate objects, whatever. It affects all things. You can hardly conceive of it because you are so used to working with physical things and feeling that you have to see a thing move or take place to know it.

The training of the attention is imperative—the control of your attention morning, noon, and night, and all in between! It is imperative that you touch upon that sustaining power which is your guidance, your Wisdom, and to have that sustaining power acting, moving forth through you. The holding of the attention upon your Source is vital! If you keep working with patience that you have faith, that you know, that you are going to sustain that attention through the days ahead, that is your guidance.

The touching of your Source by the attention is the secret to your awakening. It is the most vital thing you can do.

In the very front of the second book of the Saint Germain Series, The Magic Presence, the Tribute and Foreword, Godfre gives one of the most profound secrets I have found in any of the books. The very power of that Light experience, of that revelation, will never change. It is one reason why they were so adamant in having the books published in just one way. With that you have the true happening of how he found and became the work of the Presence and could let go of the mental hold of the five sense world, which works through the brain, which is the material sense stabilization we have had for many, many lives. He did not know the principle of prolonged meditation or sitting in the silence, or the tremendous effort to touch that. As it was given to him to do it, he did it, and he placed it right in the beginning of The Magic Presence.

Carefully, quietly, privately study it, seek it, and try in the stillness and in the intuning to capture what he did, so that you feel it, and feel that open; and then if you just delicately touch it, feel it, say: "God sustain that and help me to know more, help me to have more," if that is what you want to do. Your free will is going to regulate whether you pick that up or not by—do you seek it or don't you? In your recognition, your acknowledgment that you do want it, you are going to learn to feel that. As many times as I have touched the book, each time it gives a little more assistance to the pure opening of that. Then when you need it, wherever you are, or whatever you are doing, you have that momentum—you have the feeling, and you can feel it respond. The feeling must flow through you and come to your conscious awareness before it can take place at the higher dimension; for until you feel it, it is difficult to accept it, and that acceptance is required because of the free will. It is absolutely necessary. Feel it in that stillness you are in, with that ability within you that you are not conscious of pulling up. Be very careful, be at peace, sit up straight, be within, and throw the attention right to the Center, your Source, your Spark, your Flame, your Light, the Sun of you—they are all the same. Then in that you can control your thoughts, stop thinking, and if necessary, just say "I AM."

When you say "I AM" with your attention on the Eye, the Center, you are releasing the Light through you, and then what you follow by your conscious thought, with the expression "I AM" is taking place through the atomic structure. I AM Peace. I AM the Living Light. I AM the consciousness of the Holy Spirit. I AM eternal Patience. I AM harmonious. Step by step you are qualifying that through you and it is taking residence. That qualification is extremely necessary in order that balance and the assurance that you are awakening flows through you.

As you go on your little journey in and out, back and forth, wherever you are working, you will find there is something taking place within that is stabilizing your consciousness and your qualification. You also have a great Peace in that and gradually you no longer have the desire to demonstrate or try to get people to listen. That is gradually eliminated. The work that the many Masters are doing here is to help you to have that humble Peace, that humble assurance that you are a messenger of Light and that doubt and false pride which many develop through orthodox training that says you cannot claim for yourself that you are good is rapidly leaving you. You are learning this and you know it, because what you think is what you become, and what your attention is upon is what you are going to be now, a little while from now, tomorrow, and so on. What you thought yesterday is a memory, and what you did last week is a memory - good, bad, or otherwise. Each day as you seek, if you are sincere in your seeking, you capture just a little more of the ability to qualify rightly through you the right thoughts that build through you the things that you need most. It is up to you! It is up to you how you adjust your house, your little universe. No one can prophesy for you what you are to do, who you are, what your route is, where you are going, what makes you do things, what you were before, and so on! Only you, and you only know these things about yourself and your little universe! There are a few little details that reveal themselves by your actions, your words, and by your works, but mostly your house is your private domain, your private temple. That gradually sets this pattern for you that you seek (and I assume you do) mastery - master over the material world as you develop.

Many things will be answered for you in the Center of your being by your conscious desire, call, and searching. As the Master is working, each is receiving what he needs most, by what his attention has been upon. The depths of your suffering, the feeling that seemingly you have not developed as much as you should, is far reaching. The Master can hear that call, that desire, more plainly than when you make an external prayer or call. You go deep within when there is something you really want, and as you well know, sometimes the things you want are material. When you get it you find that you didn't want that to come into your world; but you are discovering how powerful your thoughts are. If you discover that and learn your lesson, then you are learning to correct your thoughts and make them constructive for you as well as for other individuals who can feel your radiation. Your radiation is qualified by your thoughts. It becomes what you give, and what you give is what you receive. As you give, so you receive. This you know, you have heard it many times, but just the same, each time you hear it and go over it in the presence of the expanding Light - the Oneness of purpose as you move into it in this manner - it takes residence just a little more and becomes firmer and stronger and more real. You have more confidence and you have more faith in faith itself, which dissolves doubt.

God helps those who help themselves, and God is that over-all Father-Mother Creative Principle that is the Wisdom of the Source, our Great Central Source. You are in touch with that when your attention touches your own Flame, and therein when you feel that Great Pulsebeat of Life you know what it means to have the Oneness. Oneness is accomplished step by step, day by day, for it is Law and it is Order, and cannot grow and be arrived at over night or all at once. It grows steadily, steadily, steadily as it awakens through you. Have Peace, have Patience, have Confidence, have Love. Patience is that which opens the way for you. You will realize this more and more in the days ahead, in the days of the fulfillment of it as it is taking place through you; then comes the time that you know that you know.

ENTERING THE KINGDOM - ITS ATTRIBUTES

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." The kingdom is comprised of all the attributes, and those attributes must be earned and you become them by your self-conscious effort. In no other way can they be given to you, in no other way do you become Master, excepting by your own conscious effort. You yourself as your own master, your own teacher, your own director, your own Light, your own guidance—all these things are within you. This is what you seek, this is what you awaken into, this is what you become, and this is your work. It is what you are and who you are to be. As this starts to take place with you, you have the ability, naturally, happily, and joyously to help your fellow man, your fellow cells, the individuals who are growing in the same manner you are growing. Each cell has its thing to do, and as you are growing into that you now are becoming that ability to be the attributes of the kingdom, mastering all things human—judgment, condemnation, criticism, doubt, fear, envy and so on. One by one you are mastering those things. They are not overcome merely by intuning to your Source and saying: I AM perfect, or I AM all these things. You recognize them, yes, but you must surmount them by conquering and becoming the fulfillment of the proof of the Truth. You conquer all things self-consciously so that when you have conquered you have that attribute forevermore in its great fulfillment - Living Light - forever. And that is Mastery.

This Mastery is not easy to attain. It is said the path is straight and narrow, it is a difficult task, and so on. It is said it is a lonely way. Yes, it is. The more you achieve, the more you move into that, and seemingly it is lonely. Is it what you want? Is it what you choose? Is it the way you choose to go? Is it the thing you seek? Do you want to be the deliverer of this

Light and help your fellow man? Do you want to be Master? Do you want this Great Light, this Great Law? It is up to you! You must choose whom you are going to serve. There are only two ways: either you choose to continue the way of the human, or you choose God, the Light, the way of the Holy Ones, the way of the Great Masters. You have free will, and you have the freedom of choice.

When the Great Ones watch you work and are helping you by inspiration, by various means of guidance, and they find that you are sincere, that your attention is sincere, they never punish you for your mistakes, your occasional slowness, your occasional disobedience—they do not punish you. No, you punish yourself, for what you think is what you become!

As you begin to understand what is meant by The Kingdom, and as you hit that Kingdom Consciousness, you must know that you cannot touch it until you make the obedient steps to enter into that kingdom. You must be true to yourself; you must seek. You cannot enter unless you do, because the door is not open so long as free will is acting. It must only open by your seeking. The free will is that disciplinarian that keeps you climbing up and down all the time. As it is opening you can only stay in it and enter further through your humbleness. Your humbleness is that which keeps you relaxed within the Holy Spirit and letting go and letting God continually uplift you. Only can that work when you are humble, because humbleness is that very thing that is not the human brain trying to be something, trying to get there through the human force of will, for it doesn't work that way. The up-pull then is natural. You are climbing into the consciousness of the kingdom naturally. You do not make the upward climb through humanly figuring, but you climb by going within a higher frequency, and you awaken into it. This the advanced student knows, but something is making you just a little more aware of it now.

Something is moving in rapidly, and it is moving in to the seekers on the planet. All over the Earth it is taking place. Some of the best seekers, strange to say, and we hardly comprehend it, are the very poor people of all races and nationalities. That is because they remain humble all the time. They know none of that which is the principle of the finite brain that wants to strut its vanity. They know that not, and so they remain in a humble upliftment for something that is going to take them higher, that the Great God or something is there. Hence, they are intune with this perfect up-pull that is the Great Law of continually reaching to the Source from whence all came. That is the work of the nerves. That is the work of this great energy that is the electronic substance, the Father Principle that goes through your little system. It is constantly pulling you upward, and your relaxed state within you is now following that upward pull in its natural stage, reaching up all the time, as the plants reach up, as the trees reach up, moving toward a higher stage all the time. Everything is constantly ascending toward the Source from whence it came. That is the great Law of the Cycle, the great Law of Growth. Each individual little cell is doing the same thing, it is constantly reaching up. When that has completed you awaken, you are a self-conscious creative awakened individual in that, and now you commence to deliver that by that radiating principle that can flow through you without interference or being qualified with human creation over again. You are delivering the Holy Spirit, God, or you are helping God to deliver the expansion of creation, and you stay in it. You are no longer questioning what you are to do, where you are going, how to do it. There is no longer the human qualification that continually takes place in the human by the many things such as judgment, doubt or fear, criticism, jealousy, or any of those things. You no longer have them. They are gone! So you have conquered the human personality, you are above it; but you are still visible to your fellow man. Many feel that in that consciousness you become invisible, that you are no longer seen by mankind. Oh yes you are! Now you work among mankind and they know you not, but you know them. Your Eye is open. You no longer pull into your world of action their material qualifications because you no longer agree with materialism by your attention upon it.

Your attention is now helping to lift those conditions.

Your acceptance, and the many things you do to bring this about is entirely up to you consciously all the time, and all the time you are being shown any little weakness or any little thing that interferes. If you are big enough to realize it, that is half of the battle, that is half of the curing procedure. Then you can clear, for God helps those who help themselves, and you have assistance; but the main thing is to ask. Man wishes, and says yes, and so on, but he doesn't do anything about it. Ask! and when you do, go to the right Source, where you have that which can answer and help you, and you receive. Then patience comes to you. Patience and Balance, Humbleness and Compassion must be very active in order to help you stay balanced. It must be a very balancing procedure, not affirming by rote and decreeing and trying to get it in that manner. It won't work for it is disturbing that way; but in peace, relaxation and calm, and in going about your work, in keeping busy, and in affirming: I AM the Presence doing this, or I AM the Living God taking command, or God take command and help me do this, you will have continued guidance.

Your stabilization and balance comes when you swing your attention to your Source and are at peace in that Great Source that you can feel the Light flowing forth. You can be working, walking, driving, or even talking or teaching, singing, playing music, writing, reading - always with the attention on your Source, and you are releasing that Light. You are releasing that Light which is your sustaining power, which is the Light of the Holy Spirit. It cannot go forth by itself. When you are not centered, you are simply living in that which is called your aura consciousness, the human, but as soon as your attention touches that Great Source, you are moving into a higher dimensional consciousness, you are touching that which is the King's Dominion, the King's Domain. The King is Divine Love, the cohesive connection of all things created. You are learning to travel on that by your attention, that you connect with all creation into that which is the Oneness, which is—I Am here and I AM there and I AM everywhere. That is the great secret of releasing you out of limitation. It is the secret of starting to pull you out of duality, division, separateness, limitation, time, weight, space, me, mine, and self. It is not a quick process, but it is sure, if you do it rightly, with the attention upon the Source and the sincerity of your claim: "I want to give. I would like to be this Light which I AM. I would like to shine this Light, ra-di-ate this Light—a ray dialating." As this Light goes forth from you it is like a great dialating procedure, ring upon ring of wave upon wave moves forth from you. It is a ra-di-ation, your ray expanding. Your attention touches it by your conscious desire, your conscious command that you want to help, you want to give, that you would like to expand, that you would like to know more about this, you would like to be able to help your fellow man, you would like to understand: "God help me that I understand people. God help me that I have patience, and that I AM calm and pure that I can touch this." It won't hurt to ask for it. There are some who feel they cannot ask for Purity. What you ask for is what you get. Purity is there. All things are wholly pure and perfect at the Source of your being. Your Divine Spark is one with the Great Spark of Creation, the Great Central Source of Creation. It is wholly pure and perfect, untarnished, unqualified with human creation. This you are seeking to find. This you are seeking to awaken into and know it is a reality within you. Over and over the Great Ones keep bringing this up, that you have the strength, the ability to find it, and the ability to find your own Presence, your God-self, your I AM that I AM that I AM within you, and that you want to find it, you want to become it, and it is your conscious desire. If not, it won't work, you stay quiescent, you remain in the world as far as you have developed. You never retrogress once you have touched this Light within you allowing it to expand; and every tiny touch by your attention upon that Light is ascending you a little more. All the time you are ascending a little more.

It seems like a slow process, but it is not. You will find if you check, that you are different than you were three months ago or six months ago. Be grateful for what you have learned during that period. Be grateful that you have learned just a little more. Your gratitude sustains the good you have learned as you grow by your conscious desire to know more. Seek and you find. Ask and you receive. Then be grateful as it comes to you little by little. You can keep it going steadily, but you cannot rush it. You can delay it and remain quiescent for a while, and then carry on where you left off; but you have to do something about it all the way, and that is your law of redemption. You are now redeeming the disobedience that you gave long ago when you turned from this beautiful Light and the great development which could have come more rapidly. Man turned from it by saying he was the power, and he was going to run things. He began to quarrel, argue, envy, doubt, and all those things commenced to grow, and after a time that growth became the human race in its action, and has remained so to this day.

The Great Holy Spirit is a constant push of action, and so the human cannot remain inactive too long. With that constant push there is something now moving through the human race again that is commencing to awaken man once more as the third cycle commences to move in. The third great change on the Earth is moving in, and the Great Ones have said that at the entrance of each of these great changes Great Beings out of the Hierarchy, out of the Great, Great Silence, move forward and assist. They do not do it for us, but they release the stimulus which goes through this Light that gives encouragement and hope, that there is something you have to do. It is that very substance that they send through that is stirring up the human race today and the circulatory system of the planet Earth as it is commencing to awaken into its next and final birth. In this decade and the next decade you will witness and begin to see and know and understand the changes that are starting to take place with the Light carriers, the seekers, the torchbearers on the planet. You will commence to know each other. Like attracts like, and you begin to know when you come near another that that one is of the brotherhood, that one is awakening, or awake and serving. That is the first principle of the Great White Brotherhood coming into fruition for the Aquarian Age. You are part of those people, you are part of the Great White Brotherhood forming, coming into position, helping you to stabilize, to awaken. You can see that it isn't something that is going to take place over night, because this is a permanent growth within you, a permanent awakening, an activity which is part of your being, that you will be teachers, wayshowers, enlightened individuals to help your fellow man and help those coming forward as well as many who are still asleep. You will know as you come near them, and already you are finding many with whom you have a quick understanding and feeling between you when you come together. That is why the Great Ones are striving to have you work harmoniously with one another. Do not try to argue your ideas.

The point now that they are stressing is that you learn to be the example of a Master. You may ask: "How do I know I haven't been around a Master, or, how do I know what would be an example of a Master?" What is your picture of a Master? Use your own intuning. The Great Masters are tactful, they use discretion, they stand straight, they are humble. They do not interfere, they stay with the Law, they fulfill the principles that they are teaching us – that all can fulfill and become Master. So as you visualize and as you work, remember, a Master controls his energy. As he comes near, he does not have to advertise who he is, but he does what he has come near you to accomplish, then goes on, and you know it not. If you did know as one of the Great Ones stood near, until you are fully awake you would either deny or you would become overly excited, and thus interfere. They cannot permit that because their work is to help you to awaken, to help you to grow, to help you to become a Master and be a member of the Great White Brotherhood so that you can work to help in lifting the human race.

Learn to be an example by asking: "What is the example of the Master that I want to be?" They say: "Walk like you are going somewhere." That does not mean to be stiff, nor to run, but it does mean to walk like you have an important appointment. They also say: "When you enter a room, walk like you have something to give, like you have a very important secret, and with head and shoulders up, and a pleasant air about you." That secret cannot convey superiority, but be natural, holding your attention on your Source. With your attention on this Great Light, you are guided what to say, what to do, what not to do. You are guided into courtesy, consideration, and patience, but not to be overly expressive in any of them. You do not put on an artificial front, attracting attention. The Masters never assume, they never presume, they never put on a demonstration. These are little criteria that you soon begin to practice and fulfill, and shortly Master recognizes Master, and soon you connect and know the ones assisting and working with you, and revelation comes to you, and you have that which is: "When two or more are gathered together in my name, there I AM," and the Great Law comes through and works. Then you have the power which flows as the Power of Creation, and it works back and forth with you wherever you go.

When you are alone, stay in your Center and work with the Source of your being, with the attention in your Source. You will find you are being guided more rapidly, you are being shown many things, and you are being helped in many ways. Then it commences to teach you several things—about your eating habits, about your speaking habits, and so on, and they all begin to adjust. It isn't easy, but it will be easier for you younger people for you have not yet developed into human habits too deeply. It will be easier than if you had developed further along before commencing to correct. The Masters work very closely with the ages between eighteen and forty, for those are not too solidified in human habits and can be adjusted and changed more readily.

You cannot memorize the great vastness of the kingdom by trying to prove what you know. It comes as needed. The kingdom flows forth as needed, to be used at the moment it is needed. That is the true intuning that unlocks the door when you seek and enter into the kingdom. The kingdom is a state of consciousness. The kingdom is a stage of development. The kingdom is that which is the next stratum of your work, where you are going to exist consciously and be at work with the great human race.

Coming to us also at this time is the importance of Innocence, which is not understood and which is often pretended, and therefore which has not been accepted as a quality of the kingdom, as a substance of the kingdom. Innocence is the action of Purity. Although there are two different Beings, Purity is a stabilizing attribute of the kingdom. The reason that They are expanding the "Pearl" having worked on it through all the ages, is for the expansion of Purity again into the human race. The "Pearl" is that substance which is one of those attributes of the kingdom that is, was, and always will be, and its movement is understood in the matter world, in the developing human, through Innocence. The Masters have said that the children, the little ones who act so innocently are a wonderful demonstration of Purity and naturalness, and a natural outflow of that pure substance. As it commences to develop, and all the attributes begin to go into action in the individual that you become the wholeness of yourself, balance is very difficult to maintain consciously. The Great Ones move continually among mankind and with those who are conscious in those attributes, so that it flows through them by the movement of the Living Light to stimulate the same thing in everyone – the expansion and extension of the Light which you must give to mankind.

The Goddess of Purity is pouring, and has been pouring for days, the sweetness of this. All of you have had difficulty in handling the power of this which has been awakened in you. In the days ahead, as you touch upon this power you will know that it quickly stimulates you and moves to others through the Living Light. They too, quickly become conscious in the movement of that Great Innocence, that outflow of Purity within themselves, and go through this process of learning the principle to reproduce.

THE SEVEN RAYS

The Master El Morya is head of the First Ray. El means God in the name of El Morya, and it is powerful, designating that it is the start, the first ray which has come in. Thus there is a reason for that tone and color put together in his name. If you know how the letters have been put together under divine circumstances which we know as our capital letters in the alphabet, there is a great key in certain names of the Great Masters. That is why I have often mentioned the importance of your first name given at birth. Sometimes it isn't the right one, for there are occasions when the parents haven't been able to bring it forth, but most often there is a reason for your name. In the tone and color there is a great key for you, a certain something that reveals a thing to you.

El Morya is the First Ray. The power that is in that word means "the start," "the beginning," "the spark" as it moves forth. El Morya is Father, Fire, that penetrating principle of fire which interpenetrates all things. That principle, as we know the Seven Elohim, came for the developing human race at this time. It is necessary to feel that tone and color, know it, apply it, study it, and apply it in the privacy of your own meditation, as: I AM El Morya, or I AM God Morya. As you turn your attention to the Center of your being and love and bless El Morya and say: "I accept you El Morya, I love you and I bless you, and I need you, and I would like to know more about you." This will help you to receive at the right moment and in the right awareness, that you become more alert and more aware of the First Ray. The free will of your individualization must have just that particular acknowledgment in order for you to learn to awaken, to develop, to feel and know, to receive and become the awakened consciousness of your seven centers – the seven Elohim centers of yourself – that you become more awake to that which is within you. The male will feel it more pronouncedly because he is the Father-Fire-Spark current that comes through.

Then you will move into the Second Ray, or the Second Ray Consciousness, or that principle which works under the present day consciousness of the Great Kuthumi. Accept it: "I love you Kuthumi, I bless you Kuthumi, and I would like to know more about you Great Master Kuthumi. Help me to feel and know and understand." What you ask for is what you get. What your attention is upon you are becoming and developing into. It wasn't until the Master Kuthumi, the Second Ray, now commenced to born through that El Morya, the First Ray, commenced to carry the Fire Breath where it could create, where it came into that particular power of the Divine Fire Breath at work, the life giving action of Creative Light that we know. Then El Morya and Kuthumi in the developing of that, you might say were seemingly the other half of each other, for the principle that they seeded out caused the human race to start borning its seven centers. As the seven centers now begin to function as a spark and a surrounding principle a form is caused to start forming, and so did El Morya and Kuthumi start into action the pattern of the human race borning into the conscious awareness of the seven centers of their being. This is the basic principle of our system. That we know the creative principle of expansion and become self-conscious creative beings and then Masters. This is not so on many other planets but it is not our concern what their development is; our concern is to develop these seven centers.

The Second Ray is just as vital as the First Ray, for the two ray currents, electro-magnetic, is the basic principle of your Flame, the Source of your being, your Spark—your consciously created Spark which you are on your developing journey. Then these two rays, these two centers, begin to unite as you commence to have a form, a form that is a principle of—in the image and likeness of the system to which you belong—the Great Creative System.

When the next three influences or rays come through they bring on the pattern of the unity of those seven centers, the joining and the working of them—rays three, four, and five. That, again, could not take place until the El Morya and Kuthumi principle had come through into the developing form under that great land of Eden, which existed aeons ago. It was an earth much smaller, and discussion is still taking place on the earth regarding the great controversy—where was Eden? Eden was far expanded beyond the limit of a small location because it was a level of consciousness in which El Morya and Kuthumi existed to expand themselves until the form was complete in itself, ready to move forth to create. In starting to do that, man quickly became aware of these two centers, for this is where mankind failed in these centers. As they now came together he began to take advantage of the power and said it was his power. That has been the problem and that was the "fall"—when man became aware of division, and the ray divided. When that division took place the feminine influence moved away from the masculine. In other words, it was like Kuthumi moved away from El Morya, which again brought forth the principle of the electronic acting by itself and the magnetic acting by itself, in order that it could start over again in functioning in obedience to that Center Force. But now it was a different action because it was conscious of being creative; it became a self-conscious creator. It had to learn to obey and come back together in order that it could produce that same thing—a first ray coming through and the second ray surrounding it—and a new form is born. Yahweh, the Great Jehovah, still had the memory and could create in this manner, bringing forth a form through the use of the First and Second Rays. That first civilization under him was born through in this manner, through the two rays as one.

The Third Ray is headed by the Master, The Venetian, the Fourth Ray is under the Master known as El Serapis Bey, and Lord of the Fifth Ray is Hilarion. If you do not understand them, or if you have not heard of them, call to them by name and ask: "Help me to feel you. Help me to understand. Help me to know you," and send them love. You can say: I AM the Presence of Kuthumi, or any one of the Masters, or I AM the Presence of the Goddesses, giving the name of those known, as they work in that capacity as a Goddess. They work in the Oneness with their other half, which is masculine-feminine, the electronic-magnetic ray at work.

When you get their feeling, perhaps quite clearly, when they radiate to you or use you as an instrument of service, you may not know which one it is unless you have worked on this carefully for some time, but you feel an inflow coming through. Let it come through and go out. As you accept the Great Ones they can work through you, for by your free will you have made yourself trustworthy by your acceptance of them, and then they can use you. They can use you to serve and help, and you become a Messenger, a Wayshower, a Torchbearer, a giver of this Light and given in that manner it goes forth and fulfills because it is the Living Light. It isn't something done in the temporary realm of vibration. It is in a pulsation that is qualified and moving forth, so you can help at a distance or close at hand; you can help many or a few. It is myriad, it is limitless, and you are constantly outflowing that substance all the time.

Many are claiming that they are certain ones of the Great Beings, because they are intuning to that Being. You can intune to a Great Master. Many people say: "My Master - I have a Master" and some teachings infer that you must have a Master. I say you need the Masters, the completeness of all the Great Ones. To say you have "a Master" is limiting. They say: "My Master" because they feel him more than others, which is often true. For instance, I feel Kuthumi more than any Master of the entire group of Masters known to us, but that does not mean, in the power of that, that I would say: "I AM Kuthumi" in that manner. It does mean that there is something corresponding to the qualifying principle that Kuthumi is. That qualifies around the El Morya ray - the First Ray - the Electronic Ray. After studying it for some time I discovered that that is what a pearl is - it is a surrounding substance that stimulates the awareness of the Spark, the Flame, the Soul, the Source in another individual.

It is constantly doing that, and so it is that principle that Kuthumi had to do in order to awaken the First Ray, the beginning Spark, into the developing of the human race. Because it corresponds, and as I discovered what that was and how it works, naturally I would tune in to Kuthumi more quickly than any other of the Great Host of Masters. In your case perhaps you will tune in to one Master who is close, as many of you feel close to the Master Jesus, because you have a tendency to be sincere in your development thus far and you have the great principle of the Christ, or the Oneness Consciousness within you. Thus, you are going to be very close to Jesus in this New Age because that is opening up the Sun Center to move it forth under the movement of Freedom, which is the Seventh Ray.

The Master Jesus, who has been the Christ Principle, which has come in various ways for the awakening of man, is head of the Sixth Ray. We have moved through that principle of Jesus the Christ, or the Christ of the Sun of each one - for all was given to us then that we might develop and become a conscious distributor of the Holy Spirit, the Living Christ Light. That is the next step we have been moving into and working to fulfill; therefore, claim: "I love you Jesus, I need you, I would like to know more about you, I would like to be able to feel you and your guidance at all times." It is only after we move toward becoming the Divine Love and Compassion of the Christ Principle that we are ready to move into the power and distribution of the action of the Seventh Ray.

Following the Sixth Ray you come to the distribution of that Light, that Holy Spirit in which you move into that Freedom of action which is under the Master Saint Germain - the Seventh Ray. This is quite new to the human race. As the new moves into position in this incoming cycle, which will be a period of about 2,000 years, the great Aquarian influence, aqua, the outflowing of the Water of Life to you, which is the Holy Spirit, you are now becoming Freedom. Light flows through you as an activity of Freedom. The Master of the Seventh Ray is Freedom, and you begin to touch upon this great outflow of Light.

Saint Germain will be the Great Master Director of the next 2,000 years. There are many reasons why that has been ascertained and given to the people. Primarily it is for the individual to feel that he is free, and is aware of the freedom of this outflow by awakening into it – that each is the Wisdom of this Freedom to give to the people. Only as you awaken in this Wisdom can Freedom do any good, or you interfere and have things to handle. But by awakening in it and commencing to give it with the Wisdom of the unification within yourself, the Father-Mother Principle, can you commence to do good and let this flow. This will be taking place within you and for you as the Eye begins to open. You will begin to have visions. These visions must be completely your own private concern. Do not discuss them, but ask the Presence to show you why, or ask to be shown its meaning and what further guidance is being given you for your own enlightenment. Sometimes the meaning of your vision may be that your Presence knows all about you for all eternity, or sometimes it is a thing in the very near future for you, or what you are to do, or where you are going, and so on. It is a preparatory action that takes place with the Wisdom of the Presence when you are letting go and letting this great guidance go through you. The message is no concern of anyone else, for each has his own thing to awaken into and fulfill, and very little should be dispensed into the atmosphere by words, or even thoughts, because in that way do you lose the energy of it. As the visions become quite numerous they become more clear to you. Sometimes you know not what they are, and understand them not, but the purpose will be revealed as time passes and it manifests for you. Your faith that your Presence knows what it is doing is the key for its guidance. The visions will come. Again, there are times when the inner Ear will open and the things that you hear within are strictly your own affair. They should not be told to others, for it stirs up many things in others which you have to handle.

The third thing is the Divine Mind. You begin to be conscious in the Great Divinity of Wisdom, of Divine Mind, and so you become wise, consciously wise, and therein comes the Great Law of discretion. The discriminating intelligence must be acting, for these great things that come to you now through Divine Mind are from the Great Divine Source, the Great Pure Field of the unqualified substance and energy of the Great Universal Sea, which is unqualified with any human thought pattern. You are bringing through this tremendous Divine Mind to be acted upon, qualified upon and created rightly as you develop into that consciousness by the guidance of the Eye, the Ear, and the Mind releasing the Master Principle through you which is now coming through by the Holy Spirit. These things are Power – your Flame, your Source – which is your Love, your Wisdom, and your Power. Love, Wisdom, and Power are the threefold activity of the Flame within you, and you become conscious in this.

Now you have together, by your conscious awareness the completion of the Seven Center Principles of your little universe. With that completion there is Law and Order activity through you, just as all creation is, as our System is, and as every part of the System is. Every cell of the System is a coordination of Law and Order. And this is what you are learning to become.

This cannot become stabilized and work through you until you know that you are the conscious director of this by being consciously conscious. In this consciousness you are learning to direct, by consciously awakening into the Creative Principle of this Light, as you are creating on it and being taught and shown that your first fundamental principle of creation is thought and feeling. As you work with this Light, your thought and feeling is constantly forming a little pattern which works as electro-magnetic patterns moving from you – and that is you. It belongs to you, you have created it, so it goes forth as little particles of you, delivering whatever is the seed pattern of that thought, and you are responsible for that thought. As it goes forth and produces whatever it is, it completes its little message and returns to you. Thus, what you give is what you receive, and how you give it is how you receive it. The feeling that you put around the little idea pattern which is the thought, is the intensity with which it travels and the intensity with which it returns, and how you pick it up and how you handle it. As this is coming more and more to your awareness, you become much more harmonious in your thinking and you become much more harmonious in your feeling. These two things – thoughts and feelings – must be maintained in great harmony through you in order for them to function under the principle of Law and Order. As you are experiencing this, if you handle it correctly and work with the humbleness of wanting to help and deliver and give and work with your fellow man, you will now be able to receive the conscious guidance of this Wisdom which flows through you by your conscious qualification upon this Wisdom principle. This is electro-magnetic action and you commence to be a constructive creator, a constructive deliverer of Light wherever you move.

After doing this for a little while you begin to change dimensions, because your frequency of Light is stepping up and you are purifying yourself through every cell of your body by obedience to the Light itself and by right thinking, right-use-ness, as it goes forth. As you practice each of these things now you begin to be purer in form, purer in thought, and indeed, everything you do is a little bit more pure. It is pure, harmoniously pure, a thing you like to do because it is you who is creating it, it is your self-conscious desire. It is not imposed upon you. The Great Masters do not impose any of these steps of development upon you unless you yourself ask for it and work toward it. They impose nothing upon you, nor do they interfere with you because you feel that you have rendered some good service, that you feel you are quite special and need special attention. Not so! You keep on developing in a natural manner, a balanced manner, performing your good deeds, your kindness in the goodness of how you work—right thoughts, right deeds—and keep this going and more and more you keep balancing into this, a little more you keep awakening into the Light. You are not fully awake as you are aware of this and as you are asking. Day by day and gradually you awaken a little more as you work. As you commence to awaken into the real you, the Presence of yourself, changing dimension, part of the time moving into the next stratum, you will feel yourself not in this world, and part of the time you will feel that the earth is not under you, that the great solid materialistic world isn't there. The feeling is one of floating, you are in a region of no thing. At the same time you are in the now, developing under the Christian approach, the self-conscious approach of the delivery of the Holy Spirit. As you are approaching in that manner you stay conscious in the awareness that you are awakening into another dimension.

At no time do you go into a prolonged meditation or trance-like state, an unconscious state. There was a time when much of that occurred, and it may still be happening in certain sections of the Earth, but not so with the developing Christian. You are developing the open work of the Christ Principle, the Light Substance, into and through the evolving humanity, the entire Earth, and all therein and thereon as you deliver this Light.

The Great Masters who work in the East under the Buddha's Ray, the Great Mohammed's Ray, are working under the very same principle, even as we are conscious of the Christian development here and the Christian expansion which has moved forth to give us our conscious awareness. All is part of the Seven Ray system of which you are made. Accept it, work on it, bless it, and bring it together as the image and likeness of how you are made, as the great system of creation. In that way you will have Wisdom, in that way you awaken and can receive the illumination and guidance of creation, which is your seed pattern, which is ultimately what you will be delivering consciously in assisting the many moving forward to receive from you.

You will feel at different times the different centers at work within you, one seemingly more pronounced than another. They are not to be concentrated upon individually by your power of attention. Your concentration should go to the Center of your being, to your Source, and then let the Center of your being, the Wisdom of the Source of your being, the Christ of the Sun of you, handle your centers. That is your work. Your work is to learn to put your attention upon that Source so that It can reveal itself to you consciously and can expand through you that you become the wholly pure and perfect being, eventually ascending into that state. You ascend yourself, and you develop yourself by your self-conscious effort. No one can do it for you!

THE LIGHT AND SOUND RAY

Many have wanted to know how the Light and Sound Ray works, and how Godfre received the Letters of Light and instruction from Saint Germain and the other Masters. I used to watch Godfre, a man so humble and so natural and unassuming, to learn how this could work with him and how the Master would come. He might be speaking to the audience, when all at once he would straighten up – he didn't go into a trance, he didn't do anything unnatural, he would simply straighten right up and appear as though he was starting to read within. The Light and Sound Ray as established by the Master, enabled Godfre to read on that Spirit and hear that Holy Spirit – the Still Small Voice speaking. The Still Small Voice is the Light and sound of you – that is what the Light and Sound Ray is. We have yet to develop to the point where we have the ability to see and hear simultaneously as the message comes through, or as given a message or guidance from one of the Hierarchy. Godfre would move forward naturally, but as though he were carried forward on a Ray. There was no changing of attitude, no alteration of voice, but he spoke simply with his natural speaking voice; with no outer demonstration, but sheer simplicity and humbleness. Throughout the vast auditorium we would feel this expansion of Light. At that time I did not know how to intune and feel the expansion consciously aware of what it was; but I would feel the whole atmosphere change, and all of the audience would be aware of this, and all would sit up and come to attention. The only thing I knew was just to be very still and closely watch what Godfre was doing. He would say: "The Great Master Victory wishes to speak to you," and he would start speaking. He didn't talk as though he was reading something from a screen, or speak as if it were from memory, material training of some kind, or knowledge. He talked as though it was coming from a distance. It was clear, it was precise, distinct; it neither fluctuated into emotionalism, nor emphasis upon one thing. Once in a great while tremendous humor would come through and when that occurred he would emit a happy radiance just as though he were laughing with them in some other realm and was trying to bring it through to the audience. This talk would go on perhaps for an hour. All the time he never moved from his position, remaining very calm.

Later I was shown how the Letters of Light and Sound work so that I would know. To hear and read takes place simultaneously, there is no division as in the material world where you read something or where you are thinking; it was altogether, the message coming straight out. He usually had his eyes open and he would look out over the audience. Once in a great while he would say: "They have lowered over the audience for your benefit a certain something that was to help all." He would say what They had done, but he wouldn't say we were to turn our attention to it - that would be up to the individual; and this power we could feel throughout the auditorium.

I was very curious about how that power worked because they said it was powerful and I didn't know what the power meant. One time after the speakers and the audience had left I went up on the platform to stand where Godfre stood, and I called the name of the Master who had spoken and asked him if I could feel that power - and it knocked me right flat onto the floor! I was knocked almost unconscious. The lights were out and everyone had left the building, so I practically crawled away from that microphone and went out. Never again did I question the power through Godfre when they were working with him in that way. Lotus once told the audience that when certain Great Ones are radiating through them the power is so tremendous that you could take hold of her garment and feel the power through it. I heard many people comment that that wasn't so and that she was making this up, but I knew from my experience that it was true.

You have to have the ability to hold your attention upon your Center that you feel that power, but that you remain balanced in feeling it! You do not demonstrate it by an unusual gesture, or movement, or in any way try to attract attention that you are feeling this. You must remain absolutely natural before others or they are going to set up different thoughts about you - that there is something the matter with you, that you are putting it on, or that it isn't taking place. Those thoughts or actions you will have to handle since you caused them. That is one reason why naturalness has been so definitely stressed - to be natural and harmonious. In that you have the ability to receive, and the day will come, as you purify more and more, that you will not only hear the Still Small Voice, the Great Voice of the Holy Spirit of the Flame of you, but you will read it. It is a higher ability than the present day reading and hearing of the material senses. When that takes place your guidance will be very Divine, your guidance will be right, your guidance will be the Truth. There will be no question as it moves through you - "Should I or shouldn't I do this, did I get it right or not?" - that is no more. Then it will be very clear. Within the next decade you will be intuning provided you give obedience to these Great Laws and the discipline within them.

The Master has said that when you are puzzled about channeling, as it is being called by those receiving and giving messages, if you question the accuracy of the various ones, place them together. If they fit together, then you have tuned into an accuracy of Truth; but if they do not fit together, then much of it is qualified with the individual's own opinion, knowledge or experience, and it would be much to their benefit if they did not impart this to others. This is something that has been said would take place toward the latter part of this century - that there would be thousands claiming to give the Masters' work by word, and much of it will have to be listened to and sorted out. You will have to ask God to show you the Truth of the many things you hear.

Many are tuning in to individuals in the etheric belt and they are claiming to receive dictations from them to give to the people. They will not give forth what is called a Dictation or a Discourse from the etheric belt in the manner in which we think they are going to do it - by voice. They are tuning in to the frequency of that, and if they are pure enough to bring it through, they can bring through a pretty good message. But again, as these messages are coming through, the Masters have said to be very careful. Stay intune closely with your own God self when you hear messages coming from so-called higher frequencies, other planets, or other Great Ones who are pouring through. The Masters have said that it will be very rare that they can find a body pure enough, through whom they can speak that will bring forth the clarity that comes through the guided messages of the Step By Step We Climb Discourses. That came through a very pure and clear body, with the assistance of this presence. Had both of us not been present we could not have received that straight and pure message from the Hierarchy.

The Letters of Light are powerful when they come through. Some feel that they are giving dictations now by channeling. Yes, they are channeling their experience and knowledge, but it is not charged with the Masters' substance that brings it through. Very rarely can they do that yet, but the Great Ones have said it will come as individuals steadily develop themselves toward the acceptance and fulfillment to the best of their ability. Step by step you change. That is the feeling I get from the power released that They are using Step By Step to do many things. As you change, you then have a little more and a little more, until you know that the Light and Sound Ray is real. There is something in you causing you gradually to know that one day you will be able to work in it and with it and give through that very principle; but that isn't going to change the way you talk or the way you express things, or your qualification of development, but rather it is going to use you and all your attributes. The Great Law is the Law, no matter what language it is spoken in. It is what you do in that language, what you bring forth that makes the message possible, or the development possible. No matter how you say "I AM" in what part of the world, it is how you say "I AM" that brings forth the power of that. We are so used to our own words in the English language that we think it can't be spoken anywhere else. It is according to your consciousness - how you say "I AM" - whether it be in French, or German, or Russian.

THE RHYTHM OF THE NERVES

If you are patient and have Faith, Faith in God, Christ, the Light, the Flame, the Soul, the Ray – and all are the same thing regardless of what others may say that they are separate and different – you will have help. The Soul, the Flame, the Spark, the Ray, the Presence of you, the Light cannot be different. They have to be one and the same. But different approaches, different teachings, different countries, different languages express it in different ways.

The Soul is the Light. The Soul is the seat of your being, the Center, the basic principle, the foundation. It cannot be anything but Light, it cannot be dark. Under no circumstances can the Eternal Flame, the Sun, be dark. People assume that there is a dark side to the Soul. No! No! No! Do not accept it! Do not let that kind of thing go forth, and if you hear it, or if it does come forth, in a very polite but strong manner assert awareness of what the Light is, what the Flame is. To the best of your ability stay with the Truth as the Great Ones are giving you the Truth – in all simplicity.

This ten years and the next ten years will be and are the revelation, the incoming fulfillment of the opening of the New Age. You are those people. Be grateful for this which you are learning. Be grateful for this which is taking place with you, for there are so many problems and so much pulling apart that it looks as if the Law isn't working. It is trying to adjust about eight or nine billion Flames, Souls on the earth, and now it is showing that these Souls, these Sparks, these little extended Rays are the nerve center of the human race. You are a little nerve. The nerve is this great electronic action that carries the Light from stratum to stratum and holds all together as it moves into position. To understand it is to understand your own little body, your own little universe. Thus, you can see why it is said the nerves are jangled, the nerves are upset, man is nervous. That is that Great Electronic Holy Spirit in the step-down process of joining the human to the Divine, raising you from the lower world into the next world consciousness, into your Divine Mind, and then into your Electronic Body. Whether you like it or not, it is the path you have chosen, it is what you are to do, it is who you are, your work – and it isn't easy. And there isn't anything you can do about it but keep on growing, keep on fulfilling until you understand it, utilize it, understand yourself and become.

Do not memorize the Law, become the Law. It is there! It is there within your Center, your Source! You have the completeness of all things within you. What is interfering that you do not awaken into all things? The very thing that is interfering is that which you are qualifying, and have qualified, that coats you with the vibration of materialism – the already manifested. You are raising yourself into the yet unmanifested, which is the entirety of the Wisdom of the Great Central Source, the Great Universal Sea. That Wisdom is there all the time. You are developing into that by your conscious awareness of it, which is your ability to create. As you become conscious you become Wisdom, and this Wisdom which is you, causes you to create by intelligence acting upon intelligence.

The great secret which you are learning is to become harmonious. The harmony that moves through you is the rhythm of your nerves, the up-pulling of the nervous system, which is neither human nor divine—it is the liaison of the pulling action. Your nerves are not yet pure liquid Christ essence, nor are they the density of human creation, but they are the combination of that which is pulling you upward all the time. As you calm your nerves by that little principle known as patience, and intune to this Great Light, the Source of your being, which is absolute Calm, Peace, Harmony, and all the things perfect, the Light, the gift of the nervous system, commences to move through and you are raising yourself. The nervous system acts upon that which is permission from your free will to do what you want to do. By your free will you are working upon that which is qualification that causes you to think one way or the other. And the attention and the nervous system respond accordingly.

As soon as you are determined that you are going to be that which you know is Perfection, the Law, the Kingdom, Mastery, right-use-ness and righteousness, as soon as that determination goes through you, you have asserted your choice. By your free will you must make your choice. Then, as that choice is made and the intelligence of that which is the Spark of your being, the Christ of you, goes into action that which is going to make your choice comes into fruition. The human doesn't like that. The human rebels against that. What is the human in this case? It is the fixed pattern that you have been in in this life and for many lives. You are beginning to raise yourself out of those fixed patterns which work through the brain structure and each time you move into another form, that carries on in that which you have created by your choice of free will.

You are now changing that pattern in the brain structure by your finite thinking of higher thoughts, a higher way of living, a higher development, and it is not easy because your human fights you every step of the way. Your fixed human patterns continue to tell you you are wrong, that you should not leave them. Your fixed patterns will listen to other fixed patterns that are already set in the human realm and so, like leads to like and you increase your human habits. You don't want to increase them, you want to stop them, so in the stopping of the habit you have to do something that will work against that. You have to recognize what would be the opposite of the habit and then ask for it. On account of your free will you have to ask for it. You have to seek it, you have to want it and desire it. You have to go after it, not as a duty, but you go after it with a joy and a happiness and a love that it is what you want. Then, what you want is what you get! What your attention is upon is what starts to take place, and it steadily grows, and it takes patience to know that it is growing. The human is impatient, it says: "It is what I asked for, why don't I get it right away?" and that is just the little human fixed pattern causing you to have haste. It is said haste makes waste. With haste you are right back again to human habits. You have to stop them! You have to want to stop them, and if you don't and you have asserted that you want to be better, you will suffer one way or another until you do stop them.

The only way the Great Wisdom of the Presence has of causing you to obey discipline is through suffering. Your suffering has to come about through you individually in order that after much suffering you are compelled to go deeper and deeper into your Source. Strange to say, the deeper you go to your Source in the throes of pain, the more your Presence can hear you, the more the Great Ones can hear you and answer you and help you. The Masters say that they get closer to you when you have called to them in a state of great suffering or pain, or where you have thought that it was the end of the line and finally, in great despair you want either to give up, or not to live, or "God help me." When something you do makes you go into the very depths, you are heard then more than any other call you have ever made or any prayer that you have sent forth, because you have gone straight to the Source of your being and touched your soul with intense feeling. That soul is touching the Light, that soul is touching the Christ of your being. That takes perseverance, and the second you feel it and sense it you know that you have touched the Source of Creation, you have touched the Christ of yourself. Never again will you forget that. Whatever comes up now - the things you go through and have to handle - there is something deep, deep within you that alerts you that you knew better before and that you were touching it, and you say: "What happened, why can't I touch it again, why doesn't it stay there?" That very moment you are seeking, that very moment you are starting to have help again. For whatever your attention touches upon and pleads for, it goes deeper and you start having help. Only you can do that for yourself.

Moving Into Pulsation

I often feel the frequency of the increase of pulsation just as the Doctor says: "Let me take your pulse." If you are now sensitive to that pulsation, the frequency of the vibration of the material flesh form, and are working to purify that to be able to feel the pulsation of the pulse beat of life as it goes through, it is a step-up in that vibration you are intuning to. If you are sincere and searching, and have harmony and intunement to that pulsation, then you are aware of various things taking place in the pulse beat around and through the earth and you get used to feeling that something which is transpiring. It doesn't have to be in your immediate vicinity. There are two great currents of fire that come through the earth from the Great Central Source and they interlock, penetrating through the center of the earth like a cradle. It is the same principle of the two currents that are in your own little universe through the Source of your being, the Presence of you that comes through. Actually it connects by the electronic and magnetic currents interacting and at work, as are the Great Currents that come through the earth. They are pushing and pulling. They are the things that keep the earth alive, and they are the things that make the pulse beat through the earth, for the cell earth is a living cell. It has life, it is breathing. That is why the ocean is constantly in movement, and everything through the earth is breathing through the process of the substance that it is, whether it is earth or water or air or fire, the elements of that stratum are at work according to their vibration. The earth elements are slower and denser, but nevertheless they are in action corresponding to the great two-current rays - the electro-magnetic currents - that go through and are the pushing and pulling action. Naturally, they act tremendously with the gases which interpenetrate the earth, pushing and pulling, making the earth live and constantly in action.

After ages of the earth expanding and developing, the gas belts have accumulated in pockets and sections where they are very heavy. Any undue element which activates the gas, causing a stronger pull, results in a disturbance through the earth, and/or through the water, and sometimes even enough disturbance so that it comes through the air. Hence, the air has been known to freeze or get too hot rapidly, or the currents of air move too fast, so there is elemental disturbance in the air.

All of this is interpenetrated with the fire current, which is the Fire Breath going through, as the constant action of breathing, be it minute or larger and larger, expanding into our entire system. To enable man to connect with it and know it, it is called the Great Fire Breath. Then as you claim: I AM the balancing Fire Breath, you balance yourself and help this rhythm, which again causes you to feel the actions of vibration and pulsation, and the reaction of something transpiring; you become very sensitive to it, provided your attention is your divine guidance, it is your divine illuminator, your divine teacher, it is your Master Presence, which is one with the Great Central Source of how you are created. The attention is constantly pushing you to become your Source, to become that Oneness. That is why the admonition comes forth so strongly: Learn to be master over your thoughts and feelings, for thoughts are pushed into action by your ability to create. This moves through the gland that causes you to think, but the attention is the pusher of that creation causing it to come into action.

You finally reach the place where you are quite aware of these things as you meditate and as you intune, yet it is not something you bring to the attention of another as you go about your daily duties. With your attention to your Source, remember - God is first - and there you hit the First Commandment. Every moment you are guided by what you think. What you think and what you feel is your art of creation, and how that is pushed into action is how your attention builds on what you think, how it pushes it forward. Hence, more and more are the Great Ones wanting you consciously to think rightly. It must be your conscious desire to do so because of the free will of man. You cannot receive this as a gift. All the time your desire to seek must reveal itself but only under circumstances that do not demonstrate to those who are not yet aware of these Laws. Continue being the example of this which you know so far is the Law you seek, and know it is so. There are times when you may not be fulfilling it, but keep on keeping on, and seek. Steadily and steadily the attention comes under your conscious control. It is going to be needed very much under more pressing circumstances in the future. It will come to your rescue if you have the momentum of I AM a Living Light, I AM a God Being, I AM the Living God. This momentum, with all humility, must be acknowledged, planted, grown, and brought into fruition, the same as a garden. Then when the things that startle or change move in, that instant you have help and protection, and you are able to help others right away. This is also why They are urging us to clear any interference in the physical form.

The consciousness that is the Presence of you, the real I AM of you, is the Pulse Beat, the Great Pulsation of Life. It is the Great Pulse of the Source of Creation – that is the core of your being, the Great Center of you, which is the sun of you, and that is pulsating. What the Great Ones are trying to get you to do is to be conscious in that Great Pulse Beat. To be conscious in it you have to desire to be that, accept it, work toward it, visualize and think about it, and you will find it works. This pulse beat is that rhythm, is that great harmony that interpenetrates all things. It is that through which the Great Beings of interplanetary space work and contact. You are this little current of Light, which is just as important as all other little currents in creation, and it is all interrelated, all interjoined, all relative, all a part of the Great Oneness which is relative. Thus, gradually as you feel it and as you intune to it, steadily as you awaken into it, you know more and more what the Oneness is.

The Oneness is what you seek. The Oneness is what you seek to become, consciously work in and use, and consciously think upon and create. Thoughts are things, and you are thinking in that consciousness, you are creating upon that consciousness – it is you – and what you think is what you become. The gradual changing of this form is up to you.

Before this century is out many of you, as you continue on in your work, will be changing your form that it will become etheric, penetrated with the Great Fire, or magnetic-electronic. Gradually your form will no longer be the density that it is today, and you will become weightless in this form, until it is a completely purified coating or exterior about your Flame. The periphery of you will be etheric, penetrated with the Great Fire. It is the ancient knowledge, it is the ancient message given to man through all records given to us. It is this which the Great Ones have tuned into and the prophecies given thousands of years ago. Steadily and steadily man develops into a higher being of himself into another dimension, for the next cycle, the next incoming millennium which we are moving toward and which is gradually opening. We are not completely into it yet, but it is opening.

That is the opening of the sixth sense, called the Sixth Seal, which commences to open for man, and we are moving into it. This you become. This you commence to fulfill. This you begin to know. By the conscious inner Source of your being you are able to help your fellow man and are able to give this message to man, by becoming the proof of the Truth of it within yourself, by your conscious intuning to it. You need not feel trepidation, concern or doubt about it for you are awake in it. You awaken as the Great Creative Principle created the great human race. When creation was complete and the human race was on its journey, the Eye began to open in the very Center. A similar principle was endowed upon the extended man in his own eye, which is the very periphery of that creative principle at work. The pupil is that through which it sees the creative principle at work. As that Eye is opening and watches its body develop man is learning to open his Eye. All is relative and all corresponds to the fulfillment of the same thing taking place from the minutest to the entirety. It is simply another dimension, but you become conscious in it. It is no longer a theory, a knowledge, a thing that is for someone else and not for you. It is for you! It is for each individual who wants to become.

This is not understood by those who are still very much asleep and are not applying toward this awakening. As movement into the Oneness is taking place, the form changes. The form is changing all the time. This you commence to understand. You know yourself as you are changing, and if you are changing in this developing principle, so then you must realize that others are changing too, regardless of what you still observe in the five sense world. Therefore, you must have understanding of the change in another; you cannot judge another. That is why the Great Ones are so adamant about the Commandment: "Thou shalt not judge." It is one of the most powerful of the Commandments, because when you judge you are thinking, and what you think you amplify and you attract and you become. To do this is very retarding to your progress. Judging from appearances has been the long standing habit of many individuals, partly due to the teachings of psychology and psychiatry. These, as well as other disciplines, have moved into this tremendous pattern of judging from appearances instantly they observe their fellow man. The Law says, and it is another one of the powerful admonitions: "See no man after the flesh." That is difficult for many to understand. As you learn the wisdom of it you learn to see no man after his habits - then you cease to judge. Judging leads into condemnation and criticism. When judgment is conquered you are aware of a tremendous release of Peace moving through you. You awaken with Peace, and you go to sleep with Peace.

This Oneness of purpose is far more powerful than sitting for long periods of time with eyes closed in meditation. This is teaching you to work with your eyes open and intune to your Source. This is the very principle that took place in the Source of Creation at the beginning of the human race. As the completeness of the human race went forth ring upon ring upon ring, and all rings filled with the great human Spark, the Eye opened and looked upon its creation, and it was good. You are now experiencing the same thing again, because as the Eye opens and you see the creation through the Center of your being, it is good, and that is good unqualified with human creation. That Eye is open and looks out through the unmanifested principle of the Holy Spirit and sees all things perfect. All things are perfect. You are becoming self-conscious creators helping to expand the principle of creation, God's body, by the self-conscious principle of consciously doing so. This is far different than the great stillness of the Universal Sea that is Divine Intelligence to be acted upon but yet unmanifested. Now you are working with your own Spark of Divine Intelligence upon the unmanifested, or this which is the Great Universal Sea of the Holy Spirit, and your Divine Spark of Wisdom acting upon that Wisdom can create a given pattern. That is the principle of the Great System that we live in and how it was created, and is created, and is expanding.

The great comet that is now coming again to the conscious attention of the people will gradually become visible to us again and these Great Sparks that are shooting forth from the Great Central Pulsation are part of the opening of this Eye, the opening of this New Age, this new millennium. That comet is one of the signs in the heavens it is said will be observed that man will know is a sign of the times. It is one more tremendous and powerful sign that is revealing to you who you are, and the times you are in, and what it is you have to do.

Some feel they cannot take it when this energy pours through as they are more aware of it. If you feel that way when you feel this power and its pulsation flowing, then immediately move your attention from it. If you are reading, change your reading, if you are trying to meditate, change your meditation, or even go so far as to move your body - get up and walk, do something different, and focus your attention into a material thing for a while, so you can stand the inflow of the Power coming through. It is natural, it is something you must learn to handle without demonstration. You focus your attention into the Center of this that you hear, and see, and feel its guidance. The Still Small Voice is a pulsation, it is real and obeyed by your controlled attention upon it, that its message of Wisdom from out of the unmanifest can move through you. Your means of conveying it is your creative expression whatever your Presence's mode of delivery is - by spoken work, by writing, by song, whatever way you have of giving the Law. That is clothed with this unmanifested Light, which is the Great Holy Spirit, and which we have been told we would receive and we would give in that day. That is the Christ, that is the Wisdom of the Father and the Mother united into the sun of you. All seven centers obey your sun. These seven centers correspond to the seven Great Rings of Creation out of which each ring has its millions of Sparks. You are a Spark of one of these rings, but related to all Sparks and all rings. That is relativity. That is the cohesive power that joins all things, small and large, and you become conscious in that cohesive power as your attention focuses into the very Center of your being. Then you awaken on the ray of yourself and are developing your half of the ray, moving toward the other half of yourself, which is ultimately the completeness and the Oneness which you move into. This can only take place in the Etheric Fire. To move toward the other half of yourself, the completeness of the ray, the two currents in one, is to go ahead and perfect this half - you as you are developing.

MAN - A LIVING CELL IN THE BODY OF THE PLANET

You are learning to become aware that you are a living cell of a consciousness that is uplifting. Therefore, you cannot assume the false modesty of - "Well, I am just one little individual, what can I do?" That must not be the attitude of the advancing individual. You must ever accept that "I AM a living cell, and I AM here for a reason. I have a purpose. I have a goal. I have a thing I have to do, and I AM going to do it! I AM going to help my fellow man. I AM going to help my home, the Planet Earth, and I AM going to help this System that it develops into the System of Mastery, which I AM being trained to become, and I AM going to be that and do that!"

Many cells are not yet conscious of this Great Light and it will be some time before they do become conscious of it, but each affects the other through the Great Principle of "Love ye one another," or the Brotherhood.

Now all of these things move in with the Calm, the Peace, the Humbleness, the Naturalness of conscious growth, and the naturalness of the conscious developing into the next stage. It does not come in a sensational manner, with demonstration or with phenomena, for they are materialistic. It does come in through the conscious control of your harmony and through your effort to help bring in this Great Consciousness to the human race by the substance that is the Holy Spirit of your being, which is Living Light moving forth to carry its message. You are a transformer. You are a ray that has awakened thus far to help bring that through and help your fellow man, and this only takes place through your obedience to this Great Light. That is Wisdom, that is the Wisdom of the Great Central Source which is one with your Flame, the Spark within you. As soon as you can touch that you are in that conscious awareness, you have that principle which is "like attracts like," and you become the Oneness, and you know what it is. As soon as that happens you are master – you are master among your fellow man, and never again do you have to explain who you are or what it is you are doing, or defend the Great Presence of Life. You do not have to defend "I AM that I AM," or explain yourself in a defensive manner. Your Source shows you what to say, what to do, where to go, and how to develop. It also shows you what your interferences are, and it helps you to clear all interferences.

This is the training and the work and the gift that the Great Masters brought through the Messenger, Godfre Ray King, otherwise known as Mr. Ballard. This is the message that he gave to a few million people through the principle of being that very Living Light, the outflow of the Holy Spirit wherever he went. And that is why that Great Work has such a sustaining power. Many say: "Why isn't the group expanding more?" No more is group work the essential principle of expanding the Light in large numbers. Clusters, yes, clusters working together harmoniously to expand. That is why that great movement was gradually injected with the principle of moving forth, that no one leans upon another. Each goes forth to demonstrate or become the Foundation Principle which he learns, and is able to deliver it to help others find the Great Foundation. Thousands of them are working throughout the planet today releasing this very Foundation – the Holy Spirit, the Living Substance – out into the field of the human band. Steadily, day by day, it changes – it is changing, changing, changing. You must see it in its change through the Inner Eye. You must watch it from the Source of your being.

Those who work among people, with the public, or with family, say they cannot stay in the etheric consciousness. This is true, due to the inability to control the attention while developing into the etheric, so the attention fluctuates. As soon as you control your attention by the acceptance and determination that you are going to be in that consciousness and stay in it regardless of what you are doing, who you see, or where you go then that desire starts to take place. If it is a weak desire it won't last very long; you get a little of it but it won't hold. It has to be more sincere, more determined, and then the attention says: "All right, I give up, what do you want?" You are addicted to your attention, and it has been running you age after age. It is the old habit former, and it is a strong ruler. You simply have to decide that you are going to master, that you want to master whatever it is you wish to forego, whatever it is you want to conquer, and then increase your faith! Remember the proof that you have when you have asked God, the Presence, to fulfill or do something through you and you see the Divine results. You see it working and you know it is so, and you say to yourself: It works! It works! It works! That is Faith, born of your recognition. Remember that each time it works. When you need it remember it worked once, it should work again, now what do I need most to make it work? Most of the time you need Patience – that is the attribute which everyone needs so much. Ask for Patience and Faith, and let go. You will then not only see the results and experience results, but you are encouraged by the results. The encouragement is necessary. Some feel it isn't, but it is important. Compliments are necessary when done correctly. Praise is necessary, when done correctly so as not to puff up the ego. All of these things are necessary when done correctly, in order and balance. Only when they are done with an ulterior motive do praise, compliments or recognition hurt, for indeed, "flattery will get you nowhere."

Give not power to seemingly disruptive things taking place with human beings throughout government or elsewhere. The two things at work all the time that is the Principle of Creation are the heart and the head. As each of these is coming together, the awakening student, you might say, is the heart of the human race helping to blend and cause the head to awaken. That is the thing that is bringing together this principle which is Peace, and only does that Peace prevail and born itself through when the heart and the head are one, when they are unified within the individual. And that only becomes One by constant, steady growth. Love is the secret, and Love is what takes place with you – Divine Love – when this commences to unify.

The Etheric Realm

In the etheric consciousness you are closer to those of the Hierarchy abiding in the etheric realm, wherein they dwell. As you move into the etheric, you are moving into a new neighborhood, just as you might do in the material world, and you are becoming acquainted with some new neighbors. You may have heard of them before, but you never really had the privilege of meeting them, and soon you have closer help and a closer contact. That is the Great Masters' realm where "In my Father's house are many mansions," where you have earned the right and the privilege to come near one of those mansions. You do not enter that mansion until you have earned the right, for "like attracts like."

When I first discovered some of the dwellings in the Great Etheric Belt I hadn't been studying these Laws very long, and innocently, naturally, childlike, I accepted that everything was so, even as do little children. One evening after I had attended a class, I went up to my Penthouse and was sitting there above my beautiful City of San Francisco. I thought I would like to go into a house of a Master, or some of them, to learn more - but how do I get there? Soon something seemed to tell me: "You have to climb, O but you have to climb!" "O," I thought, "I can do that, I love to climb," and so I started. The way was steep and rough. It was sharp, and it was quite dangerous, but I kept on climbing, and I climbed and climbed and climbed. As I finally reached the summit I pulled myself up over the top, and I knew I was in the midst of what might be called Etheric Mansions. I walked toward some of them, and there I came to a very lovely lady with whom I worked at the Sanctuary in San Francisco. She had helped steer me carefully down below, and now she said: "Why are you here Pearl, you don't belong here yet, but since you are here I will talk with you a little. You have much to learn before coming to this realm, and you have to be very careful for you are not yet ready." So she talked to me a little and I learned a few severe lessons. Then she said: "You must now go back down over the hill again. Good bye. You will understand in San Francisco when next I speak to you there." I returned down this very steep path, and I wasn't very happy. I was pretty disappointed, so I made up my mind then and there that I was going back down and I was going to get ready fast, so I could stay in the etheric.

I did a lot of work on it, and when I got back to the Sanctuary and was busy working, the lady came in. I looked at her, but she didn't say anything about our experience, so I too kept silent. All the time she had been good to me, and I was being guided in a very profound way which I had not been aware of before. Now I realized she was an advanced individual and perhaps I was put into her protective care there without realizing it. She was quite a disciplinarian, so I learned to give more obedience to the Law and to her guidance. This went on for some time, and then one day when I got home I resolved to go back up to the Etheric Realm again. Once more I left and climbed up this precipitous rock trail and finally reached the top. This time, instead of going to the right, as I did before, I went straight ahead, and there was a row of seven etheric mansions, which cannot be described in our language. I stepped up to the first, which appeared stern, as though it said: "this is not for you," and I went on past it to the second house, and here I could open the door. I stepped in, and now I knew that the second influence, the second ray was very powerful within me. As I was standing there and aware of this, a second individual stepped up to me, another who was helping me down on Earth in San Francisco.

In moving from this mansion several things transpired and I was aware of a Presence guiding me. Then a voice said: "Now complete," and it turned me and I started down the pathway toward the West until I reached and entered a great cathedral-like building with thousands of rows of candles burning in tiers. As people came in they stopped, and I stood watching them and thinking they seem to know what they are doing. They would go over to a place and take one of the candles, move to another area and do something which would light the candle and then carry it to their special place. I thought, "O, I better do that too," so I turned, but I couldn't do it. Then someone beside me said: "Not yet," and I couldn't get the candle. I turned and I looked and there were thousands of souls sitting in this great cathedral, all those who had put a candle up, and they were looking up. Then it came – "Be not discouraged, but not yet." I turned and started up the path back up past the candles, outside the building and over the hill and down the steep mountain. Then I knew that I had to learn to light the candle, and I had to learn to do it myself. They had all learned, and they were working.

From these two experiences I knew that you must not rush. You must not rush, but you must develop the ability to conquer your attention, to be master over your attention, that you learn to live in the First Commandment: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." As soon as that starts to take place you start moving into that realm, that dimension which is the etheric body of you. So you see how vital it is that your attention be on your Source first! The human will set up every conceivable argument to say that isn't possible. True, it isn't something that is done by force of human will. It is something that is accomplished by letting go of the force of human will and seeking, by request to yourself, that this is what you want. It is you who have to request: "I want to live in God first. I want to pray without ceasing, but I do not want to do it through human will. I AM going to do it because that is who I AM." When this is felt and understood, as you commence to do this enough, you begin to know how to live in it; but you have to take the consciousness, and not try to hold the old with which you are so familiar, for that is what you have been living in. You must choose one or the other.

EARTH CHANGES

Mother Earth is in the process of moving into her third change of position. There is a reason for her being called "Mother Earth." There is also a reason why she is called negative, for she is a great breeding place of learning to reproduce. There is a reason for the human race having to go through this principle of learning to reproduce. Not all planets, and none in our System excepting Mars, do as we do, and no other planet is in the same situation as the human race; that of a body reborning, learning to reproduce, or being taught to bring through a new System in the distant future. This is the work that is going on in this period.

A section of Atlantis is pushing up, as well as a section of the land under the Pacific. It is said in ancient chronicles: "Atlantis will rise again, and Lemuria will rise again." They will not rise as we think of their rising in their entirety, but the land will rise, yes. Returning into that land and into that which is moving forward in this decade and the next, will be you people. As it shifts under the Pacific, so will it cause shifting of water. Hence, many prophetic stories are traveling today. People are tuning in in a similar manner to the Great Source of their being and are receiving some valuable guidance; however, it should never be given in the form of a fearful prophecy, for that disturbs the gentle awakening of the individual. Man is betwixt and between, he is partly awake and partly asleep, partly believing and partly subject to a siege of doubt and fear. The fear and the doubt are quite prevalent in many as this takes place. Knowing that is half the battle, thus the preparation which is now being given.

When I alert you to this inflow as it is coming through, please do not say to other people that I am a psychic, that I am prophesying, or that I am bringing through psychic information. This is not psychic! Psychic is physical, and this instruction is not physical! This is the current the great Craft travel on, and it is the current that is interpenetrating the Fire current that interpenetrates Planet Earth and our System. You have the same current within you on a minute scale as it touches the Source of your being. You learn to intune to that gradually, just as accurately as you answer the telephone when it rings, you intune to that something which pulls you to it. There is an intuning to this great current that goes through which sets up the next frequency, and it is an alert, but it isn't phenomena or sensationalism to flaunt before others with a feeling of superiority. Everyone has the same thing within. This training and this type of work is part of what certain people are doing all over the Earth right now to alert awakening ones that they too have this. As it comes through you and you are beginning to be aware of this additional stimulant, which is a higher pulsation, it should not be given power through the human senses. Be very careful as you awaken to this Power because it stimulates everything in your world to a higher action. If you have a habit of doubting, it increases your doubt. If you have a habit of haste, you will be more hasty. If you have a habit of impatience, it causes your impatience to increase—it feeds and activates those habits; so you have to learn greater control as the Power increases. When this current comes through you, it works through your nervous system, for your nervous system is the fire system of your little universe, the same as the Great Fire System of the Great Fire Current that comes through our System is the nervous system of our System, and it is through that that the Great Central Source is directing and sending it forth.

The nervous system must be at peace, and you have the power within you to control it by learning what you do when you focus your attention at the Center of your Source, your Flame, your Soul, that very Sun-Center of you, and become that Center by saying "I AM." In swinging your attention to that Source and being very conscious in that Eye, you are that Eye, you are the consciousness of that Eye. Consciousness, Attention, Divine Mind, Light, Fire, Force, are all the same thing, and if you will work on it by wanting to be conscious in it, that it is what you want, you will commence to feel what this Fire is that works through you, the Father-Fire-Force. The Father Force in its combination is actually Father Force - Mother Force. It is the combination of the three, divided into Father-Mother-Son in materialism when we moved into duality.

In returning to the Oneness which you knew and are and have had for ages, but have been asleep to, in returning to that you are again touching that Oneness which is both the Father-Mother Principle. As soon as you touch it, it borns itself through and you become the Father-Mother-Son. That is the Christ Principle. That is exactly the example, the teaching which was left to us long ago, and what you are now becoming. Gradually as you move into position and are within this, you no longer oppose, or question, or analyze why, but you begin to intune, absorb, learn, and become. You will be more discreet, you will no longer express opinions, but you will start being the Law and helping your fellow man. Then you will have that principle which raises you above human creation, above judging from appearances, or from what is perceived through the five senses. You then begin to move into the world of your higher self, which is Love, Wisdom, and Power, or that threefold activity which is the action of you together, and working as needed—whether it be Love, or Wisdom, or Power, but always as One. And that cannot be understood through the five senses.

I have quickly detected earthquakes, storms, cyclones, and other meteorological phenomena in various parts of the Earth before they occur, due to the fact that the Oneness of this is one with the Fire of Creation, which is the Source of our being and which knows all things. This Oneness is not understood by the brain until you commence to be aware and feel you are letting go of limitation and hit that which is: "I and the Father are One," or that which is: "Not my will but Thy will be done through me. I AM the Father. I AM the Mother, and I AM the Son-Sun," which is the principle of the Christ.

Those who are saying that Pearl doesn't believe in Jesus are very wrong. If it were not for Jesus the Christ there would be no Pearl. Understand that! If it were not for Jesus, you people would not be here. "You cannot enter the kingdom except through me," and many people feel that Jesus was the only way. He also said: "I can of mine own self do nothing," so why worship a physical Jesus, or say that he was the only one? He said: "Of mine own self I can do nothing, it is the Father within that doeth the works," and "These things I have done you too shall do, and still greater things shall ye do. I go to my Father and your Father," and "In my Father's House are many mansions." This is your mansion, your ray, your little universe, your current. Your little universe is your mansion. As you move toward that, and as you enter into your Oneness of consciousness, you have to go through the Father-Mother-Son Principle - the Father being born through by the great pure Mother Principle which unites and gives you the Son Principle, or the conscious realization of the Center, the Spark of your being, which is the Son and the Sun, the Spark, the Flame, the Core of your being, the Eye. As soon as that happens you enter and can sustain it and live in it, be it, and be the example of it, and outpicture it. As soon as you have proved that true, you are entering into the kingdom.

What is the kingdom? The king's domain, the king's dominion is the center pivot of the Son, Christ, God Force, that very center Eternal Spark that is the king-dom, the King's dominion. Within that kingdom is all good. It says: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you." Isn't that what you seek? Isn't that what you really want? What is the kingdom as they have given it to us? The Field of Purity, the Great Field of the Pure Lily. On that field you will walk, you will be pure. You walk over, above human creation. You are above emotionalism. You are above the five sense world, and you have unified the duality—the two as one—entering Oneness again—the Father-Mother unity principle, or, "I and the Father are One," and you know what it is.

As you arrive into that consciousness you move through that Great Wisdom and you move through the Pure Field which gives you, after you have the patience to sustain it, the ability to have your ultimate attribute - Understanding - and you understand the human race, you understand your fellow man. Your Eye is open. No longer do you judge from appearances or express opinions of human things, because they do not exist in that higher field of development. You are in the Kingdom Consciousness, which is Wisdom, Love, Purity, Peace, Harmony, Kindness, Understanding, and all things which are what we term "good." Through this interpenetrates these great fire currents connecting your little universe to a higher focal point. This is penetrating continually, and yet it is a constant spiral activity, not understood in the five sense world. Yet once you start climbing up the great spiral toward the Center of your being, it is very understandable. It is forever in an upward or higher frequency but which is ever toward the Center. The higher the frequency the higher the pulsation, which is the pulsebeat of life, which is the real YOU, the Center of YOU.

It isn't easy. If you feel that you have chosen the task and want to serve, and you feel it is going to be easy, a "quickie" and you are there, you are going to be disappointed, because it is never easy, and it cannot be rushed. Forewarned is forearmed! This has been said by all advanced individuals, and foretold in the records of all the Great Ones, and in their messages and in their help to man. Why? Because you are learning to let go of the so-called "satisfactory" dense form of materialism and you are learning that it isn't so satisfactory after all. You are beginning to ask to be freed or released from it. Suicide is not the way under any circumstances, nor to step out of your little shell and let another take over. That is black magic, mesmerism, hypnotism, and sinister to the nth degree. That is not the way! The teaching has been moving forward now that you can go out and someone else can take over your form. That was black magic of long ago and somehow it is being caught up again, and here and there some few are starting to use it. If that is what you want, that is up to you! Your temple is your temple. You have this temple with its seven focal points in it, and when you move into your next stage of development, the real you, you move into the Presence of yourself, your Great Electronic-Magnetic combination, which is your Great Electronic body. You had the seven centers given to you in Eden, and within these seven centers are your ability to create. How you misuse or abuse them results in how much you suffer. That is who you are and what you have chosen to be. That is what you are born into, and that is your divine seed pattern. No way, but no way, can you change that, any more than a carrot is angry because it is a seed carrot and wants to be a turnip! It cannot change its seed pattern. You can cross them, you can cultivate to a degree various combinations of crossing the pattern, but always there is that mother pattern that remains the same. Man is made in the same way. The combination that is taking place among humanity, which is bringing together various exterior forms that appear a different race or from a different country, is nothing but the outer coating, the outer shell. The interior of you is eternally your divine seed pattern, that seven center system that is man's system of creating, the seven Great Elohim of Creation. This is what you have been endowed with, and it is about time that some of the human race, after the devastation of Lemuria and Atlantis and several other civilizations, begin this time to fulfill—that many, many thousands commence to fulfill. I think it will take place, it feels like it will, because the Great Ones have made every effort now for several centuries to keep leading man further into the position of awakening, and it seems that that is moving forward a little more.

No longer condemn or punish yourself by words that hurt your temple. What you say about yourself is forming the vibratory rate of your temple. You should be building the vibratory rate of your temple higher and higher by right-useness, that soon it becomes a divine substance, as you move into a different stage of consciousness, although still in the physical form on the Earth.

This is where your work starts. As you feel, are aware of and comprehend this consciousness, it is not something you talk about or tell others—you do not mention your dreams, your visions, the many things that are new to you. People are not going to believe you, they are going to doubt you, they will envy you, they will want to argue and give their impression, and they will want to tell their story. Keep it within yourself and grow. Write it down if you wish. You do not have to advertise the spirit, the Christ, the Light. It advertises itself O so gloriously!

Tears are not the solution in this work. Tears are emotionalism and come from the solar plexus. Many say that tears relieve, or you have to cry tears in order to relieve certain conditions. That is not so! The Great Ones say a true student does not cry through an accident, a set-back, or suffering. Sometimes tears can hardly be contained due to the emotional strain one may be going through, and if a few tears do drop, control them, but do not break down into the great wail and woe to attract attention and to cause people to think that you are suffering much more than you actually are. When there is a deep, deep pain, an accident or tragedy, it is very difficult to control that emotional feeling that comes over one, but that great control must be learned. As students, where you find one who is suffering, sobbing over a condition, a loved one has passed, or a serious accident, help them. Work with them quickly. If they are students and know this Great Law, they are trying to control too, for that is the Law of helping each other. That is how you can go to some one and say: "I need help, would you help me?" In that way you can help. As soon as you hear of these things, such as a plane crash, an earthquake, or a storm, call to the Masters. They say: "Call and we can help." Then make the call. You do not have to follow through and see how the Master does it, because in the Great Etheric Fire Realm as they are working through, they cannot interfere with human beings by voluntarily assisting because of our free will; but the second a call comes through, then someone has relinquished free will to the degree that he is asking, and the Masters can help. Get that principle, because they say to us: "Call to us and we will respond." But they aren't going to come along and voluntarily help, because it is against the Great Law, any more than you should interfere with another, other than going to your Source and asking to assist another when you know it is needed.

Weather conditions, accidents, wars, world tragedies, all need your prayers. Send the Light Rays, send help there. Also, before you go to sleep at night, make the call. Call to different Masters to help conditions in various parts of the Earth. The Earth is moving into what they told us would take place in 1982. It is just starting, and 1983 will be hit much more. Be prepared! This is what they are doing. This is why you are here. This is why certain books are being put in your hands, and certain messages are coming forth. Learn to discriminate. Learn to intune, neither doubt nor compare. "God help me that I can help. Help me that I can understand. Help me that I can be wise as I help others." You have to prepare because your form is only going to take so much. Make your calls: I AM healthy. I AM strong. I AM alert. I AM awake. I AM serving. God, I want to help, and keep your attention to the Center of your being!

That change which is taking place is really the birth of the Christ, the birth as we know Capricorn as it moves in. We are in that time now, and it has been held on the 25th for us for quite some time, but I know you all feel it and have felt it enter in, and you are feeling it more now, rather than waiting until the 25th and then try to feel it. We have been feeling it for the last two, three, or four days, because that is your intuning, and that is the thing that is taking place with the Earth, and what affects the Earth affects you. Really, as you awaken into Capricorn you will experience that birthing of the Christ through you and the developing of it for this New Age to be, the outflow of it - the Aquarian outflow.

Each of these things should be understood within you, more so than the traditional dates of materialism which are so set. When it changes over and you are intune you can feel the change. You don't have to wait for the clock or the calendar or for what someone says. It helps to know that it is approaching, and for you to be aware. It is a good warning, and it is a good thing to intune to. We have to be told at the human level, until we finally arrive at the steady consciousness that we no longer have to have the ritual of being told.

THE ELEMENTAL KINGDOM

Each stratum has its beings, the elementals at work: earth, water, air, and fire. The salamanders work closely with the fire element, but that does not necessarily mean that they do not work through your fireplace where there is an artificial fire going. At the same time, where water is freezing, the elements of the water, the undines, are at work cooperating with the sylphs that work through the air, all of which cooperate with the angelic kingdom and the Archangels, the same as we should cooperate with each other at different stages of development. The ones which you feel most – air, water, earth, or fire – will depend upon your sign. Serapis Bey works closely with the elements of the air – fast moving and often seen only as a tremendous movement, as an upper push of His Being, seen due to the speed of air, the angelic speed of the Seraphim, the speed of the Archangel action, and in the spreading out of this Great Light long and wide. I have seen the Seraphim action miles long, working through the air etheric belt, lifting, purifying, and delivering purified Light into sections where it is much needed.

If you love the elementals you can help in catastrophic conditions anywhere on earth – you can pour love and the Christ Light into that condition, thus helping the sylphs, the undines, the salamanders, the Archangels, the Great Elementals at work in that section. You may say: "What can we do, what can one individual do?" If you take that attitude, what can you do anywhere? But if you say: I AM the Presence penetrating through to that. I AM a ray of Light, a Christ Light. I AM the Living Light pouring into that condition and helping there, then you are cooperating with the elementals and helping to alleviate that condition. It is the misuse of this Great Light, through man's fear that brings on some of these earth actions.

When the Masters moved us in San Francisco as a grave danger was approaching, they helped us to dissolve the tremendous fear that the people unknowingly were releasing. Due to the earthquake movement fear penetrates powerfully through the earth, for to the majority of people it is an unnatural event, and when you feel that movement starting, you feel almost helpless. Your house and everything in it is moving, and what can you do? If earth movement commences while you are in your car it is time to be very much in tune that the elementals can help you. They can immediately come to your aid, if you would understand this and stay intune. But you see what is happening everywhere, North, South, East, and West—man is adding to the great danger of more ice, more wind, more destruction, more earthquakes, more movement. The important thing is that you yourself must learn to be a controlled ray under all conditions taking place—especially those where you might be startled. Catch yourself, and discover why you are startled there, and then you might find you still have a little fear acting. That is a good prompting to work to get clear of that.

The little fairies are happy mimics. The gnomes and fairies are actually happy elementals. The fairies are feminine, the gnomes are masculine—one is magnetic and the other electronic, again in their realm. In the case where happiness prevails, where happiness pours through a section, they go quickly into action with the great joy which they can release. It is the only way they can release what they are. They only act according to what their element is doing. The little fairies cannot handle the ground, nor can they handle the air, nor can they handle the fire, but they can cooperate with the air because they are close to the happiness and movement of that element. The Archangels can do nothing with the ground because they are far from that in their development. Just as on the physical plane, an adult cannot relate too much nor rush the development of a young child, but rather can give him help. The work the angels and the Archangels do with the gnomes is a cooperative thing. They are each in their element. Working with the earth element are the gnomes, fairies, and leprechauns. They are all happy. If you are walking in the woods and remain happy, you can see the leprechauns, and you can see the Devas at work, the Great Devas which work in the air.

Because the fire element is the highest of the four elements, if you are at great peace you can see the salamanders. Why do so many people like to sit by their fireplace and muse and dream? They are in tune with the salamanders, they are in tune with the fire, which is the electronic nerve current of the elemental kingdom all the way through. You can sit by a fireside and bless the little salamanders, and pretty soon you are very conscious in the fire breath. You are very much at peace. You do not go to sleep, but if you can just sit there and meditate upon it you can derive tremendous benefit from the fire breath of yourself, with the assistance of the salamanders in the room. That is why the fireside is such a happy place in the home, and why people are attracted quickly to it. Hearth means heart - the heart of your house - and the hearth is the fireside of your home, and the hearth is the fireside of you. People move to it, children do, dogs do, cats do, they love it and are happy.

At one time the earth-water was not as dense as it is today. The earth as it came forth was of the etheric-fire - the Fire Flame of the Creative Principle - on its journey to expand itself and become a growing cell. During that expansion the water was ether and fire, etheric-fire, but at a certain point condensation commenced bringing forth the elements of earth and water, as called "below the firmament." Much of the ether solidified and became more dense, known to us as water, and that was solidifying all the time and became earth. As the Earth starts ascending and starts changing, the earth-water commences to change its frequency again and gradually it will be absorbed into the etheric-fire. That is the great ascension of the Earth, the final activity taking place in the distant future.

As this thousand year period is coming on, as it has shown me, it is pouring in that which is etheric to help raise the vibratory rate of water. We cannot exist in the human without water until we move into the etheric belt of ourselves, and then we no longer will need the element of water or the food of earth. The Masters do not use the lower vibration to maintain existence, and so people ask - what do they eat? They eat etheric-fire. The etheric is higher than water and earth. Thus you will see what this change is that takes place that you must resurrect. That is why we are admonished to affirm often: "I AM the resurrection and the life." You cannot resurrect until you do that! Neither can the Earth resurrect and reborn into its final stage of the etheric belt unless it consciously does so. That consciousness which is the upliftment and voice of the seed earth, that Great Voice of the Elohim, the Voice of "I AM that I AM that I AM," is that which enables the Earth to expand, resurrect, reborn, and throw off its iniquity, throw off its garment of human density, and emerge the etheric fire of itself. It may seem a little premature to be turning your attetion to this, but this is what is happening, and it is what I am being shown and what I am being told to reveal.

In meditating upon the elementals one day I found myself walking upon a stone wall. I was standing there asking if anything of the elemental kingdom was around there. I said: "If you are around here I want to see you and I want to know you and to know more about you." In just a short while, it seemed that right out of the rock wall came two little men about six inches tall. They came running up the broken rock and up by my feet and they looked up at me. They were happy. They were fully dressed, wearing a blue tunic-like apparel, with a little red hat, big shoes on their feet, and they played around for a while. Then I said: "Are there more of you here?" They laughed, turned and ran back a little. I do not know if they talked, but I could feel their response to me. They stood and waited on one side, and then a little girl, about six inches tall, not of the gnome family, appeared. The female is very different in appearance. This was a little fairy type girl, as I later learned, the etheric of the material world. She stood and watched me for a few moments and instantly she was dressed just as I was dressed, and had hair like mine. She played around a little while and then she disappeared. Then a couple of other little elementals came out. I didn't quite understand what they were, but later I asked and found out more about them. That was enough to satisfy me and I returned to my body. Then it was very clear, and I know the reality of the elementals, having seen them with the inner eye. I couldn't see them with the exterior five sense world at that time, but since then, after working for some time, believing and knowing, I have watched a Great Seraphim at work in the etheric between the earth and the angelic world where the Great Angelic Kingdom and Archangels work. This was near the Teton range. I watched it for some time. It has been said that if two of you can witness the same thing it is much better for verification in revealing it to others, because sometimes one individual may have imagination in his world and not the reality of the vision or the presence of a thing coming to him. If two witness this and can explain it separately, saying the same thing, then you have really witnessed the activity. In this case there were more than one of us witnessing the Seraphim at work and so we could reveal this at a later date.

This was tremendous. It was gigantic. We were riding along on the highway and it stopped us. So we pulled over and we knew something was trying to come through for us so we waited. All at once our attention was pulled upward, and we watched this great activity. We were conscious in our physical forms, but we were in a higher consciousness of observation as we saw it in the Great Etheric Belt, the work they do, and how they draw the energy from the earth under good circumstances where that energy has been created constructively by man. They pull that energy up in great sheets. It was like a vast skirt as it moved upward and on and on, and the color was beyond description as we watched. She was pulling it from the Great Teton Retreat. This energy was being taken up and moved across the heavens, and it appeared to be miles long. It moved in this great sheet of rainbow colored Light and it disappeared going southward. We were headed east and she was moving southward. After that had moved on and disappeared we stood there and waited, feeling a great upliftment.

We started out again in the car and were stopped again right on the Continental Divide, close to the Tetons, still in Wyoming. Again we got out of the car and waited. We could feel the pull, and then there was this tremendous action which came down through the atmosphere, and we were shown how they pull this energy out of the earth, and this time seemingly it was pulling something up - removing a condition that was to be dissolved. We didn't know what this was except that is was a spiral activity, something like the whirlwinds we see. It pulled it up and up, and then it was dissolved and disappeared. That was the second time that I witnessed the elementals at their tremendous work, and the more harmonious we are the more we can observe them. It isn't something you try to see in order to prove it; but simply love and bless them and ask. Then if it is right you will commence to see and know them. At first you may feel them. You have to be prepared.

The elementals were very active on the Earth up until about this last century, when so many chemicals and so many destructive things came forth. This is driving them back and it is causing them to hide more, and they cannot come out in the work and in the things that they do. They are necessary in order that the earth-water element becomes purified and harmonized, and we are part of that harmony. If we do not do it the same thing is going to happen in this incoming change that took place in the last great change. The problems that several of the great civilizations had, the Lemurian, the Atlantean, and two or three others, were due to man's iniquity. The destructive thing that is causing the earth to react, causing the violence that takes place with the elementals, earth, water, air, and fire - man is part of that. This training and this help that has been coming to us through books, certain people, and the Laws as They have dared to open up to us again, and the use of the various Flames, the various Fires, currents, and the rays that They are instructing us in, we should use with the Love, Wisdom, and intunement so that we can be a part of the raising of the human race. It cannot be accomplished by superiority of brain, it must be accomplished by your attention upon your Soul, your Flame, the Source of your being. That is your Wisdom and guidance, and that is the thing that you gradually must follow under this incoming change.

The Seraphim have never been in physical form; they are developed right in their field, the etheric belt. As you see the development from the minute to the large in the elemental kingdom, that development is as natural as we think of the naturalness of human reproduction. This energy as it amplifies where needed, or where it helps to raise the vibratory rate of the Earth, has the purifying effect that we know in calling forth the Violet Fire (although it isn't violet), and has a lot of power as well. We went through it as we traveled east from the Tetons, and we felt so purified that it felt just like we would not have to come back to Earth. Yet we felt very humble and very protected. I suppose we were protected too, due to the Light that was taking place. All the time those of us in the car were of one accord – we believed, we remained humble, it was what we wanted, and we were at peace. There was that Oneness of consciousness. There was no physical personality interfering, which is that thing that binds, as in a prison. You are being shown how to get out or be free of that cocoon in which man has imprisoned himself through limitation and selfishness, and those things which hold importance, or lack of humbleness. That is why it has been said that you cannot enter the kingdom, and you cannot enter the Field of Purity until you know how to be humble; but you must have the patience to be humble. It takes patience to be humble, and that patience must be brought into action because it is what you desire. So many feel, yes, I have that desire, but they don't have to do anything more about it. You do have to keep doing something about it until the moment of your complete awakening. As you are awakening, as the Eye is opening, all comes in Law and Order. It is a steady process, but it is not something that can be rushed due to the prerequisite of Law and Order – the great order of growth.

The Angels

I wanted to know about the angels when I first started working. "Where are the angels? What are the angels?" Before going to sleep at night I asked: "Take me to the angels, let me see the angels, let me be with the angels." Nothing happened, or I couldn't bring it through, but I stayed with it. When I would get completely rested within I would ask that I go into the etheric belt where the angels do liaison work between the earth and the etheric belt. I didn't know how that energy worked. I believed but I didn't have the reality of it or the proof of it. I kept after it, and then one night I made the call and I found myself suddenly raising, consciously, but I had no idea that my form was in the bed and I had now moved into that etheric belt. I was looking out of a large window and there were three or four angelic beings nearby. I thought, "This is it, this is always the way it will be now." I was conscious of watching, but that was so new to me I thought I was doing it in the house in the physical form. I watched the angels at work, how they were working through a certain section of the country, what they were doing and what they were lifting and raising, going in and out through the activity of a large city. Wherever there was an action of Light going on they would move nearby and pull on that energy and it would pull up, becoming very large. Then it would shower down, just like they were delivering pure Light to the people sleeping down below. It was very fascinating. I watched them work and I thought, "This is simple, I will just come here any time I want and watch them work." So it went on for a long time and they kept on about their work. Finally I understood it, and I thought, "Now I can come here, so I will leave now." Then I discovered I was moving back into my form. It was pretty easy this time, but for a long time it wasn't easy at all to get back into the form and I was almost frightened to be out of it; so I had my fear interfering, and I couldn't have that. But this time I came back and it was very clear. I waited a little while and then I wrote it all down for which I was later very grateful.

After sleeping, the next morning I had no remembrance of it, but then I picked up the pad and pencil at my bedside and the whole thing returned. If I hadn't written it down I don't know whether I would have remembered it, but as soon as I read it the whole thing was clear to me. Now I knew that the angels were real for my experience proved it to me. Later some one was talking and they said that was all imagination, that there is no such thing as angels, and I could say: "Yes there are angels, they are mighty real!" They would say: "How do you know?" I was almost ready to tell them that I was right there where they were working, but again, "be silent," be very careful about delivering that. But the assurance is there. Nothing can change that. I brought back the conscious memory of it, I was there; it wasn't any dream or imagination, it was a complete experience. Then I knew it was the way to work, but it is a difficult thing to do too. Many people sleep easily, as soon as they lie down they are asleep. It is not that easy for me, so it is a good time for me to do a lot of work. But again, it is up to you entirely. What is it you want? How do you want this? In the beginning I worked with determination, every night, day after day toward this. That does not mean that was all I did. I was working in an office and I was helping people, I was making my own clothes; I walked to work, and evenings I worked at the Sanctuary - early in the morning I would be there. No, I was not in the mountains, I was in San Francisco. I worked in the busy downtown area, and I also lived in the City, so that isn't an excuse. There is no excuse big enough to let down in seeking this Great Law! This is desire within you!

WORKING TOWARD THE ETHERIC CONSCIOUSNESS

I made the call that I could understand and recall Venus. The Masters said we could go, and I accepted that we could. I was in my room, and in just a little while I found myself leaving the Earth very rapidly. Whether I was assisted or not I do not know. The next thing I recall I was at the base of the most colossal stairway one could ever imagine. It was wide and very high, and on each side of the stairs, as I climbed, there were flowers and vegetation, very different from what we have here, and very fragrant. Each step was about six inches high and perhaps four feet deep. I would go up a step and then I would walk along to go up the next step. In that way the climb was very gradual. Suddenly I knew that I was in another dimension, and I was very conscious of it because the material there had a beauty very different from what we have here. Of course, it was in the etheric fire dimension. I was aware of this in a very natural way and the awareness seemed to have a teaching affect stabilized within. I climbed the stairs for quite some time, seemingly alone, until I was quite near the top, where there were three or four who moved foward to meet me. I had the sense of us all going up together, but in that dimension of consciousness it is not something one would remember.

As we met and we went further on, the beauty and the immensity of it was beyond description. There is no way to describe it. They took me further in, and that is all I recall, excepting once I was back in my physical form I was never the same again. After my return and ever since I have had a much different sense of weight as in the density of human form. I was conscious of weightlessness, what it is to be weightless and how one develops into it. I assume that took place with any of those present who had the same faith, or the ability to accept it and do something about it. That is one reason why, when there is a high radiation and we are working, the Great Ones often suggest that each one try to sustain this if possible when they go home and intune to it again to increase the activity which has taken place. Many do not do that after a meeting, but rather go somewhere to eat and talk, dispersing their conscious awareness of it back into material living again. Always after a meeting I would go immediately to my quarters. Even where five or six of us would return in a car, I would remain silent, sustaining that until I got to my room and then I would intune to it, keeping it growing a little more by the conscious reality of what was taking place. (That is Victory responding because I am talking about Venus and my attention is in the dimension of Venus.) You are getting the same thing, by feeling, whether you know it or not. Just focus your attention to the Source of your being and accept "I AM." He only uses the name Victory for you to become conscious what victory is to you - victory over human creation. What victory means to us by its tone and color is what He wants you to pick up that you too can become master over substance and energy, your thoughts and feelings and human creation.

The Beings coming in from Venus are bringing that consciousness to the human race. That does not mean that you are awakening to prophesy for your fellow man, or to tell them what to do, as much as it means to learn to give. That is what They are doing, and that is the work of the expansion of Light, or Law. They give that substance to the individual as They release it into the stratum of the human kingdom. He who is unselfish in his desire to become the assistance to man and to give, will absorb and awaken to that substance, that attribute, that particular gift to his fellow man.

I AM the Victory of the Light! That performs a two-fold activity through you. Your cellular structure, your atomic structure must be the qualification of that very affirmation in order for you to become, by conquering materialism, for you are what you think. Provided you want it, seek it, and ask for it, the action of the etheric of yourself, the Wisdom of your Presence, the Father Principle will place into your conscious awareness more understanding, either by book, by individual, or by experience, one way or the other. It commences to show you, but you must be sincere in your asking. Your sincerity in that expands the ability to pick up your guidance from that realm, the vast realm of the Great Etheric Belt about the Earth, in which abide the Great Beings of whom we speak, and many who work there after completing previous work on the Earth. The Great Planet Venus is in the band, as are many other things that come to us of the etheric awareness - that which we are developing into, becoming our own etheric consciousness. As soon as that takes place you are a little nearer to that which you seek, and which was difficult to have the patience to find - the Great Masters, the Great Ones who work with us. Until you do become the etheric consciousness, it is hardly possible for the Great Ones to reveal to you and through you who They are, how They exist, and what They are. When you have a strong enough desire to seek, and to hold your attention on seeking, that desire, that attention leads you to the first steps into feeling the limitlessness of the etheric consciousness.

The Great Etheric Belt is interpenetrated with the fire element and so you are actually becoming the etheric fire of yourself, but first you must become etheric. You must in some manner seek, approach, apply, find, feel, awaken until you feel it beginning to take place through you. At first it is very delicate because it is changing the cellular structure of your being. That is the transition, that is the ascending state that is moving you out of this human consciousness, the duality of materialism, and causing you to be conscious in the Etheric Belt. Day by day, step by step, constantly you are changing. If you try to rush it, it closes off for you. You cannot rush it because to rush it is to be human. To try to rush into this etheric consciousness is figuring it out with the brain and you stop yourself by staying conscious in human consciousness. Knowing this, realizing this, somehow or the other you must prove the reality of this Great Light to yourself through your experience and let it become your stabilization. It is there, but you must be conscious in it. You must be aware of it, not by thought that "I know I have the Light," but that I AM the Light! If you have the time and the inclination, as soon as you possibly can, read the Chapter on "Revelations" in The Magic Presence where the Master Saint Germain talks to them in the Tower Room at the Rayborn Ranch. Go over it carefully, read and reread and think about it - what He is saying to them and how He made it possible for some of those present in the room to move into their etheric forms and ascend off of the Earth. The others went forth to serve, to help humanity in various ways which were later revealed. They were developed enough that this could take place. That was the preparation that had to stabilize Godfre for the drastic field of service he was to move forward into for the next seven or eight years. He was to talk before and meet thousands of people, and have to handle a tremendous bombardment of thought from an audience to which this instruction was completely new. The thoughts of the people were much more powerful then than they are today. Today man is awakening much more rapidly, and within this awakening he has quite an understanding that he is the Light, or that there is a God within him. That is now becoming more acceptable by masses of people, but it was not so at that time. God was up in the clouds. At that time church and prayer teaching was up above. Every time they prayed and every time they wanted something it was "O God help me." Within Godfre this Great Light was stabilized by the activity that took place at the Rayborn Ranch that gave him the strength to go forward throughout the United States and deliver this message, which was and is one of the greatest teachings on the Earth today. Will you choose to apply them toward your own Victory? Few do because it takes discipline and application. It is up to each individual.

The Principle of Love as they gave it there was and is one of the most profound Laws ever given of what that great connecting Power - the cohesive Power of Love that joins all things - can and will do. As Godfre gave it, it was in the very unique wording of "Love, Wisdom, and Power," but so worded that if you will read it carefully, study and apply it, you will get the tremendous message therein. That message went forth through those next several years, reaching approximately three million people! It was vast and it was very far reaching!

You are part of the people now who are receiving the assistance that the Great Ones are sending forth, because of your development and who you are - coming into the Great Aquarian movement which is the Freedom of this Light. The purpose of Saint Germain in moving that Light forward as the Freedom of the outflow of this Light is that you conquer that which is birth and rebirth, free will, and cause and effect. It is up to each one. (That is Saint Germain radiating now.)

Some are making the statement that Saint Germain lives in Mount Shasta. Saint Germain's home is in the Etheric Belt. He works through high elevations, as do all Masters. All heights on the Earth above the 7,000 foot level are easier to work in and through for there is less of the lower vibration of human creation. Saint Germain does not live in Mount Shasta! Work with yourself to know and understand that the Great Masters live in the Etheric Realm, in which we are learning to be conscious. As you start being conscious in that you will understand this realm in which They live and work - much more tangibly than we think we do here at the material level. Man feels that this is the only tangible realm because he is conscious in the five senses, but the Arisen Masters are far more tangible, more far-reaching, more unlimited. To an extent we cannot conceive of They are absolutely limitless! As soon as you touch into it and can move into it a little, you begin to have more of the feeling of it and you will begin to understand it a little more. Then you can stand adamant in the awakening Truth that you know that you are coming into it, in the face of various statements made that you know are not the Truth. You must be strong enough not to argue or defy or resist, but you have the tactfulness of helping the other to search until he too speaks the Truth. Call God into action as you hear these things, that you say the proper thing, that you can help the individual, and you will be able to speak tactfully and wisely. It is up to you how much you want to help the Great Masters bring through the Truth to the human race. It is up to you how much you want to be of service, how much you want to give, what it is you want to do on this planet. That is why you are here, and who you are, and what it is you want to deliver. It is entirely up to you!

This Great Law is yours to awaken into and deliver. It is not imposed upon you. Because you moved away from it ages ago you were endowed with that tremendous Divine Gift of Free Will. Now you have your choice to pull back into that, and which you know is the Truth which you are commencing to touch upon.

What is the function of the pearl teaching us? When a system is formed - like the one to which we belong which has thousands of suns of lesser and lesser suns - it is formed out of a combination which is a material, an electronic essence. When that essence is combined with another, the combination forms a pattern. That Essence with which the creative principle starts, no matter what is starting to form, is so tremendous that around it commences to form a friction—a push and a pull. The Essence tries to get out and the friction or the pull holds it in so it sets up the pattern of push and pull—friction. Then within this action is created the divine spark of Wisdom, that of which the creative solar system, the Great Creative Sun is made. We can't conceive that the Sun is made of Wisdom. We think Wisdom is made of knowledge. As Wisdom is utilized properly it commences to show you what Life is; who you are, what you should do, how you grow and what Mastery is. Few want to listen to Wisdom. They feel that Wisdom is acquired by knowledge. They want to listen to knowledge and so they stay with that. Gradually this action comes together and forms the Sun at the center of that Spark, which is what it is going to be. For an example, in the formation of a human being you would say that the Spark, the Wisdom is there and consists of the parts of that system that makes it whole—wholly pure and perfect. This works in conjunction with the push and the pull or the Great Fire Breath that is the art of creation through all systems. There are thousands of systems. We just live in one. They all are operated in this push and pull which forms and creates. As this action takes place the pearl commences to form its pattern of just what it is going to be.

A pearl in an oyster expands Light from a delicate grain of sand surrounded by that Light Substance, that Wisdom, that push and pull that is constantly working back and forth. It forms the oyster and gives the oyster the wisdom to exist. Out of the center of that oyster flows that very Essence which is the Holy Spirit which keeps expanding the Light to all things created. That makes all things—it makes creation possible. There is no beginning and no ending to creation. Out of that is the purpose of the pearl—it sends forth Light, Light, Light. Pushing and pulling, it is influential. It only sends forth its Light, it only glows, as it is used. That means that the oyster is in action. If the oyster is not in action and if it is held down, the pearls don't grow and send out that Light. So, this Center, this Substance, must have action. It must have something that keeps it in usage. That is why we are being taught and shown to use Life and use it rightly, so that the pearl of you—this Center, this Core, this Spark, this Flame, this Sun, this Soul—is giving of what it is made of so that it keeps expanding and it keeps joining, it joins and joins. That is why the admonition is "Love ye one another" so that it keeps this expanding a little more and a little more.

As a young girl I learned from observation that as I started wearing my pearls they developed a luster. That is what happens to me when I move into action all the time. The Center doesn't work if I just take it for granted. I have never been able to socialize. Something within closes up and slows my breathing and my life force somehow. The moment I become alert to what someone is telling me which pertains to Law, that second this within reaches out and starts to listen and opens up that Eye. That is the principle of the "pearl" within everyone. The Flame must have action, it must have the conscious action of your attention touching it in order for it to have the necessary stimulant to reach out, go forth, look, and guide you. We shut that off by allowing our human to tell us what to do and we don't permit this to guide us. It takes patience—Patience opens the Eye. Patience goes hand in hand with your Faith and Humility. You have to believe, you have to humbly believe in order that Patience can cause you to let go and let God guide you. It isn't easy, as you are finding, but it works.

You cannot over-expand your pearl. You cannot be in a hurry or rush, for then you interfere with yourself. It must be used in Wisdom and Balance. I AM the only Presence acting in my body. God take command!

Pearl of The Magic Presence came to my assistance on three occasions that I well recall. I didn't know it was Pearl at the time, but it was revealed to me at a later date. In each instance Pearl sat quietly beside me and caused a correction in outer events, bringing harmony and right-use-ness to the situation. This was the working action of the pearl.

What is the objective teaching of the butterfly and its relationship to the pearl?

The butterfly has the pearl in the center of his being. The cocoon shell has that little spark which is the pearl of the butterfly. That is a living spark and it has to move. Since the Essence of that spark is endowed with Life it wiggles, it moves, it shifts like a baby starting to form. This is the movement of the push and pull which creates the development and the need to move forth. Like a baby, once it has grown so much it can't stay there any longer so it pushes to break out. All birth is the same. The pearl or the spark commences to push to move forth. In the center of that idea is the seed pattern which causes it to become the butterfly. Within that seed pattern is the tremendous power that sends it forth to be. In our Center is this great power—Light—also. We don't do much with that because we give all power to the solar plexus and the materialism and the sensual world. This power here in the Center is just terrific. It pushes and pushes to get out. Part of it is Wisdom—the Wisdom of the pearl, the Wisdom of birth, the Wisdom of what that seed is and what it will do. Once the butterfly is out he is a deliverer of the Holy Spirit. He pushes and pushes until he cracks the cocoon. Emerging from the cocoon is the same as borning, the same as starting to awaken. As we first start to crack this human density that we are in there is too much light, there is too much noise, there's the wrong kind of this and that, the wrong kind of food, and so on. We think: "What will I do, why am I here, I thought I was the only one. . . ." As soon as the butterfly can crack that shell enough he crawls out. This little worm crawls out and he sits on his shell and he is subject to various circumstances. In his case he is subject to birds eating him and other hardships. Usually he is born under a leaf or bark which protects him and he can peek out. It's tough at first. Pretty soon this spark within is pushing against him so hard that he can't resist. If he is strong enough he pushes the shell or protection open and he crawls out. As soon as he is out he realizes he thought he was in a big world. He thought his cocoon was the whole world, all there was. It was the biggest thing of all; there was nothing any bigger. And then, here is this vastness that was far beyond any conception of his world. Now he has to start breathing differently. It is a different kind of atmosphere—what we call air. It is an essence that he is pulling in now. He has to do it in order to exist—he has to push and pull, push and pull. Then after a little movement he discovers something was pulling on him which we would call hunger. He commences to move around and do something about that by the power of Wisdom which is in that pearl.

That cell at the center of his being is Wisdom. It is the power of creation which is endowed with that which helps everything to grow. As soon as he pushes through a little, power starts to work through the power center in the butterfly. His wings were all rolled up and as he rolls them out he feels the power of these two currents. It's terrific! As he commences to use it he discovers that he has a lot more strength to do things. We would too if we used this correctly. But we use our feet and legs more than we use our arms. We are still concentrating on raising the lower form and the lower sensationalism. We have been for ages. Gradually we are learning to pull that energy up and get it into this Pearl—the Center, the Heart, the Spark, the Flame. As we do we let this power flow out. It's a different way of living. We don't like it. The brain says: "Oh, no, no, no, this is not right. I've been running this show and I can't do that. That's dumb." The brain won't permit it. So you have to fight. You have a two way system working in you. You have: "Ah, I want to be free, I want my freedom" and you have the other: "I have to think this through and do this right" and so on. You have to do it humanly. These two things are working all the time because that's our habit—the only thing we've done.

Gradually the butterfly finds that his wings can move him around and lift him. As the power comes through while he is moving around all the color commences to come into his wings. He commences to have pretty colors. He commences to have the ability to see other butterflies and accept them and enjoy their colors. He thought he was the only one but now he can recognize others. He thought his little cocoon was the whole world and he only knew the colors of his little cocoon, but now he has the ability to see new colors. We are the same way. We think we are the only thing that exists. We got so we thought we were pretty important. It's hard for the human being to break importance and "I'm special, what I say goes, I'm prettier, I'm superior, I'm smarter than anybody else." That is all that cocoon condition. You break that shell and say: "Oh, well you know something too?—Well, well." Breaking the cocoon is very difficult. We are learning to be what the Great Law says—to become "The humble and the meek shall inherit the Earth." He who can deliver Peace will be one of the saviours of the Earth. Peace and Humbleness is necessary to carry you through and to come out of your shell—your cocoon.

This is true for the butterfly also. As soon as he gets out and is flying around he knows the other fellow isn't going to hurt him. He watches other butterflies eating and finds he can eat too. Now he learns to eat by objective teaching. He's learning to eat and drink and he's learning to exist. He's learning that the way he can get from place to place is to use his power. He's learning to work this great power that is going through him and to distribute his essence. You are no longer bound to the earth—you can work through the etheric and use the etheric Light that goes through you. You don't become a butterfly by putting a motor inside you. YOU ARE the motor.

The butterfly is an excellent teacher and a frequently used example of development. He is not only pretty, he is free and he is smart. He is subject to danger and he can get into trouble just as humans can. To come out of his shell he must do it himself. Nobody can help. They must learn their own strength by doing it. That's what the human has to do. Nobody can take you out of your cocoon, your shell, your arrogance, your importance, your superiority, or anything that is of the human. You've got to do it yourself every step of the way! Then you learn to use your power, your Wisdom, which comes down and flows out. Your Wisdom of you flows out through these upper centers and you are a giver of this Light.

HELP FROM OUR SPACE BROTHERS

It is important that all doubt be removed and that you recognize and accept the beings from interstellar space, whether from our System or another System. Learn to recognize their feeling no matter what you are doing or where you are. As you become accustomed to their feeling and know they are near, no longer is there any doubt or fear, and you are at peace. They will then make it possible for you to know they are other than Earth people. You may or may not recognize them, and realize that they can and are working through you and guiding you into position for the help they are ready to give.

Since 1947 or 1948 when they began moving into position they have been coming because of the necessity and need of the human race. The stories circulating that they are here to destroy are not true! If you hear them or if they come to your attention, speak right up and say: "I don't go for that at all! They are here to help us!" Be brave, and speak up! They are here to aid humanity, and they have served mankind through all ages as the developing seed cell in the system has been assisted by other seed cells, other parts of our system. Nor do we ever interfere with another planet. As the Earth develops, it will not interfere with Pluto, or those planets coming in that are much newer and just developing into position; however, we will be able to communicate with and understand the developing procedure on Pluto while they will not understand how we know. No planet, as is claimed by some teachings, ever interferes with another planet, nor does any planet destroy another planet for any reason. As the Master has said, partial information is very dangerous. It must be challenged, but you must be very much intune and very calm to challenge without fear. It must be done with confidence, knowing that in the vastness of our Great System every part is about its own business. Never do the cells and tissues of your body interfere with each other. All have their thing to do yet interblending with cooperation that all function harmoniously as a whole. So it is said: "Understand yourself." Over and over that statement is repeated. Understand yourself, know yourself, and you can know all things!

When you commence to intune to the etheric, and can hold that intunement steadily, you do not have to memorize, try to convince, quote from memory or with the force of the human will. As you move more deeply into the etheric through your attention then your Center opens steadily all the time. You will only be able to help others when your Light can assert itself in humbleness, without trying to impress another with who you are, or what you know, or what status of growth you are in. A Master never tries to convince anyone that he is a Master. We constantly assist each other when we work together in the humbleness through which the Light can flow. That humbleness is the thing that makes it carry. "It is not my will" that I must advertise, "it is Thy will" - God's will, that must be known. And it speaks for itself. It is constantly speaking for itself through the Light!

Three of us were camping on the American River, and this great thing came up from the North and started up over the heavens. Its power, and the color of its power spanned the heavens like a veil. It has been revealed that the Craft can do two different things: they can disappear as you watch - suddenly they are gone - or they can vanish in the distance. There are two activities working from the Craft as through an instrument which sends messages as radio or TV transmissions back to the main Craft or the Mother Ship. These sensitive instruments can tune in very closely. I think they must run by the electro-magnetic principle, the push and the pull, the Power of Creation - that which created all systems. It is that same thing which we must understand and know the feeling of so that we move into that dimension of the fire breath, the basic principle of all things created in all systems -, and there are thousands of systems.

As this was revealed they commenced to show us how the two "fire balls," as they have called them, worked in sending messages to a specific area. When the "fire ball" has served its purpose it disintegrates and goes back into the universal sea. The other type can pick up certain messages, record them and relay tapes back to the Mother Ship and then return home. They are controlled from the Mother Ship, or from the ship from which they came. As soon as they are through they return to their ship again. We can see them with the naked eye because of their color. We could see this fire ball of beautiful colors, and it was tremendously powerful.

The craft work with you as far as they can, through your sincerity, through your development, and to the degree you have conquered fear and doubt. "To thine own self be true." That is one of the commands given to us under very high circumstances, that we learn what Truth is. Truth travels at the speed of Light, and we do not know what that means yet, but the craft travel on Truth, and they know Truth. This Truth we must learn, we must know, and that is why "To thine own self you must be true." Within this command is the great secret which brings out and increases the frequency of Light that goes through you all the time. That is the great secret of it.

Everything that we are finding and all that is coming to our attention during the beginning of this next cycle, the next stage of awareness, is the intervention of Divine help coming through, and we must recognize it. We must know that this Great Master Work which has come to our attention for the last 2,000 years, even though we do not understand it too well, is something with which we must follow through. As Godfre and others have said - "Just because you do not know a thing is no sign it isn't true!"

You are always learning. Let this open, and study it, but be very careful that you are not influenced by the negative, or by those who are trying to turn you from your seeking. The mind gets so set and it wants to assert its knowledge and its authority by trying to convince you of its importance and what it knows. That is the thing you are conquering with the human mind - that you know certain things. Whether you know them accurately or not, it is up to the individual listening to discern - each turning to his own Presence and asking: "God, show me the truth of this." Keep working on the truth of it, not a denial because you think you know better. Always listen, discern, challenge if you wish - that is good. The Great Ones say they welcome your challenge of them and anything coming that seems unusual; it is welcome, and that is good. That indicates, if you do challenge, and if you do question - that at least you are searching even if it be for proof, or the rightness or wrongness of another - at least you are searching. This seeking and searching is essential, it is very essential.

Many stories are coming now, which I have heard first hand. When one appears in Earth's atmosphere from interstellar space or from another planet, when they begin to become visible to the individual's awareness, they are carefully observing how you are reacting to a little something unusual - a Light, a color, a tone - for if there is any fear they leave instantly. They will not do anything that causes you to increase a so-called hidden fear that you didn't know you had. But if they find you stand firm and still in observing an unusual thing coming near, manifesting a little more and a little more faith, then steadily as they perceive that you can stand seeing them or being assisted by them, then they become visible to your senses. They do not raise you in the consciousness of your form that you become a more highly developed individual immediately. They cannot do that, nor would they do that, nor is it the Law; but they do have the tact and diplomacy to let your increasing attention touching your Source increase the function of your house - whether you are calm, whether you are at peace, whether you have faith, whether you are accepting, whether you want to know more about them that you can help, and so on. When that is observed, it is then that they become visible. They come in different Light, they come in perhaps the Light of their System, or a Light which to us is blue, or white, or translucent, or any tone of color we would express.

They cannot work through fear, because they do not come to clean up your habits, but they are here to enlighten you as to how to grow and what it is you have to study to clear yourself. But they cannot interfere with your fear on account of the free will, and they repeat this over and over.

While living on our ranch in Santa Rosa they appeared on the front porch of our house and spoke through our Flame. It is just as clear when they speak as when you are listening to the voice of a human. They said: "This which we give to you now, in a far future time you will be giving to others, and you will be helping your fellow man, preparing them for this which we are here to do to help the human race; and at that time you will be prepared, with the complete memory returned, that it can be given."

When a man in Glendale was reached by Spacemen, later he would sit down to write it out, and everything returned to him just as they talked to him on the craft. There is no memory work involved, it is another dimension entirely.

Many of the space people are working at great distances from us. They know every planet in the System, what it is, what it represents, and how every cell in the System is developing in its way in the greater body which is our System. Just as you know every part of your little system, and what it is doing, and what part it is in your little universe, on a minute scale, so they operate on a larger scale. Once you begin to understand that, you understand the system of creation and you know what it means when it is said that we are made "in the image and likeness" of this Great System to which we belong, for God made us in His image and likeness. Knowing that, we cannot look like the entirety of the system, but we are in the "image and likeness" of it, which is the same principle.

The space beings have never been earth born or lived in flesh form – they are born in their cell only, or their system. Nor do the space beings have free will.

Some of you have had some of these experiences and you haven't done too much about it, you haven't written it down. This has occurred sometimes from doubt, sometimes because you were afraid to tell it to some of your friends, for they aren't going to listen to you anyway, and partly because the interest wanes and you don't do anything about it. But you will soon have further experiences, and as soon as you do, sit down and write the highlights of it. Through this you will see now how you are developing to receive; how you are developing to be completely master over your doubts, your fears, and your self-punishment, you are becoming that which is "To thine own self be true." Remember, there is no limitation to Truth, it travels with the speed of light. Light and Truth travel at the same speed. We can't understand that because we do not yet understand what Truth is by its frequency. You will, however, as more and more "to thine own self be true" is taking place with you and as you are becoming the proof of the Truth. As that is accomplished enough that you begin to move into the frequency of Truth, you will then very naturally become the Law of Harmony, the Law of Peace, and the Law of Love, all those Laws. They are all attributes of the Kingdom. Again and again They admonish us: "Seek ye first the kingdom," seek it, "and all else will be added."

Due to man's free will, the Great Beings from interstellar space cannot interfere, they can only inspire and help. Nor can the Masters in the Great Cosmic Realm interfere any more than we here can interfere with one another, but They can inspire and guide and help. They are teaching and causing you to move into that state of consciousness in which you live and let live, that you do not interfere with another through judgment, condemnation, and so on. They are weaning you away from those things and helping you to stop these habits by fulfiling the Commandments, so that you no longer interfere with your fellow man, for that is breaking the Law. You see how quickly you find yourself suffering when you interfere in some manner with a friend or another, now that you are awakening. Hence the problem today with separations, divorces, and clashing of temperaments, because all are learning to live and let live. It must come to pass that you gain the ability to rise above coveting, judgment, envy, and those things. Then, more conscious of the ever present Divine help that is coming through from the Great Masters, the Cosmic Beings, and the beings from interstellar space, you are now awakening into the master stage of yourself, and that is permanent. But you must conquer those human habits and sustain your awakening, yourself!

All craft individuals from outer space say: "We cannot interfere with the earthlings, we cannot interfere with the human race, because they have that thing which they call free will." They know this. They know the Great Law, and so they cannot do more for us. They will not break the Law because they know it to be an essential part of our creative building process - something we are just commencing to understand. They cannot possibly break the Law. They are the Law!

Many people are in a hurry to contact space craft. It doesn't work that way. Be prepared. The essential thing is to ask the Presence to dissolve all fear and doubt from your world, and be sincere about it. If you have curiosity or if you pressure a thing, you do not have the patience to be used in different places at different times under certain circumstances. Curiosity interferes, for it only satisfies the human and does not lead one to seek and search further. Nothing is done with that learned through curiosity, so nothing is gained. Be very careful with that trait, if you have it, and try to clear it from your world. Be patient in the places where you are guided and the things you do. Be very patient, and ask - "God, show me why I am here and what I am to do," and go ahead and do something about doing something while you are there.

The question has been asked if the radiation from the space people is similar to that from the Arisen Masters. No, it is not the same. To be aware of the Masters will help raise you. It is a necessity that you be aware of the Masters or you will not ascend, but that is not so of the space beings. You must definitely accept, search, seek, study, feel, desire to know in every way how you can meet the Masters, have them work with you, contact you, help you, guide you - or you cannot be a Master. In that preparation, in that search, They can assist you. You can receive inspirational guidance and help from the craft beings, but they are not of flesh and blood development as we are through the elements of earth, water, air, and fire. We are developing through these elements out of the five sense world into the Etheric Fire. They work with the substance which they are, and how they are developed, but they work on the great electro-magnetic current as the Masters do and as we are learning to do. The Masters have accomplished this which we are moving forward to accomplish - master over earth-water element substance, and also mastery in the obedience to etheric fire. The Arisen Ones, the Cosmic Beings, the Great Logos - all are stages of development, actually stages of consciousness; not the picturing of development as we do in the five senses, but the conscious development of who we are - our Flame. We are cells in the body of humanity which is the moving part of the Great Body of the Great Silent Watcher, which is the overall body of our System. It is inconceivable to finite consciousness, but it is acceptable if you are seeking. You must be able to conceive of and accept before you can become this consciousness. You must desire it both for the development of yourself and your fellow man. Otherwise you do not set the Law of the push and the pull into action - the Law of Creation. You must give in order to receive.

YOU WHO WISH TO SERVE

What do you have to give to another, given who you are? That which you give and that which you do is what you are, what you have builded within yourself. What you believe in yourself, that which manifests through you is your own doing, your own faith, your own growth - your own activity of thought and feeling. Therefore, you seek to live, you have the intense desire to help someone, to do something for another. You must first develop Peace and Harmony within yourself in order to be able to help another. If you wish to help another rise out of a condition, a problem, a discord of some kind, you yourself must be above that condition. You must be above agreement with what is being expressed or what another is doing that needs higher assistance. You cannot teach, you cannot be a wayshower, a giver of Light, which is Eternal Love, which is Eternal Harmony, which is that which is termed the Kingdom of God unless you possess these qualities.

And what is God? God is Good. Thus, only can you help another by becoming that goodness in all that you do and say. The expression of words, the expression that moves forth by the outflow of your feelings must first be born in you by conquering any expression that is less than God, Good. In order that this may take place within you, you must first exercise discipline through your conscious desire to correct all human habits of the five sense world. These must be consciously corrected by the individual himself ere he can be a wayshower, a giver, a revealer of Light. Light is life. Life is that eternal essence known to us as Love. Light is Love, and Love is Light, and Light contains all things. Upon this Great Light, upon this Love you are now being raised into the realm of conscious qualification, to qualify the reality of this Light in order that misqualification and iniquity be raised. In qualifying this essence of the Light rightly you are dissolving, transmuting, and raising the lower material world. That can only take place when a higher frequency acts upon material qualification, after which it can no longer exist, for Love is stronger, Love is more powerful, Love is that which raises the lower into the higher, or the human into the etheric or divine. Hence, you must first seek the harmony within yourself that permits the flow of the Holy Spirit to act through you, and then you become conscious in the flow of Peace, Purity, Harmony, Patience, and the many attributes which are of the Kingdom. Thus, over and over it has been given through he who is conscious: "Seek ye first the kingdom and all else will be added unto you."

The Kingdom is etheric. The Kingdom is within - the Great Central Source, the Divine Principle of Creation, which endows itself into all things it manifests or creates. Hence, in a very minute scale as you awaken you become conscious in the Kingdom. In a very minute scale you are now creating a pattern that is like unto the Source of Creation. When you think, when you send forth a conscious thought that consists of the qualities and qualifications of good, you are sending forth the etheric substance known as the Kingdom - the Kingdom of Heaven. Always it moves with Naturalness, with Humbleness, with great ease, with Peace and Calm. It is not the complicated step that the five sense world likes to make it. The five sense world of man is perpetuated and sustained by the already manifested objective world of the human which is repetitious - repeated by observation, by knowledge and by experience. It is repeated over and over, so that is what man continues to become. But as soon as you realize that you can inject into this great human sea new Light and harmonious patterns that help dissolve the turmoil and confusion of the human, something within you comes alive making you aware that it is what you want to do. You want to send a beam into that turbulent sea and calm it. That beam is a conscious flow of the Holy Spirit, the etheric man, which is known as the two senses or the two worlds; or the two currents as the One again is the highest conscious awareness that can be injected into the human world. Those two higher currents - the One - is known to man as the Christ of this great Inner Sun or Light or Kingdom Consciousness - the Spirit of that Christ - or the Holy Spirit. You have the very sun of that within yourself and you have the essence or the substance of that moving forward.

Thus, you are moving to a sixth and seventh sense of yourself, that which is conscious consciousness. At first it takes patience. At first it takes a calm control by the individual before this can move forth, and that calm control is nothing more nor less than Harmony within oneself - Pure Harmony, Pure Love - unselfishly giving that which one really is now and which consciously begins to take effect. You start to fulfill the highest principle of Divine Love to the material world when you deliver by thought and radiation the Holy Spirit wherever you move. Hence, you are known by your works, more than all the preaching by the five sense consciousness of already manifested knowledge and experience can ever hope to accomplish. You are now bringing in a new element, that manifested substance of the Kingdom - Love - which has long been forgotten. You now help others to start seeking, hearing, searching, seeing, desiring a different way of life. This is delicate work - for ages you have lived in a very habit forming world, a fixed pattern of cause and effect that has been repetitious and in a groove, a continuous doing of the same thing over and over, and you cannot see beyond that.

As you commence to raise your sights and begin to feel or sense that there must be more to life, there must be an explanation for the pains and worries and aggravations of human existence, then the seeking begins. That moment of seeking, that very touch is responded to by Divine Love, which is the Divine Spark, the Center of your being, which is in the Etheric Belt of yourself, known as the Great Electro-Magnetic Presence. In that moment that very Divine Spark, that Eternal Divine Flame responds, and it is so delicate, it is so fleeting at first, that seemingly it is gone. It hasn't gone, it is you, but by your desire-attention, by habit you instantly moved back into the already humanly created groove of the five sense world. Henceforth you are never satisfied. There is something within you, dimly, yes, but there is something there that wants something better, so you become discontented. You seek diversion in the material world, you seek many different things, ever trying to find that illusive something. You seek it in various places, in many ways, in stimulants, in foods, in companionship, comparing knowledge and experience in a diversity of things, and still you are not happy. You move into comparison, but it seems not to be the solution. Comparisons keep you right where you have been. Often comparisons are termed odious, they are materialistic. It keeps you in a rut, and so you move into judgment, you move into denial, you move into resistance, and back and forth, suffering through all. You bring on disease and discontent and more suffering, and then in the depths of a reversal you faintly, dimly, or sometimes loudly and from the very depths of it all you call: "O God help me, where are you? Who am I? What can I do?" With that you either drop off to sleep and rest, awakening with a faint idea of being a better Christian, or sometimes you may go into a type of silence or meditation and resolve you are going to be different. Sometimes you make written resolutions that you are going to be different, and so you start again. This time it is a little stronger; you do not realize it but it is, and so you start again. Gradually, after a few of these back and forth episodes somewhere you find a fellow man, a brother or sister, who is suffering with something, and you offer a little help, you offer perhaps a type of solution to the problem, and lo, you feel better, you feel you can forget your own troubles if you help someone else, and you start to give. For a while you give, looking for results, and then you become discouraged, but after a time you find that you cannot look for results but must go ahead and give and forget, give and let go, and soon you find it makes you feel better. You feel stronger, you feel happier, you feel like you want to do more instead of lying down on the job or complaining about yourself. As soon as that takes place you find that it is better to give, that it is helpful to give, and so your first step has been taken in Love.

Through all this you are now finding that Harmony is the solution. Harmony, Peace of mind, and that very thing called Patience. Only as you acquire Patience, by your conscious desire to be Patient, can you help another by that which you now feel is this etheric substance called Love. And you find that Love is Wisdom. Love is Compassion. Love is Purity. Love is all these things which are within that which is called the Kingdom, that which is the Kingdom of Heaven. It is within you all the time.

After you have become a giver of Light and served in its delivery by the Holy Spirit for a period of time, many will be seeing and sensing that you have something they want, but will not know how to obtain it. The majority of mankind will still be pushing, they will condemn you and "bear false witness" against you. As these things take place, as you are helping and giving of good, it comes to your attention that "There is nothing hidden that is not revealed." Now comes your great test in strength that you do not let others affect you by the power they may wield in their five sense world action, the power of human will. If you let those who bear false witness affect you by your attention upon the thoughts and patterns they have released, you are putting that same pattern into your five sense world, and naturally it is going to take residence and act unless you refuse to give it power. Your ability to handle such things is your continous flow of Love and Compassion, which now must be the pattern you are in. It must be there and stay through your continuous right-useness, righteousness, the continual act of that which is known as the Golden Rule, or the Holy Spirit, or the Kingdom Consciousness. This has become more and more a part of you, and you have grown and developed into a new pattern of conscious qualification that is your every thought, your every deed, your every act of qualifying good upon this etheric Light flowing through you.

The Kingdom of God is within you! The consciousness that you have become now is the Kingdom. Now you become this continuous action consciously and you are in that which is the NOW, RIGHT NOW! Now you are in this Heaven Consciousness continuously through your qualification. By your ability to think, by your ability to desire, by your ability to qualify, you are constantly qualifying Good. This is not a duty, rather it is that which is "To thine own self be true." You are that which is the fulfillment of "Love thy neighbor as thyself." As soon as you realize that the real you is as much a part of assistance as is the real Source of your neighbor, then in that consciousness you become a Oneness of the Holy Spirit, a Oneness of the Kingdom Consciousness, and you no longer have enemies. You no longer set up that which is enemy, or judgment, for now you are completely conscious that what you give is what you are, and what you say and what you do is completely what you deliver. You are totally responsible for that which you give. You are totally responsible for everything that you think, say and do! Understanding this, you have the natural ability to be at peace. You have the naturalness of letting go and letting God pour through you. You are unaffected by the great intricacies of the world of the human, which is in a constant habit of human qualification and human desires.

The more you awaken into the Consciousness, the more you see yourself doing some little thing that others are also doing. The tendency is to feel they are misusing the Law. Instantly you feel yourself having that opinion and you find you have to clear yourself from the same thing. Perhaps you are not now doing it quite so strongly as before, but since it is recognized in another as something they shouldn't be doing, then you too must say: "I shouldn't be doing it either." Thus you begin to see what it does to you and you learn that these things have to be corrected in yourself before you can help others. You cannot observe another making an error without it affecting you by that which is called judgment, criticism, condemnation and those various activities. You now realize that your Love and your Compassion can leap forth to another, and you have the ability to pour forth help silently. Sometimes you can go directly to help another, and no matter how forcefully they are speaking or acting, they do not affect you, for you have Divine Compassion and Love for them.

This Love is what gradually causes you to become a giver of the Light, a Wayshower. This is gradually what you become – a Deliverer of the Light, a Teacher of the Light. Only when you have attained step by step is this Consciousness of the Kingdom resident within you, and you are able to be at Peace and help others.

Transition

A young man came to the house, an attorney, who was very spiritual, was having quite a problem with his work. After discussing the problem for some time I said silently: "O God, help me. I don't know what to do." I didn't do it mentally from the brain. I worked from the Center of my being, my Flame – God – which is all Love, Wisdom and Power. After a moment of silence the Still Small Voice said within me to raise my hand. I did so and touched my forehead on the right side, and I said: "Why don't you come down out of the office . . . and get out of the file cabinet . . . and close the door . . . and enter the cathedral?" and I indicated the Center of my being by a motion to the area of my heart. This was seemingly a very childish thing to say to an attorney. He looked at me, but remained still – and so did I, I didn't repeat it. When you work from the Center you don't have to keep repeating to get someone to hear what you are trying to tell them. The brain, the finite mind, continually repeats, but Infinite Mind does not. I sat still and watched a most beautiful smile come upon his face. His hand touched his chest and he said: "What is that?"

I said: "That is God."

He said: "What did you do to me?"

I said: "I didn't do anything. You did it yourself."

He said: "No, you did something to me. What is that you put inside of me?"

I said: "I can't do that. It is there already. You just had not found it yet. God is within you. Why don't you turn your attention to the Center and say: 'God, take command and show me what I am doing.' "

Then he just beamed and his eyes twinkled and he said: "O, I have never been so happy before!" But in the next moment a frown came on his face and I said: "What did you do? Did you go upstairs again? Come back down to the Center into the cathedral. You know what a cathedral is. It is still and has many windows of Light. Stay in it. While you are in the cathedral ask the Light of the cathedral – the Power of God – whatever you wish to understand. Be still and talk to God while you are there."

A young man I worked with today who has returned several times said: "If you can't do anything about it, let them go." You must not take that attitude, for if you are going to serve, if you are going to help, and if you are going to work to become a member of the Great White Brotherhood, there is nothing too big or too small, too little or too great for you to help. Everyone, and especially a seeker who has a problem, needs your Compassion and Love. That does not mean you have to stand at their side or interfere, but it does mean that you are on call when needed.

Many who have been good and are working diligently to be this Law, yet do not have a strong enough foundation in it to start moving in, go off in many ways – mentally, physically – sometimes it takes them out. They can't meet the change or the increase of energy, for they aren't trained to meet it as you have been trained. It is a very valuable foundation. It was particularly noticeable when you first arrived and as you started working here. There was a massive firm foundation in your worlds. It wasn't something you had to build, it is something that was already there as you came under the Master's guidance in this work. Each one has had an earlier foundation principle training in the work he has been doing, and can have this foundation principle through building this firm foundation that must have the stabilization for working with others. Your firmness and your strength must have the understanding as their foundation is being builded that they too can have this same principle of firmness through this transition.

More and more this transition activity is being talked about by everyone - newspapers, radio, TV, people everywhere are discussing an incoming change, a thing that is going to happen. Questions are continually asked concerning it. The subject would not be so universal if something wasn't pushing into position. There is nothing more anyone can do about it than the tremendous application they are making in their daily inner work, to be more intune to guidance of where to go and what to do. The Masters are working it through certain ones on the Earth who are sincere enough to listen, sincere enough to want to do something about that which they have. That sincerity is in your claiming what it is you want to do. You must claim - you must acknowledge and claim! You aren't going to be selected because you have been good and made a few calls and decrees. It will only move in for you through your acknowledgment and acceptance. You are the director of your free will, and you are learning to be the conscious director of that.

This is one thing Godfre kept giving forth to the people, but, of course, being a much earlier period, he was talking to a much more orthodox audience, people still holding pretty tight and set in the religious belief. That was a challenge in his work; but now it is working on a much more fertile ground and the receptivity is much greater.

BE ONE OF THE CHOSEN

As you move into the consciousness of your Presence, the next development of consciousness, the heart is regulated by the Great Pulse of the Presence. It is no longer separted by vibration of the material which we know through finite mind and the pineal gland, which has been a long standing habit.

In Divine Mind the extended or physical form is operated with pulsation, which pushes into and through every cell, making them aware of that push. Then the pineal gland is no longer regulating the form by conscious awareness. So in this next stage of consciousness you are aware of both things. You haven't quite let go of the operation of the pineal gland and its vibration. It doesn't subside and let the pulsation take over excepting in transition. That is that principle of resurrection. It takes place slowly but steadily, because vibration and pulsation are commencing to make you conscious in the vastness of the pulse beat of life. But the body is not quite ready for that because there are still some interferences, some density, taking the attention back to the exterior extension. This awareness pulls you back into the finite heartbeat, which changes the pulse pressure. You go through resurrection only because you want to go through it. It takes strength and effort, and the calming of the exterior disturbance which is vibration, in order that you are in the pulsation, and you awaken into the Presence of yourself. To awaken is to be conscious in. As soon as you are conscious in it, habits that have been dormant, strong, or very active for ages, they are the things that become a problem for they interfere with pulsation, with that flow of the life giving element of blood and how it works. It changes into pulsation. It is not pressure. The pulsebeat does not pressurize you, it is the breath, and the breath is not pressure.

When the attention is aware of vibration, the real you does something which indicates it doesn't want it, and right there in that moment, in that very place of transition, you have to have conscious control – the patience and the control to transist. To change, you change over consciously, or to resurrect, to ascend – it must be done consciously – knowing, I AM. As soon as that takes place and you can say "I AM" you know you exist consciously.

All the forces of human creation in the Great Sea where the extended flesh remains are reaching toward the Light shining through this extended form, as a moth strikes at a flame. It hits and hits and hits, but it cannot get through. If you open the way by breaking the Law, the force can move in, the moth can get through. Sometimes the human pattern gets burnt, it gets hurt, but nevertheless, you have to do something to handle it. That is the reason that the Great Masters are moving to help he who seeks to conquer the thought patterns that have been manufactured in the material matter world. No one can dissolve those patterns for you but yourself, because they are part of you. Transition is steady – it is as rapid as you want it – simply through the Law of Obedience and seeking. Understand that when you say: I AM the Light, you are seeking it, because you are announcing by your own free will that which you want. If it is said lightly, you get it lightly; if it is said deeply, you get it deeply. It is up to you. If it is said sincerely, you get it sincerely. You get it in just the way you ask for it. Then the more you are in it, the more it stays; and the less you are hurt and disturbed by material pressure, material interferences, and material influence. As this is clear and you are in the consciousness of the Presence of yourself, you are in the realm of the Masters' Presence, soon completely clear and conscious in Their presence. It cannot be any other way until you are in that consciousness, because you are not in that pulsation until you are in that pulsation. Then you are in Their pulsebeat, and you know. As soon as that keeps staying a little more, and you are at Peace in that, you commence to have the ability to work through into the material realm and help others. That is the only way, by helping and giving, that you sustain yourself. The absolute Law of the Fire Breath is to give that you receive – the push and the pull that lifts you out of the density of materialism and vibration.

The finite mind is to the brain what the Spark is to the heart, and what the pituitary gland is to the solar plexus. Each center has an attracting point. For a long time the entrance to the source of the human body was the solar plexus – that and the pituitary gland. Gradually the entrance worked into the finite mind and the pineal – the crown – was the entrance for ages. So it has been up to this next cycle of development, which is the awakening of the Infinite Mind. Now we touch upon the heart center, or the Christ point, which is the sum and substance of the Great Central Source of Creation that sends out its own material to reproduce. Those points of attraction have been the action along the ages of human development. Now it is in its final stage of developing, where it becomes a sun of itself, or Divine Mind. Within this is the Great Power of the awakening to the birth of the Christ, which has become the most well known movement in human development up to the present. Now man awakens into Wisdom, moved by Love and Power. You must purify and develop to handle it because it is a higher pulsation and must act through the electronic body. Letting go is the big problem through almost all of Eurasia to move away from giving power to the Third Eye. For ages the awakening human race has been teaching the power of the Third Eye and the pineal gland. Actually the Third Eye has become known as the three as one: "Let thine eye become single." It is no longer the Third Eye, but it is The Eye. Until your eye becomes single you are not awake. It has taken duality, the principle of the Third Eye, and the principle of "the only begotten Son" for man to become the power of the three as One to know what the great Oneness or the purpose of your Flame is. It is not phenomenal, it is natural!

Read Chapter XXIV in Step By Step We Climb To Freedom, carefully and you will understand more thoroughly this which has just been said. Put your attention on the Masters' name, loving them, and claiming, with the attention on the Source: I AM the Presence of (and name the Master).

This is a very private work. It is not something to go out and talk about to others not yet understanding, or teach in any manner unless prepared. The Master is in you and you are of the Master. Your claim, your seeking, helps that Master quality to awaken and go into action. It is not that you do not have all the Master qualities and that each Master has all the qualities. They have arrived at Perfection of all in all, or the completeness of the Presence of themselves; yet at the same time, each one works on a particular attribute of development of the human race in its entirety to make it whole. I AM the Living Presence of (name the Master), within yourself with your attention on your Source – I Am the Living Presence of the Master El Morya – and be still. Let El Morya push that attribute through you to your conscious awareness. Some calls will act stronger than others, according to your development, and according to the attribute in action through you. I AM the Living Presence of the Master Jesus. Let it act. You may have a tremendous momentum with Jesus, and you will get a tremendous response from that, seemingly more than from anyone else. That is all right, but do not over-amplify it that you go forth and say: "Jesus is my Master and there is none other." That is what has happened to individuals when they get a conscious charge from a Great One. It is amplified too much. Accept it, bless it, but it isn't something to go out and talk about. Let it go. I AM the Living Presence of the Great Divine Director working through me. That will amplify Divine Directorship of the Presence of yourself, which is your Divine Director through you. It will increase, for that very statement is your acceptance of it, and free will cannot interfere. You are announcing what you seek, and it must be done in order to awaken into the wholeness of the Presence of yourself and unify the two currents within you. You can claim any of the Masters. I AM the Living Presence of the Lord Maitreya. Let it go through and feel it. Sometimes it can respond through very sharply and quickly and clearly. Other times you get no response. If you are not able to pick up the attribute then, it is all right if you cannot pick it up immediately. That is the process you are going through – learning to expand this Love. Then you say: "I love and bless you (saying the name)" of the one you want to bless. In sending that Love forth, you are delivering it consciously. Then be at Peace, and it will pour forth just as the love of the Sun pours to its System. It is either done consciously and creatively, or it is just pouring forth. It is either building, or it is expanding what it has built, and so are you. You are either creating, or you are expanding what you have created, whether good, bad, or indifferent. So you see, you are what you think! You are what you sow. You are what you give. Then soon you know that what you sow is what you reap. What you give comes right back to you. You commence to know the ecstasy of sending forth this Light, this Love, this Presence of you, and you are at Peace.

Day by day and step by step you are clearing more and more and more. Whether others like it or not, let it go. You will be opposed and you will be loved. You will be accepted and you will be rejected. People will speak against you and people will speak for you. Let it go! Go on! In the beginning the Great Secret was spoken: "Many are called but few can be chosen." If we can find just a few who will carry on the Masters work and be the example, one by one they will be pulled into position. Become one of those Chosen ones!

THE VICTORY OF FULFILLMENT

You are learning to intune to your Source of Wisdom, the Great Presence of yourself, which is your teacher. This Presence starts to develop and flow through the Power of Buddha moving the individual toward becoming the enlightened mind - becoming active in Infinite Mind. The word "Buddha" is a title, a station. You are touching upon this Wisdom of intuning to Wisdom, and Wisdom acting on Wisdom produces Wisdom. Buddha of necessity moved as the forerunner or the harbinger and the Christ awareness had to be established in the mind before we could become the Living Christ Principle on the Earth. That is to take place by the cyclic influence, as was said: "In the far distant future," which is now. You will know this now by the signs of the times. All of these revelations and all of these things keep coming through steadily, but it took the revelations, it took the Temples, it took the Pyramid, it took all this training. It takes all of these things to capture the attention of the unruly wayward human race which has gotten out of hand by saying they are the power. That is the problem which man has and which they are going through because of that disobedience. Our own disobedience has to be rectified or redeemed, and that is what is taking place now. As soon as you get clear enough that you know you are working out this redemption, then you start doing something about it by intuning to the privilege of asking God to show you the truth of it. You don't have to go to the Temple, or the Pyramid, or to any of the great leaders on the Earth, which was necessary in the past through initiation. All of these things are steadily coming to your conscious awareness and bringing it into alignment with who you are, what it is you have to do, and how you are developing.

Some will say it isn't necessary to learn these things. If it isn't necessary for you, skip it; but if you are a wayshower, an awakener, a deliverer of Light and Law, a seeker, and learning this great cyclic action, which is the Great Law of the Cycle - and teaching this, then get with it! It is not a duty. It is not forced upon you. That is why in ages past the Temples and edifices were built so that man might steadily climb through by the capturing of the attention. You are what you think all the time. The principle that is causing you to awaken now, learning to redeem, is not easy. To clear and come through you experience suffering and problems which force you to turn to God; otherwise you are smugly satisfied.

Many dwell upon the past experience, and too much attention is given to karma and former lives. It is not something you should dwell upon because looking back you see what that level is and was for you. You don't want to dwell on it, because what your attention is upon you become, and you pull it back into your world. That is why the Great Ones do not look back. Live now, but be grateful for the past, be grateful for all the things that have happened to you, good, bad, or otherwise. But if you condemn or punish yourself, you then are looking back and pulling it into your world. The mistakes you have made or the things you have done in this life or any life, are over; so be grateful. Your gratitude is your acknowledgment that you have learned your lesson, and if you have learned your lesson and learned it well, you do not have to say: "I have learned my lesson so I will never do that again." Sometimes you will turn right around and do it over again. Learn your lesson and be grateful, work through it, and fulfill that lesson by becoming the example of its fulfillment. As soon as that takes place, because you are the example of fulfillment, you have that radiating principle which is flowing through you, which is the Holy Spirit that is carrying its message by the right-use-ness from yourself. Now this energy is qualified with Truth, with accomplishment, and it goes forth. So your emanation (I do not use aura), your radiating principle is delivering Truth far and wide. You are not limited to distance, you can deliver around the world, pouring this forth into the great flow of the human realm. Let it penetrate through and constantly perform its uplifting action. That is a higher frequency, and it is constantly pulling up. Everything reaches for the Light; so all human vibrations that have been created in the matter manifested world are forever seeking to reach the Light, constantly pulling upward. Thus, the more that you can interpenetrate by your right-useness the more you are helping to build the "above" all the time. The "below" is copying the "above" constantly reaching for it. "As above, so below." You are helping to purify things. Many say we cannot do that. What can one little individual do? What affects one affects all! Also, it is said: "One with God is a majority." Think how powerful that statement is! The majority would be the entirety, you might say, and one with that is of the majority. This majority with God is more powerful than the majority of human creation. You are helping to pull up all the time. At the same time you are also becoming an example, an example of the Light.

As we were working earlier, a girl wanted to know how to enter into the society of her associates. She recently moved from one town to another area and found herself associated with a number of social groups. No one in these groups she had entered was interested in any type of spiritual Law and she didn't know how to talk to them. She asked how she could become involved and interest them? I said: "Be at Peace," and I gave a couple examples of how I had to enter into two or three things on different occasions and how it worked. I did not try to impress anyone or express anything at all to them. I let them do their thing, and I kept intune all the time, keeping in the background, and tremendous results were accomplished. In a group of about thirty, three different people were aware of my presence and each waited to seek me out later, showing me how it did move through.

This Great Law is a sustaining Power. What is the great pull to the accounts of the Knights of the Round Table and the various things that took place? Why are those things continually brought up? Why are they spoken of century after century? What is their sustaining power? There are billions of things that go under the bridge and disappear, but there are many things that come to Light all the time. What is that? There is a reason behind it. As you learn a lesson and things are accomplished, and you are aware there is a Law behind that, you have grasped the Law of how you accomplished under guidance. That is a good example for you to give to another, and with the Law behind it. Many people will accept certain things that you reveal which you too had to learn the hard way, and what you accomplished from it – the Law you learned and how it worked.

Again and again, over the last several years, new seekers have said: "O, I didn't know that you ever suffered anything, and if you suffered through that, then there is hope for me." Everyone punishes himself because he feels he has broken the Law too often. Do not punish yourself. Be grateful, be happy, work along, and your happiness, your joy, your gratitude for the thing accomplished is the sustaining power of the accomplishment, the truth you got out of it. If your gratitude is real, you instantly have help from Higher Ones, because they too learned the same way. Knowing that they have pulled through these same things in the great human stratum and have become teachers of teachers, helps you to realize that if they can do it, you can do it, as long as it is good which you seek. Seek the good, seek your progress. Never envy, never judge, never covet! Never condemn another because perhaps that one has a little more luck or something a little better for the time being. Be grateful! "I AM grateful you have it." Say it silently if you wish, but mean it! No false compliments or flattery. You don't want anything that exposes falseness!

Be grateful! After you have arrived at one step and are moving to your next step and the thing you are going to do, be very grateful to he who helped you. In that way you are able to help another. Your Gratitude is your sustaining power.

You cannot have Compassion until you have Love, and Love is much more than a word. To have Love and sustain it takes Wisdom, and Love and Wisdom are not born except under Divine Power of the Great Father-Mother Principle, the great electro-magnetic current which is your pulsation, your Great Fire Breath. But it cannot unify and be the action of this threefold activity, nor can you find the kingdom and be in it until you have become the threefold activity. The Great Pyramid, as well as the Tower of Babel contain within their mystery this same Truth. These things were for a purpose – to help lift man up to this time where you commence to be what is called through that great historical Revelation, the "end of the world." This denotes the end of teaching by ritual and ceremony and symbolism – that now you are the symbol, you are the ritual, you are the ceremony, you are the master, you are the Great Presence of the combination of Love, Wisdom, and Power. This consciousness is helping you to become unified. Yoga and meditation were brought forth from the East to join with the West in unity. This coming together is part of the outpicturing of the great Oneness which we turned aside from so long ago. As that Oneness is commencing to touch, you are beginning to awaken, and you are those people, the New Age race of people who borned yourself in near the 1940-1950 period – and you are starting to do something about it. Many of you are moving along in the vein of becoming Wayshowers of the new race of the incoming millennium. The opening of the incoming cycle takes place over a period of about a quarter of a century as it moves into position. It runs in a forty year cyclic action and we entered into this present forty year period in 1980. These changes do not take place all at once; it is always a gradual process.

No longer do you have to turn to symbolism to help you find this which you are seeking. You are the symbol! You are commencing to study and know who you are, and that you are made "in the image and likeness" of this Great System. This is your first step of teaching, that you are going to be teachers of the new race, Wayshowers, Torchbearers. That is why you are closely aligned with this kind of work, which is Torchbearing. That is the symbol of the ring I worked with, which means a Torchbearer of the Arisen Host, symbolized on the top by the six-pointed star, meaning you contact that in the sixth sense consciousness.

In the sixth sense consciousness as it moves into this new cycle you are no longer guided by the five sense world of human personality for you are rising above that, you are walking on the water. All this is your learning, your teaching, your foundation of the Truth. This is what is moving you into different positions, different places, with different people, making different connections, so you receive all you require for the completeness of your conscious awareness of who you are. You become whole, wholly pure and perfect – only by your seeking to do so. You yourself open the door for yourself. No one can open it for you, but as you are opening the door you will have guidance in various ways toward that which you seek. If you are big enough to recognize the guidance and are sincere enough to start doing something about it, you are guided into that which you are to do. No longer will you be burdened with boredom, disappointment, discouragement. All those things now begin to clear from you.

You have to be very sincere, very strong in your calls for what you want, in what you would like to accomplish that it can come through. You must be sure you can handle what you ask for and you are ready to take the consequences. Are you strong enough to handle the next stage of development if this is what you ask for? Do you know what it is, and do you realize what you are going to go through? Do you realize what your next step of consciousness entails? You have thought it through mentally, yes, but have you followed through on it by a conscious realization of what you are asking for? As you change, as you advance, it is far from easy. It is a completely different world of dimensional consciousness that is very different from what you have been used to for several lives. It takes quite a while to rise above the habits of the human – things so much a part of you that it takes lessons and experiences, pain and suffering, and a lot of erasing to grow into that which first gave you a glimpse of a different you. You must learn to identify with that real you under very sincere, natural, normal circumstances. To stimulate yourself into your Presence is extremely temporary. To climb steadily into your Presence by the way of self-conscious effort, self-conscious desire, is the permanent way and the steady way, but the hard way.

The new world you enter into is very different in its power, in its qualification, in its observation, and in the awareness of what Love really is. It is excruciating, it is painful, yet it brings you ecstasy beyond words to the point you almost seek the opposite for relief. Still, you must carry on. You can only be assisted by the great field of developed consciousness, a Master or a Master Presence by the emanation of your tone and color revealing the strength of your sincerity and the strength of your goodness, and if unto thine own self you have been true. That is what is guiding the Great Celestial Beings in assisting our Masters that they in turn can assist you, that we may help the human race in transition. Many ask what relation are the Great Beings from interstellar space to the Arisen Masters. Can you ask what relation you are to a Master? It is not a divisional relationship. It was and always will be a continuous development. It is consciousness developed, rather than shape forming, which is the tendency of the human – to want to see different changes. What you seek is this conscious development by your sincere desire to do so. Only your desire and your attention firmly placed upon this Great Eternal Spark is your Victory. Your attention is your Great Divine Director, and your master at this level of your attention. If you choose to master your attention it will raise you through sincere, deep, determined, honest effort. In no other way can you harness that attention. The greatest gift the Great Ones have given to man today is the understanding that his conscious awareness must be where he throws his attention when he says "I AM."

When you first touched upon the Light, whether it was in recent years or whether it was some time earlier, great enthusiasm was yours. Why? Because your attention hit upon the desire that you wanted more Light, that it was a bright new day! In that beginning you happily and joyously started using the Light with great enthusiasm. You had some beautiful results then and there, and you used it with love and gratitude, sometimes positive, sometimes with arrogance, sometimes as though it was there to serve you, and sometimes you turned from it. It wasn't moving as fast as you wanted it to so you were discouraged. Now faintly and dimly you are trying to capture that first moment, the first love of the Presence, and you are trying to bring it into position again. But you are doing it in a different way – you are trying to do it physically and mentally – you are trying to force it impatiently; then the cry, "It doesn't work." Along came the trend that so many hit, the turning to diversity and all the things that go with it. Now the time is rapidly coming and close upon us when you are suddenly starting to say: "Where am I? Who am I? What am I doing, and what am I supposed to be doing?" You are just beginning to say that, after you have said it before for many years. Now is the time that your Light commences to show whether you are sincere or not and you arrive at the point where "Many are called but few can be chosen." Your sincerity is going to be your garment, it is going to be your cloak. What color is your cloak? What color is this garment you wear, and how strong is it? Will it fall away at the least provocation or will it stay and enfold you through anything and everything which you are working through? Now it is up to you!

You have had tremendous help. You have accepted and rejected this assistance. You have made every type of argument against it, and much for it. It is rapidly showing more each day, who you are and what you are going to do. Within this too, it is showing your respect for your brothers and fellow man, your love and blessings to them, and your understanding that they too are developing their way and you are developing your way. This great cohesive connection that you are learning to communicate through is the formation of the Great Principle of the Great White Brotherhood – of you becoming a brotherhood – a race that is more and more rapidly stepping into position to help lead hue-man into this New Age. You haven't been guided to be helped and to hear these things because you are anything special; you have earned it. You have earned it the hard way through the ages, and your Light, your tone and color shows exactly what you are and who you are.

After having sat in the presence of the Great Inflow that has taken place here, (as well as elsewhere on the Earth), no longer should you condemn yourself that you are not worthy of this, ever, ever! That kind of self condemnation is just like speaking to our Great Teachers and condemning Them. You are now in direct communication and under the direct attention, being watched and guided, as you are becoming part of Them in this consciousness. The Great Ones have helped the Great Ones helping the Great Ones, and so on - so it is here! These Great Masters have alerted us to their awareness, and it is in that stratum where they exist. In transition you move from the earth belt into this next belt known to your consciousness of acceptance and awareness, as the Great Etheric Fire of yourself. That is all you need to know for your next step, for you cannot take the step following until you have fulfilled this next one coming to you. There is no need to ask: "What is going to happen to us in that cycle, and that cycle, and so on?" That is merely curiosity, energy wasted, and you are hindering your growth. You don't want that.

Accept what is going to take place next year, and this coming decade without concern, by steering your vehicle carefully to the next stage of development. Do not try to get to the next road ahead to see what is on it. Stay on this one and be that which you are on it, and by your works you will be known. The way is difficult now, yes. Associations - relationships - have been quite difficult, but often your best teacher, in many cases the most divine teacher along your path of objective teaching. If you are true to yourself these things become very clear to you and no longer do you proceed with arrogance, importance, or seeking recognition. This Law is what you want to fulfill. It is depending on you and has been for several years now as many are gradually moving toward it. Your fulfillment today proceeds to make the Victory of Fulfillment ahead of you. The Great Hierarchy is being guided into its next stratum as definitely as you are guided into yours, and their obedience to that is the victory of the stratum in the next great band, and this pattern is eternal. So the little human should not attempt to figure out this great system on the finite human level, but follow up the road and fulfill in the transcendent way it is showing you to proceed, pulling yourself out of all suffering, all human qualification, becoming "born again," resurrecting, throwing off that human density forever.

You were aware of this earlier, but then you lost sight of it through doubt, or discouragement, or haste. Now you are commencing to get a glimmer of it again. You are stronger now - your truth, your strength, your sincerity is stronger, and you have more confidence. That confidence is essential, but it must remain humble, and when it receives an additional impetus which helps it to become stronger than it has been, your humbleness must be stronger also. When you receive this Power, and it is stronger than it has been before, that must infiltrate through your physical form and work through the atomic structure assisting the development and resurrection of the atomic form.

There seems to be a new consciousness coming through. I seem to be going through a transition into another stratum. In this the Earth is almost nonexistent, and the same with personality, yet you are conscious of the Earth because you are still linked by that connection through which you work, the nervous system of your body. As it changes for one, it can assist anyone who believes in that one. That is the Law of this great uplifting procedure that is the system of the energy of the nerves through the exterior form. That great energy of the nervous system is known to us as the Great Electronic Father-Fire-Force. Faintly you can commence to see what you are asking for when you say: "I and the Father are one." As soon as you begin to be consciously aware that you are One with that Great Electronic Creative Principle, which is the Energy of Creation known to us as the Father, you commence the transition and you commence to touch that consciousness of the Oneness. Now are you prepared to handle the results that are going to go through you with that increase? Are you preparing yourself for it? Do you know what you are asking for?

You learn at higher levels while you sleep, but you only ascend consciously. No Great Master, no Great Being ever ascended when asleep. Wouldn't it be easy if we could? But what your attention is upon is where you can learn in the rest of real sleep if you are capable of bringing it through clearly enough that you can reap the good of it. When you pick up the real and the true through your desire of how you want to develop, the Great Presence assists you and drops through the nerve center to cause you to pick up the true picture. Be extremely careful, therefore, using discretion in how you give forth your so-called dreams and experiences, things that come to you as real. The Great Law works through in that manner as another teaching process for you. Learn to discriminate between the real and what comes from the astral realm. Carefully ask the Presence to show you about it, but do not tell it to others. Quite often you can extract out of it something the Great Presence is teaching you. This Great Law is constantly striving to lift you to the status of your Presence!

In Volume 3
Pearl Reveals the Practical Application of the Ascended Master Teachings

Quotes from this Volume:

"THE TOUCHING OF YOUR SOURCE BY THE ATTENTION IS THE SECRET TO YOUR AWAKENING. It is the most vital thing you can do."

"I AM the Living Light. I AM awakening into this Great Light. I AM sustained in the Light. I AM the resurrection and the Life. I AM the perfect balance of this Light. It is there! Ask for it! Be still! It is just like it returns back to you and says: 'I have been here all the time, but you have ignored me for ages and ages. You have run around searching for me, and I AM right with you wherever you go. Accept me.' "

"In no other way do you become Master, except by your own conscious effort. You yourself as your own master, your own teacher, your own director, your own Light, your own guidance—all these things are within you. This is what you seek, this is what you awaken into, this is what you become, and this is your work."

"You must first develop peace and harmony within yourself in order to be able to help another. . . . You cannot teach, you cannot be a way-shower, a giver of Light unless you possess these qualities."

" 'Many are called but few can be chosen! ' If we can find just a few who will carry on the Masters' work and be the example, one by one they will be pulled into position. Become one of the chosen ones!"
